The Cost-effectiveness of National Training Systems in Developing Countries Christopher Dougherty,1989

How the United States Would Fight China Franz-Stefan Gady,2025-11 This is a detailed analysis of how the United States intends to fight a war against the People s Republic of China and why it risks strategic defeat based on its doctrine force structure and general way of war Franz Stefan Gady contends that the US military s current approach to a potential war over Taiwan is flawed relying heavily both on achieving rapid information superiority and on a decisive victory This is unlikely to succeed and may increase the risk of nuclear escalation between the world s only genuine superpowers A US China war would more likely be characterized by prolonged attrition across multiple domains cyber space air sea and land a conflict for which America s military and society are ill prepared The US also lacks a viable blueprint the military forces or the industrial capacity for a long war of attrition This deficiency stems from a military culture prioritizing advanced technology over mass and the lack of political will or public readiness for the sacrifices such a conflict would require Gady s research and analysis both of the highest order reveal the significant risk of strategic defeat for the United States in a potential conflict with China whether in the 2020s or 2030s Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2002 X Toolkit Intrinsics Programming Manual Adrian
