Horse Camp Nicole Helget, Nate LeBoutillier, 2012-05-08 When their mom said she was sending twelve year old Percy and Penny and their little brother Pauly to stay with an uncle they'd never met she tried to make it sound better by saying that Uncle Stretch's farm was a horse camp Well the farm animals are actually chickens and pigs and the only two horses are mean tempered and not too keen on being ridden by kids As Penny puts it This farm is like the eighteenth century but way worse The water has a rusty taste and all the meat used to be animals on the farm If there is one thing the twins can agree on it's that between endless chores no Internet or cell phones and the prospect that their mom might have to stay in jail even though some people say she's a hero horse camp is a big fat joke Will they ever have a real family again Or is there a family for them right here Nicole Helget and Nate LeBoutillier have written a funny novel about farms and family animals and antagonism and the paths kids take sometimes while living in the same house before coming home Encyclopedia of

Barrie Gunter, 2014-07-24 Competition talent shows have been among the most popular on television in the 21st century The producers of these shows claim to give ordinary people extraordinary opportunities to change their lives by showcasing a specific skill leading to a new career trajectory Most participants will claim that they entered to get a big break and to develop a career they have always dreamed of To what extent do these shows deliver on such promises Following through what happens to leading contestants in singing entertainment modelling cooking and business entrepreneur competitions this book shows that few go on to achieve lasting success in their chosen career Many return to obscurity or to their previous lives Some enjoy a low level career in the new direction delivered by the competition they entered Just a few become truly successful The pop and entertainment themed contests have discovered just a handful of major pop stars and entertainers out of many hundreds who have taken part after the initial auditions Turning to the cookery or business franchises there are few who go on to achieve lasting success in their chosen career In these it is equally likely that the winners go on to enjoy success with media careers rather than as chefs or entrepreneurs The most successful franchise of all is the fashion model competition Next Top Model which has yielded a high hit rate in terms of career success What the analysis here also reveals is that it isn't only the winners who ultimately benefit the most from their appearances in these shows Moreover television picks its own stars by recruiting contestants because they are telegenic or have a good backstory as much as for their relevant talents In this way a talent hungry medium has co-opted these franchises to replenish its own needs Native
