Tasty The Art And Science Of What We Eat:

Tasty John McQuaid, 2015-01-13 Reporting from kitchens supermarkets farms restaurants huge food corporations and science labs Pulitzer Prize winning journalist John McQuaid tells the story of the still emerging concept of flavor and how our sense of taste will evolve in the coming decades Tasty explains the scientific research taking place on multiple fronts how genes shape our tastes how hidden taste perceptions weave their way into every organ and system in the body how the mind assembles flavors from the five senses and signals from the body's metabolic systems the quest to understand why sweetness tastes good and its dangerous addictive properties why something disgusts one person and delights another and what today's obsessions with extreme tastes tell us about the brain COVER The Aesthetics of Food Kevin W. Sweeney, 2017-12-29 The Aesthetics of Food sets out the continuing philosophical debate about the aesthetic nature of food The debate begins with Plato's claim that only objects of sight and hearing could be beautiful consequently food as something we smell and taste could not be beautiful Plato's sceptical position has been both supported and opposed in one form or another throughout the ages This book demonstrates how the current debate has evolved and critically assesses that debate showing how it has been influenced by the changing nature of critical theory and changes in art historical paradigms Expressionism Modernism and Post modernism as well as by recent advances in neuroscience It also traces changes in our understanding of the sensory experience of food and drink from viewing taste as a simple single sense to current views on its complex multi sensory nature Particular attention is paid to recent philosophical discussion about wine whether an interest in a wine reflects only a subjective or personal preference or whether one can make objective judgments about the quality and merit of a wine Finally the book explores how the debate has been informed by changes in the cooking presenting and consuming of food for example by the appearance of the restaurant in the early nineteenth century as well as the rise of celebrity chefs

Routledge Handbook of Landscape and Food Joshua Zeunert, Tim Waterman, 2018-02-02 Since the turn of the millennium there has been a burgeoning interest in and literature of both landscape studies and food studies Landscape describes places as relationships and processes Landscapes create people's identities and guide their actions and their preferences while at the same time are shaped by the actions and forces of people Food as currency medium and sustenance is a fundamental part of those landscape relationships This volume brings together over fifty contributors from around the world in forty profoundly interdisciplinary chapters Chapter authors represent an astonishing range of disciplines from agronomy anthropology archaeology conservation countryside management cultural studies ecology ethics geography heritage studies landscape architecture landscape management and planning literature urban design and architecture Both food studies and landscape studies defy comprehension from the perspective of a single discipline and thus such a range is both necessary and enriching The Routledge Handbook of Landscape and Food is intended as a first port of call for scholars and researchers seeking to undertake new work at the many intersections of landscape and food Each chapter provides an authoritative overview a broad range of pertinent readings and references and seeks to identify areas where new research is needed though these may also be identified in the many fertile areas in which subjects and chapters overlap within the book

Schema Therapy for Eating Disorders Susan Simpson, Evelyn Smith, 2019-08-15 Options can be limited for those who do not respond to standard eating disorder treatments Schema therapy is one of the new exciting frontiers in the treatment of this clinical population offering a much needed model that integrates both developmental and deeper level personality factors Schema Therapy for Eating Disorders is the first book of its kind guiding clinicians to deliver the schema model to those with entrenched or enduring eating pathology and in turn encouraging further clinical research on this approach to treatment Written by an international team of leading schema therapy experts and with a foreword by Wendy Behary and Jeffrey Young this book draws on their clinical knowledge and research experience Comprehensive and practical this book introduces the rapidly growing evidence base for schema therapy outlines the application of this model across eating disorder diagnostic groups as well as individual and group modalities and explores practical considerations common challenges and the therapeutic process The book includes detailed case examples which provide a theoretical and practical basis for working with therapist client schema chemistry and transference and outlines methods of ensuring therapist self care in the face of difficult and often long term work Innovative and accessible this fresh look at the treatment of eating disorders will be an invaluable resource for clinicians in the field The Art of Environmental Law Benjamin J

