and Socially Just Approaches to Multilingual Family-School Partnerships Vera J. Lee, Kristine S. Lewis Grant, 2023-09-19 This compilation of research and stories from the field about multilingual family school partnerships explores where systemic inequities exist at the school district or community level and consider strategies that disrupt normative ways in which multilingual families are included in educational decisions The authors present family school partnerships in educational and non educational settings across the United States and identify frameworks models and practices for engaging multilingual families in schooling This edited volume is organized into four sections Section one School District Collaborations with Multilingual Families describes how districts honor the knowledge of multilingual parents as foundational tenets in their collaborative work with them Section two School Leadership Approaches to Engaging Multilingual Families focuses on how school leaders enacted critical approaches to building relationships with multilingual families Section three Educator Partnerships with Multilingual Families explores educators approaches to developing relationships with multilingual families Section four Multilingual Families as Leaders in School Partnerships highlights the visible and invisible ways that multilingual parents contribute to the overall success of their children Each chapter offers examples of successes and challenges of partnerships with multilingual families and how they can help to transform school communities Calendar University of Sheffield, 1921 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1978 Innovative methods together with a renewed focus on language variation have advanced our field This volume is divided into three sections of original research with the first describing regional variation of Spanish the second synchronic variation and the third learner profile variation Such nuanced descriptions and analyses would not be possible without new variationist research methods and big data techniques such as the use of online corpora and data reduction analyses These overarching themes represent a paradigm shift affecting the whole of Hispanic Linguistics and are therefore best appreciated in an edited volume composed of diverse manifestations of trends like those included herein The data from these submissions were originally presented at the Hispanic Linguistics Symposium hosted by Wake Forest University in 2021 Research in Young Children's Literacy and Language Development Olivia N. Saracho, 2019-12-13 The importance of the early years in young children's lives and the rigid inequality in literacy achievement are a stimulating backdrop to current research in young children's language and literacy development This book reports new data and empirical analyses that advance the theory of language and literacy with researchers using different methodologies in conducting their study with both a sound empirical underpinning and a captivating analytical rationalization of the results The contributors to this volume used several methodological methods e.g. quantitative qualitative to describe the complete concept of the study the achievement of the study and the study in an appropriate manner based on the study's methodology The contributions to this volume cover a wide range of topics including dual language learners Latino immigrant children children who have hearing disabilities parents and teachers beliefs about language development early literacy skills of toddlers and preschool children interventions multimodalities in early literacies writing and family literacy The studies were conducted in various early childhood settings such as child care nursery school Head Start kindergarten and primary grades and the subjects in the studies represent the pluralism of the globe a pluralism of language backgrounds ethnicity abilities and disabilities This book was originally published as a special issue of Early Child Development and Care AHRQ Research Activities, 2004
