Killer and Burning Down the House that captured the post baby boom generation's intense affectless style In Remain in Love Frantz writes about the beginnings of Talking Heads their days as art students in Providence moving to the sparse Chrystie Street loft Frantz Weymouth and Byrne shared where the music that defined an era was written With never before seen photos and immersive vivid detail Frantz describes life on tour down to the meals eaten and the clothes worn and reveals the mechanics of a long and complicated working relationship with a mercurial frontman At the heart of Remain in Love is Frantz's love for Weymouth their once in a lifetime connection as lovers musicians and bandmates and how their creativity surged with the creation of their own band Tom Tom Club bringing a fresh Afro Caribbean beat to hits like Genius of Love Studded with memorable places and names from the era Grace Jones Andy Warhol Stephen Sprouse Lou Reed Brian Eno and Debbie Harry among them Remain in Love is a frank and open memoir of an emblematic life in music and in love Torch in the Night Alexander Butziger,2011-10-02 If the nations of the world were to unite against what would they unite Against whom Manhattan corporate lawyer Kevin Traynor gets entangled in a conspiracy that threatens to destroy his world in the name of humanity Through the skyscraper canyons of Manhattan along the Old Man River to the boondocks of Old Europe and over the roofs of Paris Traynor has to hunt a secret that is about to end civilization as we know it The hurricane of the century enemy jetfighters explosions and earth shattering disaster what can stop him And whom can he trust The government His associates His friends His mysterious new lover Himself Anyone Who is scheming to bring about the end of the world Greedy businessmen Corrupt politicians Religious fanatics Or Kevin Traynor With the right to be politically incorrect Valor Dan Hampton,2022-05-03 Valor is the magnificent story of a genuine American hero who survived the fall of the Philippines and brutal captivity under the Japanese from New York Times bestselling author Dan Hampton Lieutenant William Frederick Bill Harris was 25 years old when captured by Japanese forces during the Battle of Corregidor in May 1942 This son of a decorated Marine general escaped from hell on earth by swimming eight hours through a shark infested bay but his harrowing ordeal had just begun Shipwrecked on the southern coast of the Philippines he was sheltered by a Filipino aristocrat engaged in guerilla fighting and eventually set off through hostile waters to China After 29 days of misadventures and violent storms Harris and his crew limped into a friendly fishing village in the southern Philippines Evading and fighting for months he embarked on another agonizing voyage to Australia but was betrayed by treacherous islanders and handed over to the Japanese Held for two years in the notorious Ofuna prisoner of war camp outside Yokohama Harris was continuously starved tortured and beaten but he never surrendered Teaching himself Japanese he eavesdropped on the guards and created secret codes to communicate with fellow prisoners After liberation on August 30 1945 Bill represented American Marine POWs during the Japanese surrender in Tokyo Bay before joining his father and flying to a home he had not seen in four years Valor is a riveting new look at the Pacific War Through military documents personal photos and an unpublished memoir provided by his daughter Harris experiences are dramatically revealed through his own words in the expert hands of bestselling author and retired fighter pilot Dan Hampton This is the stunning and captivating true story of an American hero A Replacement Life Boris Fishman, 2014-06-03 Winner of the VCU Cabell First Novelist Award Winner of the American Library Association's Sophie Brody Medal Finalist for the National Jewish Book Award A singularly talented writer makes his literary debut with this provocative soulful and sometimes hilarious story of a failed journalist asked to do the unthinkable Forge Holocaust restitution claims for old Russian Jews in Brooklyn New York Yevgeny Gelman grandfather of Slava Gelman didn't suffer in the exact way he needs to have suffered to qualify for the restitution the German government has been paying out to Holocaust survivors But suffer he has as a Jew in the war as a second class citizen in the USSR as an immigrant to America So Isn't his grandson a writer High minded Slava wants to put all this immigrant scraping behind him Only the American Dream is not panning out for him Century the legendary magazine where he works as a researcher wants nothing greater from him Slava wants to be a correct blameless American but he wants to be a lionized writer even more Slava's turn as the Forger of South Brooklyn teaches him that not every fact is the truth and not every lie a falsehood It takes more than law abiding to become an American it takes the same self reinvention in which his people excel Intoxicated and unmoored by his inventions Slava risks exposure Cornered he commits an irrevocable act that finally grants him a sense of home in America but not before collecting a price from his family A Replacement Life is a dark moving and beautifully written novel about family honor and justice Longarm and the Blossom Rock Banshee Tabor Evans, 1998 A shrieking banshee comes to the mine shafts of Virginia City and scares theminers to death It is a mythical monster or a practical joke

