Generalship, Historical Perspectives ,2008 After World War I J F C Fuller stated that the three pillars of generalship meaning good generalship of course are courage creative intelligence and physical fitness and the attributes of youth rather than middle age The study of character traits and leadership principles dominated our thought and leadership teaching methodology during and after World War II with role playing and case studies used extensively Current leadership doctrine for the entire Army is prescribed in Field Manual 6 22 Army Leadership a publication that relies heavily on historical examples for its message Since the foundations of Army leadership are firmly grounded in history senior leaders must have a core of historical knowledge to give them the perspective necessary to solve the leadership and command challenges of today

Los Angeles Transformed Tom Sitton, 2005 When Fletcher Bowron 1887 1968 ran for mayor of Los Angeles in 1938 his twelve years as a superior court judge with a reputation for honesty and fairness carried him to victory against a notoriously corrupt incumbent During his nearly fifteen years as a neo progressive mayor Bowron presided over fundamental reforms in the police department public utilities and other agencies charged with basic services rooting out bribery kickbacks and influence peddling World War II brought economic and population booms racial conflict social dislocation and environmental problems to Los Angeles and complicated Mayor Bowron s job After the war Bowron initiated massive public housing and desegregation projects These forward looking programs alienated enough voters to cost him the 1953 election as his leftist supporters fell away under the influence of McCarthyism This political history of the mid twentieth century reform period in Los Angeles is also a case study of the ways outside events can affect municipal affairs As Tom Sitton demonstrates the choices made during Bowron s administration have had a direct bearing on how Los Angeles looks today and how its government operates

Hongkongers in the British Armed Forces, 1860-1997 Chi Man Kwong, 2022-02-10 Hong Kong has been caught between empires ever since the First Opium War 1839 1842 As a result the study of Hong Kong history has been subjected to the influence of the empires that controlled or laid claims over it The historical experience of the Hongkongers during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries is unique with Hong Kong as a multi ethnic and multi cultural society an international trading hub and a geopolitically crucial British colony until 1997 In recent decades historians produced works on different aspects of the Hong Kong history but one particular group has remained obscure the more than 30 000 Hong Kong men and women who served in the British armed forces from the Opium Wars to the end of the British rule This is the first systematic study of the experience of the Hong Kong servicemen in the British armed forces during the colonial period It puts the Hong Kong servicemen in the contexts of Hong Kong history the history of overseas Chinese the history of the British Empire and the military history of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries It details the agency of Hongkongers who were often portrayed as victims or beneficiaries during the two world wars and the Cold War and highlights the relevance of Hong Kong in the modern history of East Asia The author also looks at how the intertwined issues of class and race played out among these servicemen who came from a variety of ethnic cultural and social backgrounds The study reveals the complexity of the colonial Hong Kong society by illustrating the interplay between the colonizers and the colonized of different classes and ethnicities and informs the ongoing discussion about colonial Hong Kong by providing concrete examples of the collaboration between ethnic groups
