Mass Starvation Bridget Conley, Alex de Waal, Catriona Murdoch, Wayne Jordash QC, 2022-09-01 Famine is an age old scourge that almost disappeared in our lifetime Between 2000 and 2011 there were no famines and deaths in humanitarian emergencies were much reduced The humanitarian agenda was ascendant Then in 2017 the United Nations identified four situations that threatened famine or breached that threshold in north eastern Nigeria Somalia South Sudan and Yemen Today this list is longer Each of these famines is the result of military actions and exclusionary authoritarian politics conducted without regard to the wellbeing or even the survival of people Violations of international law including blockading ports attacks on health facilities violence against humanitarian workers and obstruction of relief aid are carried out with renewed impunity Yet there is an array of legal offenses ranging from war crimes and crimes against humanity to genocide available to a prosecutor to hold individuals to account for the deliberate starvation of civilians However there has been a dearth of investigations and accountability for those violating international law The reasons for this neglect and the gaps between the black letter law and practice are explored in this timely volume It provides a comprehensive overview of the key themes and cases required to catalyze a new approach to understanding the law as it relates to starvation It also illustrates the complications of historical and ongoing situations where starvation is used as a weapon of war and provides expert analysis on defining starvation early warning systems gender and mass starvation the use of sanctions journalistic reporting and memorialization of famine

Climate Change, Disasters, and Internal Displacement in Asia and the Pacific

Matthew Scott, Albert Salamanca, 2020-11-15 This book examines how states in eight countries across Asia and the Pacific address internal displacement in the context of disasters and climate change The Asia and the Pacific region accounts for the majority of global disaster related displacement but the experience of the millions of individuals displaced differs according to gender age ethnicity disability caste and so forth and is dependent on the legal administrative social and economic structures and processes in place to support them This book adopts a human rights based approach investigating the role of law and policy in preventing displacement protecting people who are displaced and engendering durable solutions across cases drawn from Thailand Cambodia Indonesia the Philippines Nepal Bangladesh Vanuatu and the Solomon Islands The specific cases in the book also reflect critically on the term displacement and the wider normative framework within which this phenomenon is conceptualised and addressed The book will be of interest to students researchers and practitioners working at the intersection of human rights human mobility development disaster risk reduction and management and climate change adaptation

Forbidden Knowledge

Terence H. Young, 2023-02-21 Terence Young exposes the pharmaceutical industry secrets and cultural myths that thwart our safe use of prescription drugs Everyone should read it before their next visit to a doctor DR NANCY OLIVIERI MD physician and professor When it comes to drug safety Big Pharma holds all the power and it's time for patients to take it back Tens of millions of patients in North America take prescription drugs but the safety of these drugs is often based on medical myths We are led to believe that if a medication isn't safe the government would never allow it on the market and that doctors would never prescribe a drug that isn't proven effective Who controls these narratives And do they always have the best interests of patients in mind In an in depth study of the enormous influence the pharmaceutical industry has over our health drug safety advocate Terence Young explores how those with the most to gain financially are also those who wield all the power in health care and withhold the knowledge that is critical to the safety of patients Forbidden Knowledge reveals the truth you need to know about prescription drugs and what to do about it It will empower you to partner with your doctor to talk openly and plainly about medications to help avoid serious adverse drug reactions This is your survival guide to Big Pharma Health Care Management and the Law

Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. World Affairs 2015 Almanac Answer Key : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. World Affairs 2015 Almanac Answer Key : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
