Food Cultures of China Qian Guo,2023-07-27 Exploring the rich and varied culinary traditions of China this book enables a better understanding of Chinese history and culture through food Part of Bloomsbury s Global Kitchen series this book takes readers on a food tour of China covering everything from daily staples to holiday specialties In addition to discovering China s long culinary history you ll learn about recent trends foreign influences and contemporary food and dietary concerns such as obesity and environmental sustainability Chapters are organized thematically making it easy to focus in on particular courses or types of dishes For those hungry for a more hands on approach each chapter includes a collection of accessible recipes that allow readers to bring the subject to life in their own kitchens The main text is supplemented by sidebars that offer interesting bite sized facts a chronology of important dates in China s culinary history and a glossary of key food and dining related terms Sun Yat sen the founding father of modern China asserted that China s food culture was the most advanced and sophisticated in the world despite the country lagging the West in science industry and civic engagement Today many people outside China immediately envision iconic dishes like fried rice egg rolls or sweet and sour pork when they think of Chinese food But China has a much richer and more diverse set of culinary traditions China s food culture is one of the oldest in the world evolving over thousands of years It has been shaped by a myriad of forces from historical struggles with food insecurity to the modern push toward speed and convenience Across this large nation unique cuisines emerged that reflect the varied geography climate and customs of different regions

Home is Here Yin Xzi Ho,2021-08-17 Where do you come from Where do you call home Why Often when we think about belonging we associate it with our country of birth or the country we are raised in This stems from the common belief that the place of one s origin is the place one should know best However this easy version of belonging is complicated by increasing rates of global migration For Yin Xzi Ho the phenomenon of belonging is one she has navigated for most of her life Growing up she has travelled between Malaysia and China while being educated at an American international school She has spent years unlearning the notion that her identity is based on what she is not i e not Asian enough for her home country not culturally White enough for her schools in order to define for herself where she belongs Rooted in feminist and human geography as well as cultural anthropology and sociology Home Is Here is a moving collection of poetry and prose filled with delicious food wondrous sights lasting friendships and immense wisdom Yin Xzi Ho takes us on a journey through China Malaysia Canada Bhutan

Myanmar and Australia as she discovers what it means to be home and what it feels like to belong Every Grain of Rice Fuchsia Dunlop, 2019-11-14 Fuchsia Dunlop trained as a chef at China's leading cooking school and is internationally renowned for her delicious recipes and brilliant writing about Chinese food. Every Grain of Rice is inspired by the healthy and vibrant home cooking of southern China in which meat and fish are enjoyed in moderation but vegetables play the starring role. Try your hand at blanched choy sum with sizzling oil, Hangzhou broad beans with ham, poached old woman's beancurd or steamed chicken with shiitake mushrooms or if you've ever in need of a quick fix, Fuchsia's emergency late night noodles. Many of the recipes require few ingredients and are startlingly easy to make. The book includes a comprehensive introduction to the key seasonings and techniques of the Chinese kitchen as well as the magic ingredients that can transform modest vegetarian ingredients into wonderful delicacies. With stunning photography and clear instructions, this is an essential volume for beginners and connoisseurs alike. The Encyclopedia of Desserts The Coastal Kitchen, 2024-07-09 Coconut chocolate, vanilla, berry, caramel, cream, whatever you're craving.