Richardson, 2019-12-12 Environmental law has aesthetic dimensions Aesthetic values have shaped the making of environmental law and in turn such law governs many of our nature based sensory experiences Aesthetics is also integral to understanding the very fabric of environmental law in its institutions procedures and discourses The Art of Environmental Law the first book of its kind brings new insights into the importance of aesthetic issues in a variety of domains of environmental governance around the world from climate change to biodiversity conservation It also argues for aesthetics and relatedly the arts to be taken more seriously in the practice of environmental law so as to improve our emotional and ethical capacities to address the upheavals of the Anthropocene The Cultural Politics of Food, Taste, and Identity Steffan Igor Ayora-Diaz, 2021-04-08 The Cultural Politics of Food Taste and Identity examines the social cultural and political processes that shape the experience of taste The book positions flavor as involving all the senses and describes the multiple ways in which taste becomes tied to local translocal glocal and cosmopolitan politics of identity Global case studies are included from Japan China India Belize Chile Guatemala the United States France Italy Poland and Spain Chapters examine local responses to industrialized food and the heritage industry and look at how professional culinary practice has become foundational for local identities The book also discusses the unfolding construction of local taste in the context of sociocultural developments and addresses how cultural political divides are created between meat consumption and vegetarianism innovation and tradition heritage and social class popular food and authenticity and street and restaurant food

In addition contributors discuss how different food products such as kimchi quinoa and Soylent have entered the international market of industrial and heritage foods connecting different places and shaping taste and political identities

In Defense of Processed Food Robert L. Shewfelt, 2016-11-23 It has become popular to blame the American obesity epidemic and many other health related problems on processed food Many of these criticisms are valid for some processed food items but many statements are overgeneralizations that unfairly target a wide range products that contribute to our health and well being In addition many of the proposed dangers allegedly posed by eating processed food are exaggerations based on highly selective views of experimental studies We crave simple answers to our questions about food but the science behind the proclamations of food pundits is not nearly as clear as they would have you believe This book presents a more nuanced view of the benefits and limitations of food processing and exposes some of the tricks both Big Food and its critics use to manipulate us to adopt their point of view Food is a source of enjoyment a part of our cultural heritage a vital ingredient in maintaining health and an expression of personal choice We need to make those choices based on credible information and not be beguiled by the sophisticated marketing tools of Big Food nor the ideological appeals and gut feelings of self appointed food gurus who have little or no background in nutrition

Seeds: Proceedings of the Oxford Symposium on Food and Cookery 2018 Mark McWilliams, 2019-07-01 This edited collection contains papers presented on the theme of Seeds at the 2018 Oxford Food Symposium Thirty six articles by forty one authors are included

Life in Five Senses Gretchen Rubin, 2023-04-18 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER The author of The Happiness Project discovers a surprising path to a life of more energy creativity luck and love by tuning in to the five senses Life in Five Senses invites us into the seismic shift toward a life grounded in sensation vitality and innate intelligence GLENNON DOYLE author of Untamed An inspiring and practical guide to living in the moment SUSAN CAIN author of Bittersweet and Quiet For more than a decade Gretchen Rubin had been studying happiness and human nature Then one day a visit to her eye doctor made her realize that she d been overlooking a key element of happiness her five senses She d spent so much time stuck in her head that she d allowed the vital sensations of life to slip away unnoticed This epiphany lifted her from a state of foggy preoccupation into a world invigorated by seeing hearing smelling tasting and touching In this journey of self experimentation Rubin explores the mysteries and joys of the five senses as a path to a happier more mindful life Drawing on cutting edge science philosophy literature and her own efforts to practice what she learns she investigates the profound power of tuning in to the physical world From the simple pleasures of appreciating the magic of ketchup and adding favorite songs to a playlist to more adventurous efforts like creating a daily ritual of visiting the Metropolitan Museum of Art and attending a flavor university Rubin shows us how to experience each day with depth delight and connection In the rush of daily life she finds our five senses offer us immediate sustainable ways to cheer up calm down and engage the world around us as well as ways to glimpse the soul and touch the transcendent Life in Five Senses is an absorbing layered story of

