The Enlightenment Of Daniel Sex In Seattle English Edition:

Masculinity, Anti-Semitism and Early Modern English Literature Matthew Biberman, 2017-03-02 Offering a profound re assessment of the conceptual rhetorical and cultural intersections among sexuality race and religion in English Renaissance texts this study argues that antisemitism is a by product of tensions between received Classical conceptions of masculinity and Christianity s strident critique of that ideal Utilizing works by Shakespeare Milton Marlowe and others Biberman illustrates how modern antisemitism develops as a way to stigmatize hypermasculine behavior thus facilitating the transformation of the culture s gender ideal from knight to businessman Subsequently the function of antisemitism changes becoming instead the mark of effeminate behavior Consequently the central antisemitic image changes from Jew Devil to Jew Sissy Biberman traces this shift s repercussions both in renaissance culture and what followed it He also contends that as a result of this linkage between Jewishness and the limits of masculine behavior the image of the Jewish woman remains especially unstable In concluding Biberman argues that the Gothic resurrects the Jew Devil bequeathing it to the Nazis and that the horror genre is often a rewriting of Renaissance discourse about Jews In the course of making this larger argument Biberman introduces a series of more limited claims that challenge the conventional wisdom within the field of literary studies First Biberman overturns the assumption that Jewishness and femininity are always associated in the cultural imagination of Western Europe Second Biberman provides the historical context needed to understand the emergence of the stereotype of the pathological Jewish woman Third Biberman revises the incorrect notion that divorce was not practiced in Renaissance England Fourth Biberman argues for the novel claim that serial monogamy in Western culture is a practice understood to possess a Jewish taint Fifth Biberman contributes a major advance in scholarship devoted to T S Eliot illustrating how Eliot s famous critical argument against Milton is an expression of his antisemitism and a coherent compliment to the antisemitic touches in his poetry Sixth in his discussion of Gothic literature Biberman introduces novel readings of Frankenstein and Dracula persuasively arguing that Mary Shelley s monster bears the mark of the Jew according to modern antisemitic discourse and that in Stoker both the vampire and the vampire killer represent Jews executing a scenario of self policing that was realized in the ghettos and the concentration camps Biberman s final contribution in this study is to provide a definition for postmodern antisemitism and to apply it to various contemporary incidents including September 11th and the Arab Israeli conflict

Novel Gazing Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick, 1997-12-15 Novel Gazing is the first collection of queer criticism on the history of the novel The contributors to this volume navigate new territory in literary theory with essays that implicitly challenge the hermeneutic of suspicion widespread in current critical theory In a stunning introductory essay Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick delineates the possibilities for a criticism that would be reparative rather than cynical or paranoid The startlingly imaginative essays in the volume explore new critical practices that can weave the pleasures and disorientations of reading into the fabric of queer analyses Through discussions of a diverse array of British

French and American novels including major canonical novels best sellers children s fiction and science fiction these essays explore queer worlds of taste texture joy and ennui focusing on such subjects as flogging wizardry exorcism dance Zionist desire and Internet sexuality Interpreting the works of authors as diverse as Benjamin Constant Toni Morrison T H White and William Gibson along with canonical queer modernists such as James Proust Woolf and Cather contributors reveal the wealth of ways in which selves and communities succeed in extracting sustenance from the objects of a culture whose avowed desire has often been not to sustain them The dramatic reframing that these essays perform will make the significance of Novel Gazing extend beyond the scope of queer studies to literary criticism in general Contributors Stephen Barber Renu Bora Anne Chandler James Creech Tyler Curtain Jonathan Goldberg Joseph Litvak Michael Lucey Jeff Nunokawa Cindy Patton Jacob Press Robert F Reid Pharr Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Melissa Solomon Kathryn Bond Stockton John Vincent Maurice Wallace Barry Weller
