The French Indochina War:

The French Indochina War 1946-54 Martin Windrow, 2013-06-20 The states of Indochina had been French colonies or protectorates since the 19th century However in March 1945 the Japanese interned all French troops and officials and turned over all civil government to local authorities The power vacuum caused by the Japanese surrender allowed the Viet Minh a strong revolutionary organisation to be established throughout Vietnam When the French returned to the north incidents between French and VM troops were inevitable negotiations collapsed and the French opted for a military solution This book examines the history of the conflict and the forces of both sides Contesting Indochina M. Kathryn Edwards, 2016-06-14

How does a nation come to terms with losing a war especially an overseas war whose purpose is fervently contested In the years after the war how does such a nation construct and reconstruct its identity and values For the French in Indochina the stunning defeat at Dien Bien Phu ushered in the violent process of decolonization and a fraught reckoning with a colonial past Contesting Indochina is the first in depth study of the competing and intertwined narratives of the Indochina War It analyzes the layers of French remembrance focusing on state sponsored commemoration veterans associations special interest groups intellectuals films and heated public disputes These narratives constitute the ideological battleground for contesting the legacies of colonialism decolonization the Cold War and France's changing global status French Indochina War (1882-1883), Ralph Zuljan offers a very brief description of the French Indochina War of 1882-1883 as part of the

Armed Conflict Events Data The war involved China Vietnam and France At the conclusion of the conflict the French protectorate of Vietnam was established Dien Bien Phu Anthony Tucker-Jones, 2017-08-30 When the world held its breath It is 25 years since the end of the Cold War now a generation old It began over 75 years ago in 1944 long before the last shots of the Second World War had echoed across the wastelands of Eastern Europe with the brutal Greek Civil War The battle lines are no longer drawn but they linger on unwittingly or not in conflict zones such as Iraq Somalia and Ukraine In an era of mass produced AK 47s and ICBMs one such flashpoint was French Indochina At the end of the Second World War France sought to reassert its military prestige but instead suffered humiliating defeat at Dien Bien Phu in French colonial Indochina The First Indochina war became a textbook example of how not to conduct counterinsurgency warfare against nationalist guerrillas Anthony Tucker Jones guides the reader through this decisive conflict with a concise text and contemporary photographs providing critical insight into the conduct of the war by both sides and its wider ramifications The Viet Minh after resisting the Japanese in Indochina sought independence for Vietnam from France The French with limited military resources moved swiftly to reassert control in 1945 sparking a decade long conflict French defense of Hanoi rested on holding the Red River Delta making it a key battleground When the Viet Minh invaded neighboring Laos the French deployed to fight a set piece battle at Dien Bien Phu in 1954 but instead were trapped All relief attempts failed and French defenses were slowly overwhelmed America considered coming to the garrisons rescue using nuclear weapons but instead left it to its fate which set the scene for the Algerian and the Vietnam conflicts , French Foreign Légionnaire vs Viet Minh Insurgent Martin Windrow,2018-09-20 The French Indochina War 1946 54 was the largest of the first generation of post World War II wars of decolonization as Vietminh insurgents sought to topple their French colonial masters It was also unique in that the insurgency evolved from low level guerrilla activity to mobile operations by a large conventional army which finally defeated a large European led expeditionary force supported by artillery armour and airpower The war s progress was almost entirely dictated by the extreme terrain and by the Chinese support enjoyed by the Vietnamese insurgents The actions explored in this study cover three contrasting phases of the war in Tonkin during 1948 52 setting both sides on the path that would lead to the conflict s climactic encounter at Dien Bien Phu in 1954 Featuring specially commissioned artwork and drawing upon a range of sources this meticulously researched study casts new light on the troops who fought on both sides in this evolving and momentous conflict A Revolution in Indochina Robert Tuxford,2011-10 A Revolution in Indochina is a story of two Indochina wars The story gives a brief history of Indochina The Chinese were Indochina s overlords for 1 000 years Eventually the Chinese gave Indochina to the French At the end of WWII the French wanted their colony returned to them The Vietnamese Communist wanted the French out of Indochina thus the First Indochina war began In 1954 the Communist defeated the French During 1955 through 1961 there was conflict within Indochina Eventually this led to the Second Indochina War In October 1961 President Kennedy began to send military advisors to Indochina In 1962 the author was one of those so called advisors In 1973 all U S forces withdrew With the U S gone the North Vietnamese invaded and took control Thus the Second Indochina War ended French Indochina War Huston, Simon,2021-07-01 Military mistakes impel strategic reflection The French Indochina War FIW from 1946 1954 furnishes useful insights with some resonance for current challenges A combination of pre existing conditions catalysts and operational drivers caused the cathartic 1954 French defeat Pre conditions included the illegitimacy of the colonial regime repression that polarised nationalist sentiment Economically pernicious terms of trade suppressed industrialisation but oiled speculation until suddenly reversed by devaluation in 1953 that reflected financial disengagement by France but increased American involvement Vacillating metropolitan and the dubious colonial regime of the night club Emperor B o i fuelled political instability Militarily after the disastrous evacuation of the RC4 in 1950 Vi t Minh men and supplies poured across the Chinese frontier In 1954 financial constraints and the looming international peace conference catalysed Navarre the new French commander to gamble on a battle of attrition He bet that the Vi t Minh would be unable drag artillery to the remote jungle outpost of Di n Bi n Ph but he underestimated their determination strength and adaptability In early December partisans resented the bungled evacuation of Lai Ch u The entrenched camp s defences were inadequate and neither infantry sorties nor napalm suppressed VM artillery in the surrounding hills The French aero logistical sub system was overstretched and significant parachute supplies fell into enemy hands Navarre scattered his reserves on a futile and remote side show