discovery filled with profound insights and practical suggestions about how to heighten our senses and use our powers of perception to live fuller richer lives and ultimately how to move through the world with more vitality and love Lived Culture and Psychology: Sharedness and Normativity as Discursive, Embodied and Affective Engagements with the World in Social Interaction Carolin Demuth,Pirkko Raudaskoski,Sanna Raudaskoski,2020-06-10 This eBook is a collection of articles from a Frontiers Research Topic Frontiers Research Topics are very popular trademarks of the Frontiers Journals Series they are collections of at least ten articles all centered on a particular subject With their unique mix of varied contributions from Original Research to Review Articles Frontiers Research Topics unify the most influential researchers the latest key findings and historical advances in a hot research area Find out more on how to host your own Frontiers Research Topic or contribute to one as an author by contacting the Frontiers Editorial Office frontiersin.org about contact Just Eat Barry Estabrook,2021-02-02 The New York Times bestselling author of Tomatoland test drives the most popular diets of our time investigating the diet gurus contradictory advice and science behind the programs to reveal how we should and shouldn't be dieting Essential reading This will completely change your ideas about what you should be eating Ruth Reichl author of Save Me the Plums Investigative journalist Barry Estabrook was often on the receiving end of his doctor's scowl Realizing he had two options take more medication or lose weight Estabrook chose the latter but was paralyzed by the options Which diet would keep the weight off What program could he maintain over time What diet works best or even at all Over the course of three years Estabrook tried the regimens behind the most popular diets of the past forty years from paleo keto gluten free and veganism to the Master Cleanse Whole30 Atkins Weight Watchers examining the people claims and science behind the fads all while recording his mental and physical experience of following each one Along the way he discovered that all the branded programs are derived from just three diets There are effective scientifically valid takeaways to be cherry picked and the rest is just marketing Perhaps most alarming Estabrook uncovered how short term weight loss can do long term health damage that may go undetected for years Estabrook contextualizes his reporting with an analysis of our culture's bizarre dieting history dating back to the late 1800s to create a thorough and thoroughly entertaining look at what specific diets do to our bodies why some are more effective than others and why our relationship with food is so fraught Estabrook's account is a relatable pragmatic look into the ways we try to improve our health through dieting revealing the answer may be to just eat The Evolution of Agricultural Technology Paula Marie,2018-07-15 This book chronicles how since the Neolithic era of the Stone Age agricultural tools evolved from pointed digging sticks to electron microscopes Weeds evolved into wheat carrots and more as humans selected and designed foods People farmed sustainably since the last Ice Age with fire and fish traps and more recently agriculture has evolved to produce more for a growing worldwide population Learning about problems from the past and the future that agricultural technology is meant to solve will help readers understand how applying critical thinking can change the world Taste, Politics, and Identities in Mexican Food Steffan Igor

Ayora-Diaz,2019-02-07 This book examines the history archaeology and anthropology of Mexican taste Contributors analyze how the contemporary identity of Mexican food has been created and formed through concepts of taste and how this national identity is adapted and moulded through change and migration wing on case studies with a focus on Mexico but also including Israel and the United States the contributors examine how local and national identities the global market of gastronomic tourism and historic transformations in trade production the kitchen space and appliances shape the taste of Mexican food and drink Chapters include an exploration of the popularity of Mexican beer in the United States by Jeffrey M Pilcher an examination of the experience of eating chapulines in Oaxaca by Paulette Schuster and Jeffrey H Cohen an investigation into transformations of contemporary Yucatecan gastronomy by Steffan Igor Ayora Diaz and an afterword from Richard Wilk Together the contributors demonstrate how taste itself is shaped through a history of social and cultural practices

John Dewey and Confucian Thought Jim Behuniak,2019-07-24 Assesses John Dewey s visit to China in 1919 21 as an intra cultural episode and promotes Chinese natural philosophy as a philosophical context in which to understand the connections between Dewey s philosophy and early Confucian thinking In this conclusion to his two volume series Jim Behuniak builds upon the groundbreaking work begun in John Dewey and Daoist Thought in arguing that Chinese natural philosophy is the proper hermeneutical context in which to understand early Confucianism First he traces Dewey s late period cultural turn in more detail and then proceeds to assess Dewey s visit to China in 1919 21 as a multifaceted intra cultural episode one that includes not only what Dewey taught his Chinese audiences but also what he learned in China and what we stand to learn from this encounter today Dewey in China provides an opportunity to continue establishing specific philosophical relationships between Dewey and Confucian thought for the purpose of getting ourselves back in gear with contemporary thinking in the social and natural sciences To this end Behuniak critically assesses readings of early Chinese thought reliant on outdated Greek medieval assumptions paying particular attention to readings of early Confucianism that rely heavily on Western virtue ethics such as the Heaven s plan reading Topics covered include education tradition ethics the family human nature and religiousness thus engaging Dewey with themes generally associated with Confucian thought Attacking the distinction of Eastern versus Western philosophical cultures these volumes create a detailed intra cultural Deweyan Chinese thought on many levels at once Using Dewey to reinterpret the Daoist and Confucian traditions from their sources Behuniak weaves an intra cultural philosophical trajectory that stretches from the sixth century BCE China to Columbia University in New York City The result is one of the philosophical masterpieces of our time Robert Cummings Neville Professor Emeritus of Philosophy Religion and Theology Boston University

