The Escapist English Edition:

A Plurilingual Analysis of Four Russian-American Autobiographies Michele Russo, 2020-09-07 Among the many examples of Russian American migr literature a number of less known authors moved to the USA following their predecessors transnational and plurilingual experiences The bilingual and sometimes trilingual expressions in their works written in English invite a contrastive analysis of their transition from their source language Russian to their target language English This book explores the linguistic structure of the autobiographies of four Russian American writers Cournos Nabokov Berberova and Shteyngart bringing into focus the linguistic geology of their texts as they record their passage from a Russian world to an English one These linguistic passages are examined from both a synchronic and a diachronic perspective by dwelling on the geographies of the migr s itineraries as well as on the process of linguistic transformation that such itineraries generated By analyzing these writers geographic and linguistic routes this volume engages the reader in a metalinguistic discourse and highlights the influence of these first plurilingual experiments on modern theories concerning linguistic globalization

The Mediations of Music Gianmario Borio, 2022-08-17 Adorno believed that a circular relationship was established between immediacy and mediation Should we now say that this model with its clear Hegelian influence is outdated Or does it need some theoretical integration This volume addresses these questions by covering the performance of music its technological reproduction and its modes of communication in particular pedagogy and dissemination through the media Each of the book s four parts deal with different aspects of the mediation process The contributing authors outline the problematic moments in Adorno s reasoning but also highlight its potential In many chapters the pole of immediacy is explicitly brought into play its different manifestations often proving to be fundamental for the understanding of mediation processes The prime reference sources are Adorno s Current of Music Towards a Theory of Musical Reproduction and Composing for the Films Critical readings of these texts are supplemented by reflections on performance studies media theories sociology of listening post structuralism and other contiguous research fields

Georgics Virgil,2007 John Conington's three volume edition of The Works of Virgil begun in 1852 has long been unavailable except in rare second hand sets The whole work is now being reissued in six affordable paperbacks with new introductions setting the commentary in its context Well into the twentieth century Conington's Virgil remained the sine qua non for school and undergraduate students and their teachers Conington's commentary is remarkably close and uncompromising in its engagement with the detail of Virgil's Latin as well as its literary sensitivity it still has much to offer the modern reader This volume contains Virgil's text of the Georgics Conington's introduction to and commentary on the Georgics Philip Hardie's general assessment of Conington Monica Gale's introduction to the Georgics and also includes Conington's index

Ingmar Bergman Birgitta Steene,1987 The films of Swedish director Ingmar Bergman are renowned for their largely spare and stark aesthetic an existential framework and plots driven by a fascination with death and the moral torments of the human soul Birgitta Steene offers here in Ingmar Bergman A Reference Guide an essential and unparalleled resource on the life and work of Bergman Plumbing the depths of these trademark Bergman themes Steene traces as well the indelible mark he left on world cinema through his other cinematographic work and writings Over the decades Bergman's stature and image have evolved in fascinating ways an iconoclast of the 1950s a bourgeois traditionalist of the 1960s and an icon in the 1980s This exhaustive compendium considers each phase of his career exploring his deep and vast oeuvre in all its controversy and complexity and analyzes his intriguing and unique motifs such as his efforts to expose dead conventions and his portrayals of Woman as the archetype of humanity As well as providing a detailed account of Bergman's life and chronicling his career as a filmmaker and theater director including his work for television Steene offers transcripts of some of the numerous interviews and conversations she conducted with Bergman Writings by and about Bergman and a detailed chronological survey of his film and theatrical work completes this eminently readable and thoroughly researched volume A wide ranging and groundbreaking work of film history Ingmar Bergman is the definitive reference for scholars of the Scandinavian master

The British Novel Since the Thirties Randall Stevenson,1986 This is a survey of the British novel from the 1930s to the present day The book includes commentary on all the major novelists of the period and also on a number of lesser known writers The examination of individual writers is however subordinate to the main purpose of the book which is to provide a coherent account of the nature and development of British fiction over the last 50 years Manoj Das Manoj Das,2003 Britannica Book of the Year,2017 Kunapipi ,2003 The Universal Jewish Encyclopedia ... Southeastern Europe ,1990 Leaving the World to Enter the World Mark Leenhouts,2005 Leaving the World to Enter the World focuses on the fictional and theoretical writings of Han Shaogong one of the most striking voices in contemporary Chinese literature Han played a central role in the root seeking trend that dominated the literary scene of the People's Republic of China in the mid 1980s His work has won him acclaim from a wide range of readers in Chinese and other languages a highlight being the 1996 novel Dictionary of Maqiao Critics have labeled Han the leader of a nationalist movement in search of a cultural identity Mark Leenhouts shows that Han's role is much more complex demonstrating that his literary practice is a highly individual creative continuation of Chinese tradition Han's personal style transcends the narrow boundaries of root seeking as it has been portrayed in literary histories and criticism to date This rectification of the one sided image of Han Shaogong has profound implications for the significance of root seeking literature and for questions of tradition and modernity that have been among the most hotly debated topics in Chinese literary intellectual and political thought throughout the 20th century Leaving the World to Enter the World does justice to the individuality of the literary author by taking the intrinsic structure of the literary work as its starting point Leenhouts close textual analysis as intelligent and pragmatic as it is sensitive will help counterbalance the socio political orientation typical of much recent research By seeing Han Shaogong as a writer rather than a mouthpiece of historical forces this book opens up new perspectives for enjoying his literary mastery Library research monographs ,1951 Critical Survey of Drama: Kobo Abe - Albert Camus Carl Edmund Rollyson, Frank Northen Magill,2003 Combines updates and expands two earlier Salem Press reference sets Critical survey of drama Rev ed English language series published in 1994 and Critical survey of drama Foreign language series published in 1986 This new 8 vol set contains 602 essays of which 538 discuss individual dramatists and 64 cover broad overview topics The dramatist profiles contain more than 310 photographs and drawings Anglo-American Studies ,1989
