Wagner,2014-03-11 Despite the best efforts of educators our nation s schools are dangerously obsolete Instead of teaching students to be critical thinkers and problem solvers we are asking them to memorize facts for multiple choice tests This problem isn t limited to low income school districts even our top schools aren t teaching or testing the skills that matter most in the global knowledge economy Our teens leave school equipped to work only in the kinds of jobs that are fast disappearing from the American economy Meanwhile young adults in India and China are competing with our students for the most sought after careers around the world Education expert Tony Wagner has conducted scores of interviews with business leaders and observed hundreds of classes in some of the nation s most highly regarded public schools He discovered a profound disconnect between what potential employers are looking for in young people today critical thinking skills creativity and effective communication and what our schools are providing passive learning environments and uninspired lesson plans that focus on test preparation and reward memorization He explains how every American can work to overhaul our education system and he shows us examples of dramatically different schools that teach all students new skills In addition through interviews with college graduates and people who work with them Wagner discovers how teachers parents and employers can motivate the generation to excellence An education manifesto for the twenty first century The Global Achievement Gap is provocative and inspiring It is essential reading for parents educators business leaders policy makers and anyone interested in seeing our young people succeed as employees and citizens For additional information about the author and the book please go to a href http www schoolchange org Education 07/08 Fred Schultz,2006-09 This thirty fourth edition of ANNUAL EDITIONS EDUCATION provides convenient inexpensive access to current articles selected from the best of the public press Organizational features include an annotated listing of selected World Wide Web sites an annotated table of contents a topic guide a general introduction brief overviews for each section a topical index and an instructor s resource guide with testing materials USING ANNUAL EDITIONS IN THE CLASSROOM is offered as a practical guide for instructors ANNUAL EDITIONS titles are supported by our student website Internationalisation in Secondary Education in Europe Henk Oonk,Ralf Maslowski,Greetje van der Werf,2011-08-01 The scope of the book is an integrated discussion of several aspects of the internationalisation process in secondary education in Europe The European and International Orientation EIO in education is dealt with from different national angles and theoretical visions supported by recently conducted empirical studies in several countries The book describes national policies concerning EIO the way in which schools implement these policies and the success and difficulties of the activities that they undertake A connection is made with ideas of citizenship in a European perspective and the question comes up for discussion if there can be spoken of common European values Important issues are explored like the tension between national identity and European communality as well as the risk of EIO in increasing the gap between lower and higher educated students The mission of the book is provide not only background information to all who are interested in or involved in internationalisation of education social integration and European citizenship but to provide recommendations for future practice as well A central focus in these recommendations is the Common Framework for Europe Competence CFEC the first model that offers the possibility to structurally shape the knowledge and skills concerning the European and international developments in the school Directions for future elaboration of this framework and its implementation in the teaching and learning process in schools are discussed

Can I Fix It? Larry Cuban, 2001-04-13 With this highly accessible and unique little guide Larry Cuban offers educators indispensable tools to make sense of the daily complexities they encounter in their work Teachers face dozens of classroom situations where conflicts occur Similarly principals wrestle with school issues that call for changes in attitudes behaviours and procedures Because the process is so familiar even expert teachers and principals often have difficulty in explaining what it is that they do and how they go about solving problems and coping with dilemmas in their classrooms and schools Using concrete and varied examples drawn from the workplace Cuban presents vivid and provocative case studies of practitioners experiences in urban and suburban schools that deal with the routine conflicts of school He draws on his own extensive experience in public schools and his research into teaching and administration to set forth a practical framework for identifying defining and coping with both puzzling problems and tension filled dilemmas A much needed resource for both new and experienced practitioners How Can I Fix It focuses on common skills that practitioners have but seldom take time to consider and applies these skills to concrete situations