Sensing Machines Chris Salter,2022-04-19 How we are tracked surveilled tantalized and seduced by machines ranging from smart watches and Roombas to immersive art installations Sensing machines are everywhere in our world As we move through the day electronic sensors and computers adjust our thermostats guide our Roombas count our steps change the orientation of an image when we rotate our phones There are more of these electronic devices in the world than there are people in 2020 thirty to fifty billion of them versus 7.8 billion people with more than a trillion expected in the next decade In Sensing Machines Chris Salter examines how we are tracked surveilled tantalized and seduced by machines ranging from smart watches and mood trackers to massive immersive art installations Salter an artist scholar who has worked with sensors and computers for more than twenty years explains that the quantification of bodies senses and experience did not begin with the surveillance capitalism practiced by Facebook Amazon Netflix and Google but can be traced back to mathematical and statistical techniques of the nineteenth century He describes the emergence of the sensed self investigating how sensor technology has been deployed in music and gaming programmable and immersive art environments driving and even eating with e tongues and e noses that can taste and smell for us Sensing technology turns our experience into data but Salter's story isn't just about what these machines want from us but what we want from them new sensations the thrill of the uncanny and magic that will transport us from our daily grind

Meat Me Halfway Brian Kateman, 2022-04-22 We know that eating animals is bad for the planet and bad for our health and yet we do it anyway Ask anyone in the plant based movement and the solution seems obvious Stop eating meat But for many people that stark solution is neither appealing nor practical In Meat Me Halfway author and founder of the reducetarian movement Brian Kateman puts forth a realistic and balanced goal mindfully reduce your meat consumption It might seem strange for a leader of the plant based movement to say but meat is here to stay The question is not how to ween society off meat but how to make meat more healthy more humane and more sustainable In this book Kateman answers the question that has plagued vegans for years why are we so resistant to changing the way we eat and what can we do about it Exploring our historical relationship with meat from the domestication of animals to the early industrialization of meatpacking to the advent of the one stop grocery store the science of taste and the laws that impact our access to food Meat Me Halfway reveals how humans have evolved as meat eaters Featuring interviews with pioneers in the science of meat alternatives investigations into new types of farming designed to lessen environmental impact and innovations in ethical and sustainable agriculture this down to earth book shows that we all can change the way we create and consume food

The Devil's Dinner Stuart Walton, 2018-10-09 Stuart Walton's The Devil's Dinner looks at the history of hot peppers their culinary uses through the ages and the significance of spicy food in an increasingly homogenous world The Devil's Dinner is the first authoritative history of chili peppers There are countless books on cooking with chilies but no book goes into depth about the biological gastronomical and cultural impact this forbidden fruit has had upon people all over the world The story has been too hot to handle A billion dollar industry hot peppers are especially popular in the United States where a superhot movement is on the rise Hot peppers started out in Mexico and South America came to Europe with returning Spanish travelers lit up Iberian cuisine with piri piri and pimientos continued along eastern trade routes boosted mustard and pepper in cuisines of the Indian subcontinent then took overland routes to central Europe in the paprika of Hungarian and Austrian dumplings devilled this and devilled that they've been everywhere The Devil's Dinner tells the history of hot peppers and captures the rise of the superhot movement

Multisensory Flavor Perception Betina Piqueras-Fiszman, Charles Spence, 2016-04-14 Multisensory Flavor Perception From Fundamental Neuroscience Through to the Marketplace provides state of the art coverage of the latest insights from the rapidly expanding world of multisensory flavor research The book highlights the various types of crossmodal interactions such as sound and taste and vision and taste showing their impact on sensory and hedonic perception along with their consumption in the context of food and drink The chapters in this edited volume review the existing literature also explaining the underlying neural and psychological mechanisms which lead to crossmodal perception of flavor The book brings together research which has not been presented before making it the first book in the market to cover the literature of multisensory flavor perception by incorporating the latest in psychophysics and neuroscience Authored by top academics and world leaders in the field Takes readers on a journey from the neurological underpinnings of multisensory flavor perception then presenting insights that can be used by food companies to create better flavor sensations for consumers Offers a wide perspective on multisensory flavor perception an area of rapidly expanding knowledge

Building a Sensory Program Pat Fahey, 2023-03-26 While most breweries know that a sensory program can help them consistently deliver quality beer shockingly few perform regular standardized tasting of their products Many cite roadblocks such as lack of resources time or knowledge But ignoring routine sensory evaluation can have dangerous consequences from customer complaints to costly recalls Fortunately establishing a results oriented sensory program does not have to be complicated and is entirely within your reach In Building a Sensory Program sensory expert Pat Fahey offers you the tools to get your own sensory program off the ground in hours rather than months Inside you'll find everything a panel leader needs to know to get started from tasting techniques to training protocols for new panelists Learn how you can use different sensory tests to solve important problems from monitoring beer for release to developing new brands By building an intelligently designed sensory program tailored to the needs of your brewery you will ensure that your beer tastes the way it should time after time
