Talking To Terrorists Oberon Modern Plays:

Talking to Terrorists Robin Soans, 2012-08-01 I looked around the room and I thought I m the only person in this room that hasn't killed anyone Talking to Terrorists is a play commissioned by the Royal Court and Out of Joint The writer director Max Stafford Clark and actors interviewed people from around the world who have been involved in terrorism They wanted to know what makes ordinary people do extreme things As well as those who crossed the line they met peacemakers warriors journalists hostages and psychologists Their stories take us from Uganda Israel Turkey Iraq and Ireland to the heart of the British establishment Talking to Terrorists was produced Out of Joint Theatre Company at the Royal Court Theatre and on a UK tour in 2005

Documentary and Verbatim Theatre Stuart Young, 2025-12-12 Documentary and Verbatim Theatre surveys the emergence and rise of work based on real life in contemporary theatre exploring the artists methodologies plays and central themes that have characterised its enduring popularity After charting the recent history of modern documentary theatre in the twentieth century and the debates that have surrounded it in the past thirty years each chapter examines in depth key practices such as headphone verbatim and extreme verbatim and practitioners from Anna Deavere Smith and David Hare to The Civilians and DV8 Physical Theatre Practitioners chosen topics playwriting process and engagement with sometimes fraught debates in the field are brought to the fore Focusing on the various dramaturgical and theatrical strategies used to create and stage documentary theatre this book provides a practice centric understanding of some of the principal issues related to the form including the tensions between fidelity to the documentary or verbatim record and the exercise of artistic licence the ethical issues entailed in representing living people the implications for actors and our understanding of acting and our assumptions about aesthetic distancing This is an essential introduction to documentary and verbatim theatre for theatre studies students teachers and scholars as well as theatre practitioners

Performing the testimonial Amanda Stuart Fisher, 2020-08-04 Providing one of the first critically sustained engagements with the new forms of verbatim and testimonial theatre that emerged in the late 1990s and early 2000s this book examines what distinguishes verbatim theatre from the more established documentary theatre traditions developed initially by Peter Weiss Bertolt Brecht and Erwin Piscator Examining a wide range of verbatim and testimonial plays from around the world this book looks beyond the discourses of the real that have tended to dominate scholarship in this area and instead argues that this kind of theatre engages in acts of truth telling Through its analysis of a range of international plays from UK Germany America Australia and South Africa the book explores theatre's dramaturgical interrogation of testimony and how the act of witnessing itself is reconfigured when relocated outside of the psychoanalytic frame and positioned as contributing to a decolonisation of testimony

The Oberon Book of Modern Monologues for Women Catherine Weate, 2008-09 This book is an essential resource for actors participating in acting classes contests auditions and rehearsals

The New War Plays J. Boll, 2013-10-18 How can war be represented on stage How does the theatre examine the structures leading to violence and war and explore their transformation of societies Springing from the discussion about New Wars in the age of globalisation this interdisciplinary study demonstrates how these New Wars bring forth new plays about war Beyond Documentary Realism Cyrielle Garson,2021-02-22 Verbatim theatre a type of performance based on actual words spoken by real people has been at the heart of a remarkable and unexpected renaissance of the genre in Great Britain since the mid nineties The central aim of the book is to critically explore and account for the relationship between contemporary British verbatim theatre and realism whilst questioning the much debated mediation of the real in theses theatre practices Political and Protest Theatre after 9/11 Jenny Spencer,2011-12-22 This collection documents and examines political and protest theatre produced between the 9 11 attacks in 2001 and Obama s election in 2008 by British and American artists responding to their own governments actions and policies during this time The plays take up topics such as the ongoing wars on terror Blair s support of U S policies the flawed intelligence that led to the Iraq war and illegal detentions and torture at Abu Ghraib The authors argue that engaged artists faced a radically different sociopolitical context for their work after 9 11 compared to earlier social protest movements and new forms of theatre and different emotional strategies were necessary to meet the challenges The subtitle Patriotic Dissent suggests the double stance of many artists influenced by patriotic expressions of national solidarity yet critical of the ways that patriotic language was put to use against others The articles represent a broad range of theatre Broadway musicals documentary theatre adaptations of classical theatre new plays by British playwrights street performances and installations and musical concerts The contributors case studies evaluate the effectiveness of important instances of political theatre and protest from this decade arguing for the significance relevance and continuing necessity for evolving forms of political theatre today Naming Theatre J. Frieze,2009-10-16 Reading a range of work from the US and UK over the last two decades this is an innovative study of theatre s growing obsession with technologies and effects of naming How does theatre reflect and intervene in naming practices across domains such as philosophy computing journalism anthropology advertising military training and genetics Theatre-Making D. Radosavljevic,2013-06-24 Theatre Making explores modes of authorship in contemporary theatre seeking to transcend the heritage of binaries from the Twentieth century such as text based vs devised theatre East vs West theatre vs performance with reference to genealogies though which these categories have been constructed in the English speaking world Aesthetics and Ideology in Contemporary Literature and Drama René Agostini,Madelena Gonzalez,2015-09-10 The conviction that the development and promotion of the arts humanities and culture through the study of literature and the aesthetic are the fundamental constituents of any progress in society is at the heart of this volume The essays gathered here explore the role of the imagination and aesthetic awareness in an age when the corporatization of knowledge is in the process of transforming literary studies and political commitment is in danger of disappearing behind a supposedly post ideological late capitalist consensus The main focus of the volume is the mutual implication of aesthetics and ideology and the status and value of different types of art within the political arena Challenging issues in contemporary aesthetics are examined within the wider framework of current debates on the disappearance of the real the crisis in representation and the use of new media The wide range of examples collected here stretching from experimental poetry in post war Germany political commitment in twentieth century French theatre and countercultural Rumanian theatre under Ceau escu to Neo Victorian fiction Verbatim theatre in the UK and political theatre for the masses in Estonia vouchsafe unique insights into the intersection of aesthetics and ideology and the practical consequences thereof As such the volume opens up a space for a meaningful engagement with authentic forms of art from inside and outside the Anglosphere and ultimately uses these examples as a platform from which to imagine some form of aesthetics representing an ideal union of aesthetics and ideology This concept first coined by the French philosopher Philippe Lacoue Labarthe will prove to be relevant both within the parameters of the examples discussed here but also beyond for the contributors to this volume are unanimous in refusing to believe that aesthetics and ideology can exist one without the other and in recognizing the centrality of ethics in any discussion of these notions A Concise

Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Drama Nadine Holdsworth,Mary Luckhurst,2013-04-12 Focusing on major and emerging playwrights institutions and various theatre practices this Concise Companion examines the key issues in British and Irish theatre since 1979 Written by leading international scholars in the field this collection offers new ways of thinking about the social political and cultural contexts within which specific aspects of British and Irish theatre have emerged and explores the relationship between these contexts and the works produced It investigates why particular issues and practices have emerged as significant in the theatre of this period Naturalism in Theatre Kenneth Pickering,Jayne Thompson,2018-03-17 An accessible survey of the development of naturalism and its effects on modern day theatre Taking into account the philosophical scientific and aesthetic ideas that constituted the movement during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the book examines why naturalism is still a dominant mode of performance in theatre Diversity and Homogeneity Joanna Kruckowska,Paulina Mirowska,2016-02-22 Diversity and Homogeneity explores current issues related to the nation ethnicity and gender in literature film media and theatrical performance in both the UK and the USA Employing a broad research framework it investigates the problematics of migration nomadism nationhood citizenship patriotism terrorism totalitarianism social and racial equality as well as masculinity and femininity in modern multicultural societies Keenly attuned to questions of alterity social and cultural fluidity and heterogeneous forms of identity yet also sensitive to contemporary unifying tendencies informing an increasingly globalized world the volume s contributions critically interrogate and challenge the traditional notions attached to the three overarching categories of the book s title Ethical Exchanges in Translation, Adaptation and Dramaturgy ,2017-06-06 Ethical Exchanges in Translation Adaptation and Dramaturgy examines compelling ethical issues that concern practitioners and scholars in the fields of translation adaptation and dramaturgy Its 11 essays written by academic theorists as well as scholar practitioners represent a rich diversity of philosophies and perspectives and reflect a broad international frame of reference Asia Europe North America and Australasia They also traverse a wide range of theatrical forms classic and contemporary playwrights from Shakespeare to Ibsen immersive and interactive theatre verbatim theatre devised and community theatre and postdramatic theatre In examining the ethics of specific artistic practices the book highlights the significant continuities between translation adaptation and dramaturgy it considers the ethics of spectatorship and it identifies the tightly interwoven relationship between ethics and politics The Oberon Book of Modern Monologues for Men Catherine Weate, 2013-01-22 Monologues are an essential part of every actor's toolkit Actors are required to perform monologues regularly throughout their career preparing for drama school entry showcasing skills for agents or auditioning for a role Following on from the bestselling first volume 2008 this book showcases selected monologues from some of the finest modern plays by some of today's leading contemporary playwrights These monologues contain a diverse range of quirky and memorable characters that cross cultural and historical boundaries The pieces are helpfully organised into age specific groups Teens Twenties Thirties and Forties plus Primer acto, 2010

Life After Scandal Robin Soans, 2007 New verbatim play from the writer of Talking To Terrorists and The Arab Israeli Cookbook Churchill's Socialism Siân Adiseshiah, 2020-06-12 Although now celebrated as a world leading playwright Caryl Churchill has received little attention for her socialism which has been frequently overlooked in favour of emphasising gendered identities and postmodernist themes Churchill's Socialism examines eight of Churchill's plays with reference to socialist theories and political movements This well researched and dynamic new book reframes Churchill's work positioning her plays within socialist discourses and producing persuasive political readings of her drama that reflect much more of the political challenge that the plays pose It additionally explores her uneasy relationship with postmodernism which presents itself particularly in Churchill's later plays The book contains a very helpful chapter on socialist contexts which outlines some of the key events debates and movements during the late 1960s up until the early 2000s This chapter also offers an incisive critique of the easy acceptance by some socialists of a postmodernist rejection of grand narratives and political agency An in depth examination of the rarely explored interconnections of utopianism and theatre forms another chapter where all eight of Churchill's plays Light Shining in Buckinghamshire Vinegar Tom Top Girls Fen Serious Money Mad Forest The Skriker and Far Away are introduced The plays are then discussed in pairs in a further four chapters with reference to communist historiography the class gender intersection the end of history thesis ecocritical challenges and postmodernism TDR., 2006 Staging Muslims in Britain Önder Çakırtaş, 2024-12-24 This scholarly volume delves into the manner in which British Muslims articulate their cultural social and religious identities through theatrical productions in 21st century Britain and examines their portrayal within these performances The study investigates the factors influencing the emergence and evolution of Islamic theatre in Britain providing an in depth analysis of plays by British playwrights of both Muslim and non Muslim origins that have shaped the trajectory of British Islamic theatre from the late 20th century to the present nder ak rta critically examines how British playwrights predominantly of Muslim origin but also including some of non Muslim origin depict Muslim identity and culture from their unique perspectives particularly in the context of post 9 11 society Adopting a comprehensive approach to Islamic playwriting and performance this book highlights the accomplishments and contributions of contemporary British playwrights primarily from Muslim backgrounds This study will be of significant interest to scholars and students in theatre studies as well as related disciplines such as Islamic studies sociology and political science
