

World War II

COMPLETE UNIT GUIDE PACKET

OVERVIEW

For the second time in the 20th century, the world was engulfed in a massive conflict. World War I lasted from 1914 to 1918. The majority of the world's countries eventually formed two opposing sides: the Allies and the Axis Powers.

World War I was the deadliest conflict in human history, resulting in 16 to 17 million deaths. Most of these were civilians. It resulted in the rise of the Nazis in Germany, leading to the Holocaust, and the development of nuclear weapons, which have been used in wars ever since.

The war began with Germany's invasion of Poland and subsequent declarations of war by France and the United Kingdom. Japan and Italy joined Germany in the Axis Powers. The Allies joined the fight after the Japanese surprise attack on Pearl Harbor. A series of events led to the war's end, finally resulting in the deaths of millions of people.

In Germany, the world's first concentration camps of the war were established. The Jews, Gypsies, and African Americans were the most persecuted. The Axis Powers used these camps to hold and kill people. The Allies fought to stop this. The war ended with the Allies' victory. The world was forever changed.

World War II changed the political landscape and social structure of the world. The United Nations was established to keep international cooperation and prevent future conflicts. The Soviet Union and United States emerged as superpowers, setting the stage for the nearly half-century long Cold War.
