Argumentative Writing in a Second Language Alan R. Hirvela, Diane Belcher, 2021-12-13 Argumentative Writing in a Second Language is a collection on teaching argumentative writing offering multiple vantage points drawn from the contributors' own teaching and research experiences. The value of learning how to compose argumentative texts cannot be overstated, and yet very little attention has been allocated to the equally important topic of how argumentation is or can be taught in the L2 context. Thus, this volume shifts attention to teachers and argumentative writing instruction, especially within increasingly common multimodal and digital literacy settings. While doing so, it provides a comprehensive, wide-ranging view of the L2 argumentative writing landscape within an instructional lens. Part I of the volume is topic-oriented and focuses on explorations of important issues and perspectives, while Part II features several chapters reporting classroom-based studies of a variety of instructional approaches that expand our understanding of how argumentative writing can be taught. The book will be of value to pre-service and in-service teachers in varying instructional contexts, as well as teacher educators and L2 writing scholars/researchers.

Composing Health Literacies Michael Madson, 2023-03-31 This edited collection examines engagements between health literacies and undergraduate writing instruction, providing research, case studies, and practical guidance on developing an interdisciplinary writing pedagogy. Bringing together works from scholars in rhetoric and composition, technical communication, UX, public health, nursing, and writing center administration, this collection showcases a range of evidence-based practices for composing, teaching, and assessing health literacies, which the readers can apply to their own contexts. Using non-specialist language accessible to instructors from a variety of backgrounds, the chapters consider the use of writing assignments including image analyses, public service announcements, podcasts, health education materials, illness narratives, public presentations, research proposals, and journal articles. The book offers a holistic overview by profiling entire writing programs, both online and face-to-face, that teach health literacies across their curricula. This evidence-based collection is essential reading for scholars and instructors in rhetoric and composition writing in the health professions technical communication and health humanities and can be used as a supplemental textbook for pedagogy courses in these fields An Introduction to Advanced Academic Argumentative Writing Approach for High School and Undergraduate Students Dr Julius Nang Kum , An Introduction to the Advanced Academic Argumentative Writing Approach for High School and Undergraduate Students This long awaited textbook examines the knowledge making genre or the argumentative writing at the advanced stage It provides students with an insightful and a coherent picture of the academic argumentative essay which is a training tool for knowledge making for most convincing writings The book is divided into six chapters Chapter one highlights some key pragmatic features which are very necessary for most successful students in the academic world Chapter two focuses on the writing skills and some advantages of being a good writer The remaining chapters identify the actual definition of an academic argumentative writing and also highlight the components of the introduction section the body section and the conclusion section of the knowledge constructing genre The book would be appropriate as a training tool for the writing skills of many advanced and undergraduate students We hope that high school and undergraduate students would find the book very interesting and vital for their advanced argumentative writings and some related convincing writings in other fields Skills for Rhetoric (Student) James P. Stobaugh, 2013-05-01 Helps high school students develop the skills necessary to communicate more powerfully through writing and to articulate their thoughts clearly Develop creative writing skills including descriptive writing poetry and short stories Cultivate the use of expository writing including research papers analytical essays problem solution writing and firsthand accounts Learn the art of public speaking including persuasive speeches informative speeches debates and more Rhetoric is the ancient skill of persuasive speech used by teachers preachers politicians and others to influence incite and instruct This course includes basic grammar and writing composition and mastering this time honored skill will set your students apart with distinguished written and oral abilities This 34 week critical thinking course will take the student through the writing of numerous academic essays several public speaking presentations and an extensive research paper Dr Stobaugh weaves biblical concepts readings and applications throughout the curriculum to help equip students to stand firm in their faith and become the light of Christ in a deteriorating culture A Textbook of Grammar and Writing Skills K. Thomas Baby, 2025-04-27 This textbook presents a unique version of simplified English grammar that is easily understood by the average EFL student who struggles with the complex explanations found in standard grammar books prescribed for undergraduate students Moreover many prescribed grammar textbooks often lack sufficient practice materials and overlook certain seemingly trivial aspects of language that are crucial for language acquisition Therefore this book is specifically designed to address these challenges by shifting from traditional rule based grammar learning to a cognitive approach that identifies patterns of correct sentence structure This method makes grammar instruction easier and more engaging for the average student Additionally the book includes dedicated sections on summarizing paraphrasing and essay writing activities aimed at developing the writing skills of students at varying language levels by providing suitable practice materials

Skills for Rhetoric (Teacher) James P.
