Smith draws on archival research at the Filmoteca Nacional to offer a broadly historical account of Eloy de la Iglesia and Pedro Almodóvar the two major gay auteurs of post Franco film Particular attention is paid to their use of cinematic form and the book ends with an analysis of Almodóvar's Tie me up Tie me down a film which exemplifies the main argument of the book that homosexuality is no unitary phenomenon but rather a historical and libidinal construct inevitably inflected by gender class and regional identity
