Excel 7 for Windows 95 Carole K. Tobias,1998 Using ICT to Enhance Teaching and Learning in Chemistry Steve Lewis,2004 Information and Communications Technology has revolutionised the ways we process access and use information and as computers and other devices become ever more powerful and information becomes more readily available the next generation will need to be able to interact with digital media effectively to exploit these amazing new technologies to their full potential for the benefit of society. It is therefore imperative that teachers become familiar with ICT and its true potential and can present information with a perspective similar to that which the present generation of young people is using to develop their interests in their everyday life. This resource from the RSC gives teachers of chemistry the practical help needed to integrate ICT into their teaching and stimulate the enthusiasm of a new generation of scientists in the exciting new areas of chemistry that are opening up such as Nanoscience and Nanotechnology. Furthermore it will be highly effective in developing the new ethos of sustainability that will be a major driving force behind the next advances in chemistry that are vital if we are to survive the manifold problems confronting society in the next few decades. This resource is ideal for all secondary teachers of chemistry, trainee teachers and university lecturers.

Story Crafting Arlene F. Marks,2014-03-04 The Literacy Made for All series is a classroom ready teacher friendly resource for English and Writing teachers of Grades 9 through 12. Organized buffet style it is designed to complement an existing English curriculum by providing a tested repertoire of strategies for teaching both writing skills and literary analysis techniques. STORY CRAFTING focuses on the creation, editing, polishing and sharing of short stories and longer prose fiction. Benefits and Features tested and proven effective at all learning levels from Remedial to Pre AP provides complete lesson plans including reproducible materials can be implemented as is or modified to suit individual teaching styles and or students' needs. Each skill assignment or project begins by teaching the teacher, giving an inexperienced teacher the knowledge to provide effective instruction first time out and the confidence to modify and experiment thereafter. Comprised of reading, writing, literary criticism and language study components, it moves students from writing effectively to reading analytically, approaching text from the authoring point of view, a proven highly successful methodology can turn any English course into a Literacy course, extremely versatile and cost effective. It can deepen an existing English course or complete the framework for a new one. STORY CRAFTING focuses on the creation, production and sharing of a variety of nonfiction writing projects.
