A Homiletical Praxeology on the Persuasiveness of Literary Forms Ferdi P. Kruger,2025-04-29 This book is aimed at academic scholars and preachers who deal with homiletical praxeology weekly Its purpose is to focus on the rhetorical appeal of the Biblical text which is alluded to from the viewpoint of the five preaching blocks according to Matthew s Gospel and the Hebrew sermon The book s uniqueness is encapsulated in the idea that it is a practical theological and homiletical study Consequently the book offers empirical perspectives on literary forms and an inter disciplinary engagement with neighbour sciences before presenting normative perspectives This book posits that faith communities should be exposed to more literary forms to realise that the library of the Gospel and its literature does have a rhetorical appeal that should be preached according to its purpose The unique structure and way the Gospel portrays the Kingdom that has come near as well as the Hebrews sermon offering perspectives on attitude change could enrich a homiletical practice     The Dynamics of Persuasion R.M. Perloff,1993     The Social Psychology of Humor Madelijn Strick,Thomas E Ford,2021-04-05 This important new book provides a comprehensive analysis of humor from a social psychological perspective addressing questions about the use of humor and its effects in daily life It examines the social psychology of humor on micro level phenomena such as attitudes persuasion and social perception as well as exploring its use and effect on macro level phenomena such as conformity group processes cohesion and intergroup relations Humor is inherently a social experience shared among people essential to nearly every type of interpersonal relationship In this accessible volume Strick and Ford review current research and new theoretical advancements to identify pressing open questions and propose new directions for future research in the social psychology of humor The book explores fascinating topics such as humor in advertising political satire and the importance of a sense of humor in maintaining romantic relationships It also examines how racist or sexist humor can affect personal and intergroup relations and discusses how to confront inappropriate jokes Offering new precise and operational conceptions of humor in social processes this book will be essential reading for students and academics in social psychology media and communication studies

The Review Response Genre Victor Ho, 2023-10-26 Expanding the scope of the metadiscourse construct Ho offers a comprehensive analysis of the online review response genre using hotel managers responses to negative reviews posted by dissatisfied customers on TripAdvisor He adopts a robust research methodology that involves both quantitative and qualitative analyses of three different types of data managerial responses to negative comments questionnaire responses from dissatisfied customers who wrote the reviews and interview responses from hotel managers who wrote the responses By drawing upon the genre theory and the construct of rapport and metadiscourse the analysis shows that hotel management s attempts at service recovery can be materialized through the move structures of the managerial responses and the strategies used in managing rapport with dissatisfied customers and in persuading both existing and potential customers to purchase accommodation services from the hotels An essential reading for students and researchers of pragmatics and professional communication along with anyone interested in the role of language in persuading customers neutralizing criticisms and managing interpersonal relationships particularly in the context of open forums online
