Tynan Letters Kathleen Tynan, 2012-02-29 The Letters of Kenneth Tynan drama critic talent snob intellectual dandy inveterate campaigner provide a record of a soul written between the ages of 11 and 53 they not only chart the extraordinary parabola of his career but show the constancy of his quest for grace style and effortless wit

Cross-linguistic Correspondences Thomas Egan, Hildegunn Dirdal, 2017-11-15 Contrastive Linguistics is an expanding field as witnessed by the publication in recent years of an increasing number of monographs collected volumes and journal articles The present volume which comprises an introduction and ten chapters dealing with lexical contrasts between English and other languages shows advances within the well established lexical work in the field Each of the chapters takes lexical items as its starting point and compares English with one or more languages The languages represented are Spanish Lithuanian Swedish German Norwegian and Czech Furthermore they emphasise the link between lexis and grammar not only within the same language but also across languages Finally several studies represent one of the more recent developments of contrastive linguistics namely a growing focus on genre and register comparisons The book should appeal to both established scholars and advanced students with an interest in lexis genre corpus linguistics and or contrastive linguistics

Representations of Eve in Antiquity and the English Middle Ages John Flood, 2010-12-14 As the first woman Eve was the pattern for all her daughters The importance of readings of Eve for understanding how women were viewed at various times is a critical commonplace but one which has been only narrowly investigated This book systematically explores the different ways in which Eve was understood by Christians in antiquity and in the English Middle Ages and it relates these understandings to female social roles The result is an Eve more various than she is often depicted by scholars Beginning with material from the bible the Church Fathers and Jewish sources the book goes on to look at a broad selection of medieval writing including theological works and literary texts in Old and Middle English In addition to dealing with famous authors such as Augustine Aquinas Dante and Chaucer the writings of authors who are now less well known but who were influential in their time are explored The book allows readers to trace the continuities and discontinuities in the way Eve was portrayed over a millennium and a half and as such it is of interest to those interested in women or the bible in the Middle Ages

Kid's Box American English Level 1 Teacher's Edition Melanie Williams, Caroline Nixon, Michael Tomlinson, 2010-12-02 Kid's Box is a six level course for young learners Bursting with bright ideas to inspire both teachers and students Kid's Box

American English gives children a confident start to learning English It also fully covers the syllabus for the Cambridge Young Learners English YLE tests The Teacher s Edition contains comprehensive notes as well as extra activities and classroom ideas to inspire both teachers and students Level 1 begins the Starters cycle English Medieval Misericords Paul Hardwick,2011 Misericord carvings present a fascinating corpus of medieval art which in turn complements our knowledge of life and belief in the late middle ages Subjects range from the sacred to the profane and from the fantastic to the everyday seemingly giving equal weight to the scatological and the spiritual alike Focusing specifically on England though with cognisance of broader European contexts this volume offers an analysis of misericords in relation to other cultural artefacts of the period Through a series of themed case studies the book places misericords firmly within the doctrinal and devotional milieu in which they were created and sited arguing that even the apparently coarse images to be found beneath choir stalls are intimately linked to the devotional life of the medieval English Church The analysis is complemented by a gazetteer of the most notable instances Dr Paul Hardwick is Professor in English Leeds Trinity University College
