Sixties Sereni embraced the struggle for women's rights social justice and political reform championing Eduardo Galeano's notion that utopia always stands at the horizon and one must keep walking to reach it. Activist journalist writer translator but also musician disability rights champion home maker and wife her multiple and often conflicting roles emerge in a rich and multifaceted writing increasingly balanced between the public and the private history with a capital H and personal memoir. Her first major success Casalinghitudine Keeping House explores the juncture of the public and the personal as important historical moments merge with her workaday memories of cooking. Her remarkable historical novel Il Gioco dei Regni The Game of Kingdoms traces her family history from the early 20th century through the post war period chronicling their personal lives and their involvement in Italian politics and Jewish intellectual life. Subsequent works such as Taccuino di un ultimista Notebook of a Meek Woman and Passami il sale Pass me the Salt tackle the difficulties of negotiating life as a political figure wife and mother of a disabled son. In works such as Eppure And Yet Le Merendanze Afternoon Snacks and Una storia chiusa A Closed Story as well as Il lupo mercante The Mongering Wolf and Via Ripetta 155 Ripetta Street she again intertwines private experiences and public circumstances raising questions related to gender class disability the elderly and sustainability. This is the first volume that brings together the critical aspects of Clara Sereni's work providing a comprehensive view of the writer the intellectual the politician and the woman. As we reflect on the 20th century Sereni's long spanning writing career stands as an important document of its struggles its conflicts and like Sereni herself its enduring idealism.
