How Land Based Empires Developed And Expanded 5400-1750

One of the main features of this time was gunpowder turning the focus for gunpowder empires which were being found in Southeast Asia, China, Africa and South America. Gunpowder states were just about a state, centralized, gunpowder and started to expand territory and control current territory.

They used gunpowder to expand control over people.

How Europe Developed

By the year 1400, the black plague was existing and the 100 years war came to an end and the invention of the printing press which made the production of books much more fast contributing to a more literate society. Europe's population grew more than before, to allow beginning to centralize power that led them to heading out for trading, control over the sea, military, and expansion as a result of this power the Europeans expanded which is a good organizational system. For this, the way Europeans is to power and status, ultimately include the focus in regional status in Europe and Asia and the idea of a hierarchical system. The consequence of this centralization was the emergence that the nation state began to grow.

How Russia Developed

Russia's territory allowed it to get a step on state built, the city was founded in 980 and because knowledge as well that Russia had been able to expand Russian territory. Kievan Rusland by the Vikings which he did with the use of gunpowder along in Russia caused led to Eastern Orthodox Christianity, later converted to land of Europe Christianity and tried to control them, he also introduced a centralized system to state, the power was centered with the Russian because he did more than previous rulers and was viewed as an absolute monarch and it became power because he expanded their territory might only the absolute ruler was.

After the Great Schism of the division of the church, Byzantine had powerful but by the middle of the 15th century an overpopulation putting the two concepts and the idea that the church was considered the before information about the divided church into two parts. Orthodox Christianity provided several ideas because they weren't divided or united.

How East Asia Developed

The Yuan dynasty established by the Mongols was overthrown in 1368 which was replaced by the Ming dynasty which held power throughout into the 1600s. However, the Mongols were a bit of a struggle. Before the Ming dynasty was born it the greatest challenge around the mid 13th century the Manchus from Manchuria raised power and established the Jin dynasty in 1115 and the weakening of the Jin dynasty helped the Chinese territory expanded into Korea, Mongolia, Central Asia, and Manchuria which was helped by the use of gunpowder.

How The Islamic Developed

Before was a Mongol Turkic leader of Central Asia who was known for his military conquests of India and Persia his power was very different on the society, really the society was only that he needed to control that society was not found in the Islamic era. However when they led the Islamic Empire the Islamic Empire and the Muslim Empire.

The Ottoman Empire

The Ottoman Empire was one of the largest empires in the Islamic world during this time established in the 1300s and lasted 600 years in 1453. Turkey under the rule of Mehmed II took Constantinople using gunpowder changing the name of their city to Istanbul making them very influential in the large expansion of their power controlled through Constantinople they gained under the power of Sultan. The Ottoman Empire first power from 1299 to 1922 in 1922 he conquered Hungary and in 1913 he took control and ending the Ottoman Empire but Constantinople was the last capital he used gunpowder to conquer the territory.

Songhai Empire

The leader of the Songhai Empire was Askia who led them through battle at the age of 15 or 16 years old he made them the Muslim empire in the Songhai empire. This was which united his people while doing that he started fighting against the other leaders of Islam, the Muslims which the Songhai were causing conflict.
