Perspectives on Play from Birth and Beyond Sandra Lynch, Deborah Pike, Cynthia à Beckett, 2017-01-27 While firmly acknowledging the importance of play in early childhood this book interrogates the assumption that play is a birthright It pushes beyond traditional understandings of play to ask questions such as what is the relationship between play and the arts theatre music and philosophy and between play and wellbeing How is play relevant to educational practice in the rapidly changing circumstances of today's world What do Australian Aboriginal conceptions of play have to offer understandings of play The book examines how ideas of play evolve as children increasingly interact with popular culture and technology and how developing notions of play have changed our work spaces teaching practices curricula and learning environments as well as our understanding of relationships between children and adults This multidisciplinary volume on the subject of play combines the work of some of the world's leading researchers in the field of early childhood education with contributions from distinguished and emerging scholars in areas as diverse as education theatre studies architecture literature philosophy cultural studies theology and the creative arts Reconsidering the common focus on play in early education to investigate its broader impact this collection offers a refreshing and valuable addition to studies on play reconceptualizing it for the 21st century The Concept of Time in Early Twentieth-Century Philosophy Flavia Santoianni, 2015-11-26 This book presents a collection of authoritative contributions on the concept of time in early twentieth century philosophy It is structured in the form of a thematic atlas each section is accompanied by relevant elementary logic maps that reproduce in a spatial form the directionalities arguments and or discourses reported on in the text The book is divided into three main sections the first of which covers phenomenology and the perception of time by analyzing the works of Bergson Husserl Sartre Merleau Ponty Deleuze Guattari and Derrida The second section focuses on the language and conceptualization of time examining the works of Cassirer Wittgenstein Heidegger Lacan Ricoeur and Foucault while the last section addresses the science and logic of time as they appear in the works of Guillaume Einstein Reichenbach Prigogine and Barbour The purpose of the book is threefold to provide readers with a comprehensive overview of the concept of time in early twentieth century philosophy to show how conceptual reasoning can be supported by accompanying linguistic and spatial representations and to stimulate novel research in the humanistic field concerning the complex role of graphic representations in the comprehension of concepts

Phenomenology of Anxiety Stefano Micali, 2022-03-30 This volume offers a thorough description of anxiety from a phenomenological perspective Building on Bakhtin's insights the author develops the method of phenomenological polyphony which can do justice to the essential ambiguity of anxiety In this polyphony the voices of Kierkegaard Husserl Freud Blumenberg Heidegger Sartre Adorno Derrida and Levinas are particularly recognizable The book explores new perspectives on the complex relation between anxiety fear and trauma with reference to different disciplines from art history to cultural anthropology from psychopathology to theology from literature to political philosophy When is anxiety justified When does anxiety cease to function as an effective and reasonable signal preventing imminent threats and when does it become an invasive projection of our own ghosts This volume presents a deep philosophical inquiry into the affective phenomenon that can both protect us from danger and be a danger in itself Moreover the author explores the relevance of anxiety in the context of philosophical anthropology In various theoretical frameworks the difference between anxiety and fear serves as a criterion for distinguishing human beings from animals in particular Accordingly research on anxiety is crucial for defining human nature as such The analysis presented in this volume shows how an alteration of the dimensions of embodiment time consciousness and phantasy takes place in anxiety Furthermore the author elaborates on new categories for understanding of anxiety such as quasi intentional imaginative anticipation which eludes the traditional differentiation between perception and imagination The work culminates in a phenomenological analysis of five essential traits of anxiety 1 its quasi intentional imaginative anticipation 2 its negative inspiration 3 the recurrence of bodily manifestations 4 the interlocution with an alien power 5 its negative teleology
