Noor, 2025-10-01 The nations of Southeast Asia today are rapidly integrating economically and politically but that integration is also counterbalanced by forces ranging from hyper nationalism to disputes over cultural ownership throughout the region Those forces Farish A Noor argues in this book have their roots in the region s failure to come to a critical understanding of how current national and cultural identities in the region came about To remedy that

Noor offers a close account of the construction of Southeast Asia in the nineteenth century by the forces of capitalism and imperialism and shows how that construct remains a potent aspect of political economic and cultural disputes today

Maps of Malaysia and Borneo Frédéric Durand, Richard Curtis (Dato'), 2013 Maps of Malaya and Borneo Discovery Statehood and Progress showcases the extensive map collections of His Royal Highness Sultan Sharafuddin Idris Shah Sultan of Selangor and Richard Curtis The combined collections contain more than 160 maps dating from the 1500s to after Malaysia's formation in 1963 The collections include early Portuguese Dutch French and English maps nautical charts maps of the interior maps from atlases and encyclopaedias maps showing economy culture and communications and urban maps Extensive captions highlight key features of the maps provide insights into their creators and explain the context in which the maps were produced and used The presentation of the collections is preceded by an authoritative text on the mapping of Malaya and Borneo over the last 1 800 years This text explains the quest for accurate maps illustrates how maps showcased the changing economic cultural and political dynamics within Malaya and Borneo and describes the evolution of mapping techniques as well as providing insights into the work of leading cartographers World Place Location Learning System

Richard M. MacKinnon, 1995 India in the Indo-Pacific Aditi Malhotra, 2022-06-13 In view of the fast changing world order emerging countries are increasingly influencing the dynamics of regional securities This timely and in depth book examines India's reorienting strategic posture and describes how New Delhi's security policy in the Indo Pacific region has evolved and expanded over the past two decades The author argues that India's quest to leverage its geostrategic location to emerge as an Indo Pacific actor faces multiple challenges which create a clear divide between the country's political rhetoric and action on the ground The author critically examines these contradictions to better situate India's security role in an increasingly fluid Indo Pacific region Asia in the Making of Europe, Volume II Donald F. Lach, 2010-01-15 Praised for its scope and depth Asia in the Making of Europe is the first comprehensive study of Asian influences on Western culture For volumes I and II the author has sifted through virtually every European reference to Asia published in the sixteenth century he surveys a vast array of writings describing Asian life and society the images of Asia that emerge from those writings and in turn the reflections of those images in European literature and art This monumental achievement reveals profound and pervasive influences of Asian societies on developing Western culture in doing so it provides a perspective necessary for a balanced view of world history Volume I The Century of Discovery brings together everything that a European could know of India Southeast Asia China and Japan from printed books missionary reports traders accounts and maps The New York Review of Books Volume II A Century of Wonder examines the influence of that vast new body of information about Asia on the arts institutions literatures and ideas of sixteenth century Europe The Mapmakers John Noble Wilford, 2001-12-04 In his classic text two time Pulitzer Prize winner John Noble Wilford recounts the history of cartography from antiquity to the space age They are among the world's great pioneers and adventurers the mapmakers who for centuries have been expanding our knowledge of who and where we are and where we want to go From the surprisingly accurate silk maps prepared by Chinese cartographers in the second century B C to medieval mapmakers who believed they had fixed the location of paradise through to the expeditions of Columbus and Magellan John Noble Wilford chronicles the exploits of the great pioneers of mapmaking Wilford brings the story up to the present day as he shows the impact of new technologies that make it possible for cartographers to go where no one has been before from the deepest reaches of the universe where astronomers are mapping time as well as space to the inside of the human brain These modern day mapmakers join the many earlier adventurers including ancient Greek stargazers Renaissance seafarers and the explorers who mapped the American West whose achievements shape this dramatic story of human inventiveness and limitless curiosity

The Japanese Buddhist World Map D. Max Moerman, 2021-12-31 From the fourteenth through the nineteenth centuries Japanese monks created hundreds of maps to construct and locate their place in a Buddhist world This expansively illustrated volume is the first to explore the largely unknown archive of Japanese Buddhist world maps and analyze their production reproduction and reception In examining these fascinating sources of visual and material culture author D Max Moerman argues for an alternative history of Japanese Buddhism one that compels us to recognize the role of the Buddhist geographic imaginary in a culture that encompassed multiple cartographic and cosmological world views The contents and contexts of Japanese Buddhist world maps reveal the ambivalent and shifting position of Japan in the Buddhist world its encounter and negotiation with foreign ideas and technologies and the possibilities for a global history of Buddhism and science Moerman's visual and intellectual history traces the multiple trajectories of Japanese Buddhist world maps beginning with the earliest extant Japanese map of the world a painting by a fourteenth century Japanese monk charting the cosmology and geography of India and Central Asia based on an account written by a seventh century Chinese pilgrim monk He goes on to discuss the cartographic inclusion and marginal position of Japan the culture of the copy and the power of replication in Japanese Buddhism and the transcultural processes of engagement and response to new visions of the world produced by Iberian Christians Chinese Buddhists and the Japanese maritime trade Later chapters explore the transformations in the media and messages of Buddhist cartography in the age of print culture and in intellectual debates during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries over cosmology and epistemology and the polemics of Buddhist science The Japanese Buddhist World Map offers a wholly innovative picture of Japanese Buddhism that acknowledges the possibility of multiple and heterogeneous modernities and alternative visions of Japan and the world
