Worship Welcome Speech:

Worship as Community Drama Pierre Hegy, 2019-03-22 Church weddings funerals and most Sunday services reflect the values and dramas of their communities even when the ministers are the main or sole actors This point is illustrated by examples ranging from American television masses to the Zairean three hour services in the Congo Of greatest interest to readers might be the Sunday services at ordinary parishes which also range from friendly but uninspiring to innovative and inviting There are also two exceptionally vital churches analyzed here an evangelical church in the Pentecostal tradition and a social justice parish in the tradition of Martin Luther King Jr Today one can hardly buy an item in a store or on the Internet without being asked for an evaluation yet church services are seldom evaluated There can be no improvement without evaluation This book proposes a method of evaluation in eight steps that must be rigorously scientific and at the same time offer a vision for spiritual growth The prophet Elijah found God in earthquakes and fire but most people find mystery through art music rhythm chanting expressive readings evocative rituals and enlightened homilies Today people expect mystagogy rather than routine performances Mystagogy can be learned and improved through evaluation to which this book desires to make a major contribution

The Last Missionary Bob Walters, 2020-10-21 The Last Missionary is a bicycle adventure story set in remote districts in eastern Democratic Republic of the Congo Bob Walters travels with a team of Congolese colleagues discovering the state of the villages run over by the Pan African war that devastated the region s people through the terror of rape and the killing of millions Along the way Bob offers the reader a number of short tutorials and reflections on missiology the study of mission systems He ponders patronage and cargo cults and asks the question Is Jesus the answer But this is not an answer book it is a book in search of better questions The Last Missionary is a challenge to both evangelicals and progressives in the church missionaries and mission volunteers and even non religious aid workers

Hope for Creation Jonathan J. Bonk, Michel G. Distefano, J. Nelson Jennings, Jinbong Kim, Jae Hoon Lee, 2024-04-02 Can the Desert Be Green Our world is in peril Environmental degradation human suffering and relentless calamities confront us daily painting a picture of a planet in distress Amid this daunting reality how can God s people respond effectively This critical question beckons for a thoughtful and proactive response that intertwines faith and ecology with tangible action in our increasingly fragile world Hope for Creation offers a unique blend of theological insight and practical application It gathers perspectives from theologians and practitioners each giving a comprehensive understanding of creation care The contributors not only diagnose environmental and humanitarian issues but also propose actionable solutions rooted in biblical foundations and contemporary experiences This book is a call to action for Christians and mission leaders worldwide urging active participation in restoring and preserving our planet It equips church leaders missionaries and believers with the knowledge and tools to make a meaningful impact By embracing this mission readers contribute to a sustainable hopeful future joining a transformative journey towards environmental and human healing

Fire in My Bones Glenn Hinson, 2010-11-24 Glenn

Hinson focuses on a single gospel program and offers a major contribution to our understanding not just of gospel but of the nature of religious experience A key feature of African American performance is the layering of performative voices and the constant shifting of performative focus To capture this layering Hinson demonstrates how all the parts of the gospel program work together to shape a single whole joining speech and song performer and audience testimony prayer preaching and singing into a seamless and multifaceted service of worship Personal stories ground the discussion at every turn while experiential testimony fuels the unfolding arguments Fire in My Bones is an original exploration of experience and belief in a community of African American Christians but it is also an exploration of African American aesthetics the study of belief and the ethnographic enterprise