Doormen Peter Bearman, 2009-01-30 Little fascinates New Yorkers more than doormen who know far more about tenants than tenants know about them Doormen know what their tenants eat what kind of movies they watch whom they spend time with whether they drink too much and whether they have kinky sex But if doormen are unusually familiar with their tenants they are also socially very distant In Doormen Peter Bearman untangles this unusual dynamic to reveal the many ways that tenants and doormen negotiate their complex relationship Combining observation interviews and survey information Doormen provides a deep and enduring ethnography of the occupational role of doormen the dynamics of the residential lobby and the mundane features of highly consequential social exchanges between doormen and tenants Here Bearman explains why doormen find their jobs both boring and stressful why tenants feel anxious about how much of a Christmas bonus their neighbors give and how everyday transactions small and large affect tenants professional and informal relationships with doormen In the daily life of the doorman resides the profound and this book provides a brilliant account of how tenants and doormen interact within the complex world of the lobby A Place to Call Home Mary Ellen Stelling, Peter James Stelling, 2010 When Lenore de Quincy's father gives her the key to a bank box containing a fortune in cash and then dies she realizes she is no longer under constraints to remain unhappily married She abandons her husband taking her daughter Angela with her from a provincial town in western Pennsylvania to the bright lights of Manhattan A PLACE TO

CALL HOME is a novel inspired by true stories set against the First World War The Roaring Twenties and the Great Depression It centers around two well to do families joined by an arranged marriage The action is seen through Angela s eyes as she struggles with the effects on her life of her parents divorce a thing viewed in the 1920 s as scandalous and tragic Her travels between New York City and her father s nurturing family in a coal belt town near Pittsburgh provide humorous and nostalgic anecdotes about growing up in the America of that era Mary Ellen Stelling was born in Pittsburgh PA in 1915 and lived in New York Florida North Carolina and Texas before settling in 1946 in Atlanta For five years a feature columnist on the Women s Page of the Atlanta CONSTITUTION she was a member of the Georgia Poetry Society and the Poetry Society of Texas During the 1950 s and 1960 s her work appeared in poetry journals in almost every state of the Union and most newspapers of the time which featured verse published her poems She was the wife of a successful retail executive and a dedicated mother who did all the usual time consuming things to support her son s activities Behind the scenes she worked as time allowed to create a richly humorous prose document portraying her childhood experiences Those sketches written in the 1950 s totaling about a hundred pages were the seeds which inspired this book Mrs Stelling passed away at the age of 82 in 1998 Peter James Stelling was born in Charlotte NC in 1943 and has spent most of his life in Atlanta A graduate of Washington and Lee University and Grady College of the University of Georgia he spent four years in advertising in New York before returning home to work for the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra and for two different firms specializing in Group Incentive Sales Travel and Meeting Planning One of his most memorable work experiences was serving as road manager for a traveling symphony orchestra during the early years of Robert Shaw s tenure as their Music Director Now a contentedly retired father of two and grandfather of four he is grateful for having had the luxury of time to complete this unique family document He remains an active supporter of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra the Atlanta Opera Trinity Presbyterian Church and serves on the Board of Governors of the Vinings Club in suburban Atlanta

Indianapolis Monthly ,1998-06 Indianapolis Monthly is the Circle City s essential chronicle and guide an indispensable authority on what s new and what s news Through coverage of politics crime dining style business sports and arts and entertainment each issue offers compelling narrative stories and lively urbane coverage of Indy s cultural landscape

The Electric Hotel Dominic Smith,2025-08-22 A sweeping work of historical fiction from the New York Times bestselling author Dominic Smith The Electric Hotel is a spellbinding story of art and love For more than thirty years Claude Ballard has been living at the Hollywood Knickerbocker Hotel A French pioneer of silent films who started out as a concession agent for the Lumi re brothers the inventors of cinema Claude now spends his days foraging for mushrooms in the hills of Los Angeles and taking photographs of runaways and the striplings along Sunset Boulevard But when a film history student comes to interview Claude about The Electric Hotel the lost masterpiece that bankrupted him and ended the career of his muse Sabine Montrose the past comes surging back In his run down hotel suite the ravages of the past are waiting to be excavated celluloid fragments in desperate need of restoration as well as Claude's memories of the woman who inspired and beguiled him. The Electric Hotel is a portrait of a man entranced by the magic of moviemaking, a luminous romance and a whirlwind trip through early cinema. Sit back, relax and enjoy the show.

Cuban-American Literature of Exile Isabel Alvarez-Borland, 1998 The Cuban revolution of 1959 initiated a significant exodus with more than 700,000 Cubans eventually settling in the United States. This community creates a major part of what is now known as the Cuban diaspora. In Cuban American Literature of Exile, Isabel Alvarez-Borland forces the dialogue between literature and history into the open by focusing on narratives that tell the story of the 1959 exodus and its aftermath. Alvarez-Borland pulls together a diverse array of Cuban American voices writing in both English and Spanish, often from contrasting perspectives and approaches over several generations and waves of immigration. Writers discussed include Guillermo Cabrera Infante, Reinaldo Arenas, Roberto Fernandez Achy, Obejas, and Cristina Garcia. The author's analysis of their works uncovers a movement from narratives that reflect the personal loss caused by the historical fact of exile to autobiographical writings that reflect the need to search for a new identity in a new language to fictions that dramatize the authors' constructed Cuban American personae. If read collectively, she argues, these sometimes dissimilar texts appear to be in dialogue with one another as they all document a people's quest to reinvent themselves outside their nation of origin. Cuban American Literature of Exile encourages readers to consider the evolution of Cuban literature in the United States over the last forty years. Alvarez-Borland defines a new American literature of Cuban heritage and documents the changing identity of an exiled literature.
