Law Meets Literature Gretchen Oltman,Johnna L. Graff,Cynthia Wood Maddux,2015-12-23 This text was developed by three experienced English teachers who also happen to be lawyers The law provides a new dimension to popular literary themes like justice fairness and equality These legal documents will enhance the discussion in the English Language Arts classroom With the Common Core State Standards emphasis on incorporating primary documents of historical and literary significance literature teachers have more opportunity than ever to use case law and other legal documents as texts Each thematic unit includes essential questions familiar fiction and nonfiction selections with connections to the theme teaching notes and relevant cases with before during and after discussion questions The text demonstrates not only the importance of the thoughtful selection of legal documents to meet state and national standards but also includes new approaches to classic texts With an easily accessible format teachers will overcome any intimidation of case law and embrace the use of legal documents to enhance the literature in a new insightful way A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and

Dissertations, Ninth Edition Kate L. Turabian, 2018-04-27 When Kate L. Turabian first put her famous guidelines to paper she could hardly have imagined the world in which today's students would be conducting research. Yet while the ways in which we research and compose papers may have changed, the fundamentals remain the same: writers need to have a strong research question, construct an evidence-based argument, cite their sources, and structure their work in a logical way. A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, also known as Turabian, remains one of the most popular books for writers because of its timeless focus on achieving these goals. This new edition filters decades of expertise into modern standards. While previous editions incorporated digital forms of research and writing, this edition goes even further to build information literacy, recognizing that most students will be doing their work largely or entirely online and on screens. Chapters include updated advice on finding, evaluating, and citing a wide range of digital sources and also recognize the evolving use of software for citation management, graphics, and paper format and submission. The ninth edition is fully aligned with the recently released Chicago Manual of Style 17th edition as well as with the latest edition of The Craft of Research. Teachers and users of the previous editions will recognize the familiar three-part structure. Part 1 covers every step of the research and writing process, including drafting and revising. Part 2 offers a comprehensive guide to Chicago's two methods of source citation: notes/bibliography and author-date. Part 3 gets into matters of editorial style and the correct way to present quotations and visual material. A Manual for Writers also covers an issue familiar to writers of all levels: how to conquer the fear of tackling a major writing project. Through eight decades and millions of copies, A Manual for Writers has helped generations shape their ideas into compelling research papers. This new edition will continue to be the gold standard for college and graduate students in virtually all academic disciplines. Bestselling, trusted, and time-tested advice for writing research papers. The best interpretation of Chicago style for higher education students and researchers. Definitive, clear, and easy to read, with plenty of examples. Shows how to compose a strong research question, construct an evidence-based argument, cite sources, and structure work in a logical way. Essential for anyone interested in learning about research. Everything any student or teacher needs to know concerning paper writing.
