World Of Girls Journey Requirements:

A World of Girls L. T. Meade, 1902 A Therapist's Guide to Mapping the Girl Heroine's Journey in Sandplay Rosalind Heiko, 2018-07-27 The girl heroine's journey is distinct from a boy's heroic journey in sandplay therapy. A Therapist's Guide to Mapping the Girl Heroine's Journey in Sandplay highlights crucial aspects of these journeys through the Sandplay Journey Map and assists clinicians to gain perspective on the girl's journey towards self-confidence, mastery of challenging tasks of psychological development and behavioral competence. Mapping this journey with the mandala form provides beginning as well as seasoned therapists a means of strengthening therapists' clinical acuity and overall perspective on individual casework as well as in the complexity of clinical dynamics of the girl's journey throughout the therapeutic process. Grounded in practical application and examples, readers are guided through each stage of the journey. Two clinical case studies, a compelling heroine's tale and experiential exercises illustrate and complement the mandala mapping practice therapeutically. Journeys of Embodiment at the Intersection of Body and Culture Niva Piran, 2017-09-15 Journeys of Embodiment at the Intersection of Body and Culture: The Developmental Theory of Embodiment describes an innovative developmental and feminist theory understanding embodiment to provide a new perspective on the interactions between the social environment of girls and young women of different social locations and their embodied experience of engagement with the world around them. The book proposes that the multitude of social experiences described by girls and women shape their body experiences via three core pathways: experiences in the physical domain, experiences in the mental domain, and experiences related directly to social power. The book is structured around each developmental stage in the body journey of girls and young women as influenced by their experience of embodiment. The theory builds on the emergent constructs of embodiment and body journey and the key social experiences which shape embodiment throughout development and adolescence: from agency, functionality, and passion during early childhood to restriction, shame, and varied expressions of self-harm during and following puberty. By addressing not only adverse experiences at the intersection of gender, social class, ethnocultural grouping, resilience, and facilitative social factors, the theory outlines constructive pathways toward transformation. It contends that both protective and risk factors are organized along these three pathways, with the positive and negative aspects conceptualized as Physical Freedom vs. Corseting, Mental Freedom vs. Corseting, and Social Power vs. Disempowerment and Disconnection. Examines the construct of embodiment and its theoretical development. Explores the social experiences that shape girls throughout development. Recognizes the importance of the body and sexuality. Includes narratives by girls and young women on how they inhabit their bodies. Invites scholars and health professionals to critically reflect on the body journeys of diverse girls and women. Addresses the advancement of feminist social, critical, and psychological theory as well as implications to practice both therapy and health promotion