Operation Atlante The Americans prevaricated and refused to unleash their B29 fleet Iacta alea est the die was cast The French-Indochina War, 1946-1954 Erskine B. Crew,196? The End of the First Indochina War James Waite,2012-08-21 The French withdrawal from Vietnam in 1954 was the product of global pressures and triggered significant global consequences By treating the war as an international issue this book places Indochina at the center of the Cold War in the mid 1950s Arguing that the Indochina War cannot be understood as a topic of Franco US relations but ought to be treated as international history this volume brings in Vietnamese and other global agents including New Zealand Australia and especially Britain as well as China and the Soviet Union Importantly the book also argues that the successful French withdrawal from Vietnam a political defeat for the Eisenhower administration helped to avert outright warfare between the major powers although with very mixed results for the inhabitants of Vietnam who faced partition and further bloodshed The End of the First Indochina War explores the complexities of intra alliance competition over global strategy especially between the United States and British Commonwealth arguing that these rivalries are as important to understanding the Cold War as east west confrontation This is the first truly global interpretation of the French defeat in 1954 based on the author s research in five western countries and the latest scholarship from historians of Vietnam China and Russia Readers will find much that is new both in terms of archival revelations and original interpretations The Road to Dien Bien Phu Christopher Goscha,2022-03-29 On May 7 1954 when the bullets stopped and the air stilled in Dien Bien Phu there was no doubt that Vietnam could fight a mighty colonial power and win After nearly a decade of struggle a nation forged in the crucible of war had achieved a victory undreamed of by any other national liberation movement This book tells the story of how Ho Chi Minh turned a ragtag guerrilla army into a modern fighting force capable of bringing down the formidable French army Accommodation and Resistance Edward Rice Maximin,1986-09-17 In this careful historical analysis Edward Rice Maximin documents the reactions of the French Left to the First Indochina War 1944 1954 Unlike previous works which dealt exclusively with the politics of the French Communists this book is among the first to deal with the entire French left and to focus directly on the role of the Socialists America's Vietnam War and Its French Connection Frank Cain,2016-12-08 That America was drawn into the Vietnam War by the French has been recognized but rarely explored This book analyzes the years from 1945 with the French military reconquest of Vietnam until 1963 with the execution of the French endorsed dictator Ngo Dinh Diem demonstrating how the US should not have followed the French into Vietnam It shows how the Korean War triggered the flow of American military hardware and finances to underpin France s war against the Marxist oriented Vietnam Republic led by Ho Chi Minh The First Step William E. O'Conner,1978 The First Indochina War Ronald Eckford Mill Irving,1975 The Last Valley Martin Windrow,2004-12-13 In December 1953 the French army occupying Vietnam challenged the elusive Vietnamese army to engage in battle at Dien Bien Phu The story of how the siege in the jungle wore on until the French were depleted demoralized and destroyed is meticulously researched for this volume The Road to War Martin Shipway,2003-01-01 How did France become embroiled in Vietnam in the first of long wars of decolonization And why did the French colonial administration in late 1946 having negotiated with Ho Chi Minh for a year adopt a warlike stance towards Ho's regime which ran counter to the liberal colonial doctrine of liberated France Based on French archival sources almost all of them previously unavailable to the English speaking reader the author assesses the policy that emerged from the 1944 Brazzaville conference and the doomed attempt to apply that policy in Indochina

China A Gracious Enemy Michael G Kramer Omieau,2019-07-21 The full story of the three Indochina Wars including wars and all The first was the Indochinese People fighting against the French colonists and their suppliers and allies from the USA The second was the people of Indochina Cambodia Laos Vietnam fighting against an allied coalition force made up of Australia New Zealand South Korea Thailand South Vietnam and the USA The Second Indochina War is usually referred to as the Vietnam War This book examines the re adjustment of Vietnamese society after the uprising of the Tay Son Brothers in 1770 their stopping of the Trinh and Nguyen families oppression of the Vietnamese people The coming of the Catholic Church and how this affected the people is examined As well the activities of Pineau de Bahrain who was a missionary and the Bishop of Adran he did much to ensure the French takeover of the majority of South East Asia That was followed by the French takeover and full colonisation and rule by France To better control the people the French forbade the use of Chinese characters in writing and transcribed the entire Vietnamese language into the Latin alphabet which was then taught in all schools During WW2 for the first time Asian People could see that the Caucasian People White men could be beaten That resulted in the First Indochina War which ended with the French defeat at Dien Bien Phu The Second Indochina War ended in 1975 with the withdrawal of the last American soldier from Vietnam The Third Indochina War ended when the Vietnamese Army invaded Kampuchea resulting in Vietnamese tanks entering its capital while the Pol Pot administration fled into the jungle
