Professor of Social Sciences and History Roosevelt University, 2009-02-25 Today technology has created a world of dazzling progress growing disparities of wealth and poverty and looming threats to the environment Technology A World History offers an illuminating backdrop to our present moment a brilliant history of invention around the globe Historian Daniel R. Headrick ranges from the Stone Age and the beginnings of agriculture to the Industrial Revolution and the electronic revolution of the recent past In tracing the growing power of humans over nature through increasingly powerful innovations he compares the evolution of technology in different parts of the world providing a much broader account than is found in other histories of technology We also discover how small changes sometimes have dramatic results how for instance the stirrup revolutionized war and gave the Mongols a deadly advantage over the Chinese And how the nailed horseshoe was a pivotal breakthrough for western farmers Enlivened with many illustrations Technology offers a fascinating look at the spread of inventions around the world both as boons for humanity and as weapons of destruction The Human Record: To 1700 Alfred J. Wiesner, Merry E. Wiesner-Hanks, 2005-06-23 Cultural life flowered from the mid fifteenth century in the Italian city states many of which profited from the new trading opportunities that growing world networks permitted Contact among regions of the world expanded bringing new ideas and prompting an appreciation of arts and letters not only of the present but of the past In Italy this cultural flowering was known at first as the renaissance of arts and letters soon shortened to just

Renaissance to accommodate cultural ingredients that came from beyond Europe Italian and northern European cultural expansion benefited from similar retrieval of ancient knowledge in the Islamic world and East Asia Like the Italians the Chinese had grown even wealthier from the extensive links to global commerce provided by the Mongol Empire but once thrown off their cultural life flourished under the Ming Cultural knowledge and the arts spread across Asia and into Europe As part of state building the Ming nourished commerce but also rejected the cosmopolitan Buddhist legacy that arrived from central and south Asia To strengthen dynastic Chinese rule the Ming challenged Buddhism with a revival of age old concern for the Confucian values that had languished under the Mongols Foremost among these new Confucians was Wu Yube so expert in his teachings that he attracted a wide coterie of disciples In India Nanak an educated employee of an Afghan prince sparked the founding of Sikhism A similar search for reviving fundamental religious values occurred in Europe where Martin Luther challenged the practices of the Catholic church ushering in Protestantism Religious reform and resistance to it were closely connected to the state building efforts of enterprising monarchs such as Henry VIII of England India likewise experienced a fervent movement to revive pure ancient religious practices Fourteenth and fifteenth century global trade and long distance ventures such as those made by the Ming and then by the Portuguese further inspired and advanced these worldwide cultural and political developments A brisk Indian Ocean trade flourished Economic change ensued with the arrival of New World silver on the global market The advance of printing not only furthered the cause of religious reform and state building globally it also helped globalize knowledge and intellectual experimentation People of great power and those of more limited means came to live their lives differently because of this expanding web of shared knowledge and trade Cities flourished the enslavement of native Americans came to replace their use as human sacrifices and diseases migrated at a more rapid pace and greater devastation than perhaps ever before

Landed estates sh en produced much of the material wealth supporting all levels of late classical and medieval Japanese society During the tenth through sixteenth centuries estates served as sites of de facto government trade network nodes developing agricultural technology and centers of religious practice and ritual Although mostly farmland many yielded nonagricultural products including lumber salt fish and silk and provided livelihoods for craftsmen seafarers peddlers and performers as well as for cultivators By the twelfth century an estate system permeated much of the Japanese archipelago This volume examines the system from three perspectives the land itself the power derived from and exerted over the land and the religion institutions and individuals that were involved in landholding practices Chapters by Japanese and Western scholars explore how the estate system arose developed and eventually collapsed Several investigate a single estate or focus on agricultural techniques while others survey estates in broad contexts such as economic change and maritime trade Other chapters look at how we learn about estates by inspecting documents landscape features archaeological remains and extant buildings and images how representatives of every social stratum worked together to make the land productive and conversely how cooperative arrangements failed and rivals battled one another making conflict as well as collaboration a hallmark of the system On a more personal level we follow the monk Ch gen's restoration of be Estate and his installation of a famous Amida triad in a temple he built on the premises the strategies of royal ladies J saimon in Hachij in and K kamon in as they strove to keep their landholdings viable and the murder of estate official Gor zaemon whose own neighbors killed him as a result of a much larger dispute between two powerful warrior families Land Power and the Sacred represents a significant expansion and revision of our knowledge of medieval Japanese estates A range of readers will welcome the primary source research and comparative perspectives it offers those who do not specialize in Japanese medieval history but recognize the value of teaching the history of estates will find a chapter devoted to the topic invaluable Contributors and translators Kristina Buhrma Michelle Damian David Eason Sakurai Eiji translated by Ethan Segal Philip Garrett Janet R Goodwin Yoshiko Kainuma Rieko Kamei Dyche Sachiko Kawai Hirota K ji translated by Janet R Goodwin yama Ky hei translated by Janet R Goodwin Nagamura Makoto translated by Janet R Goodwin End Motoo translated by Janet R Goodwin Joan R Piggott Ethan Segal Dan Sherer Kimura Shigemitsu translated by Kristina Buhrman Noda Taiz translated by David Eason Nishida Takeshi translated by Michelle Damian Ecocide Franz Brosch, 2002-09-20 We live in an age of
