His narrative style, characterized by vivid imagery and gripping dialogue, explores themes of injustice, morality, and the human condition, reflecting the complex societal challenges of his time, especially with works like The Cloister and the Hearth and Hard Cash. Charles Reade (1814-1884) was a prominent English novelist and dramatist whose experiences in law and theatre deeply informed his literary creations. The Political Novel in the South Slavic Intercultural Context Ethem Mandic, 2023-09-18 The Political Novel in the South Slavic Intercultural Context investigates the problem of the genre of the most elusive literary genre, the political novel, and the presence of political in novels of South Slavic literature, primarily in the intercultural South Slavic social context as well as in the context of contemporary history of Southeast and Central Europe. This genre in the South Slavic inter-literary context has not yet been scientifically and systematically studied and presented, although there are critical and scientific reviews that indicate its presence in literary production. The best novels from the canonical South Slavic authors: Miroslav Krleža, Mihailo Lalić, Oskar Davico, Miodrag Bulatović, Ivo Andrić, Meša Selimović, Borislav Pekić, Mirko Kovač, Danilo Kiš, and others included in this book, thematize the political concepts of the twentieth century, so in the broadest sense they can be considered within the genre of political novel, including its subgenre variants. The political novel in South Slavic literatures in the intercultural context, in general, is a specific genre of the novel in relation to the political novel written in the West, an inter-literary phenomenon that was a critique of the Titoist regime and a literary response to the poetics and politics of social realism. It is conditioned by specific historical, political, and social movements during the twentieth century. The narrative of the political novel is a poetic resistance to ideological consciousness and a dogmatic view of reality.

Elemental Encounters in the Contemporary Irish Novel Claire McGrail Johnston, 2019-12-19 The underlying premise of this book is that reading is touching. Words leap out of their beds and pierce flesh like a knife. Storytelling breathes within the dynamic of encounters with air, fire, earth, and water, permeated by emotion, imagination, and touch. These ideas are contextualized within ancient community rituals, social justice gatherings, pedagogical practices, and map-making. The four elements are retrieved from exile as imaginative, corporeal, and generative substances that operate within stories like medicine bundles. Reading becomes a Deleuzian enterprise of health a challenging experience that grasps Paulo Freire s generative themes and is simultaneously thought provoking and valuable The capacious literary space capable of housing this sensual ferment is the novel More verb than noun the novel is an elemental bundle that engages with flesh in all its manifestations This book spotlights Irish novels by John Banville and Mary Morrissy exploring how they revitalise the elements with sensual social and tactile textures
