Too Much World The Films Of Hito Steyerl:

Hito Steyerl Hito Steyerl, 2014 Hito Steyerl is rightly considered one of the most exciting artists working today who speculates on the impact of the Internet and digitization on the fabric of our everyday lives Her films and writings offer an astute provocative and often funny analysis of the dizzying speed with which images and data are reconfigured altered and dispersed many times over accelerating into infinity or crashing into oblivion Published to accompany the artist's survey exhibitions at the Van Abbemuseum Eindhoven and the Institute of Modern Art Brisbane this book gathers a series of essays and close readings of Steyerl's films from the past ten years Newly commissioned texts by Sven Lüticken Karen Archey Ana Teixeira Pinto and Nick Aikens alongside writings by Thomas Elsaesser Pablo Lafuente David Riff and Steyerl are spliced with over one hundred pages of color stills This publication is a charged slideshow of the artist's extraordinary investigations into the status circulation and materiality of images

Between Film, Video, and the Digital Jihoon Kim, 2016-07-14 Encompassing experimental film and video essay film gallery based installation art and digital art Jihoon Kim establishes the concept of hybrid moving images as an array of impure images shaped by the encounters and negotiations between different media while also using it to explore various theoretical issues such as stillness and movement indexicality abstraction materiality afterlives of the celluloid cinema archive memory apparatus and the concept of medium as such Grounding its study in interdisciplinary framework of film studies media studies and contemporary art criticism Between Film Video and the Digital offers a fresh insight on the post media conditions of film and video under the pervasive influences of digital technologies as well as on the crucial roles of media hybridity in the creative processes of giving birth to the emerging forms of the moving image Incorporating in depth readings of recent works by more than thirty artists and filmmakers including Jim Campbell Bill Viola Sam Taylor Johnson David Claerbout Fiona Tan Takeshi Murata Jennifer West Ken Jacobs Christoph Girardet and Matthias Müller Hito Steyerl Lynne Sachs Harun Farocki Doug Aitken Douglas Gordon Stan Douglas Candice Breitz among others the book is the essential scholarly monograph for understanding how digital technologies simultaneously depend on and differ from previous time based media and how this juncture of similarities and differences signals a new regime of the art of the moving image

On Women's Films Ivone Margulies, Jeremi Szaniawski, 2019-07-25

On Women's Films looks at contemporary and classic films from emerging and established makers such as Maria Augusta Ramos Xiaolu Guo Valérie Massadian Lynne Ramsay Lucrecia Martel Rakhshan Bani Etemad Chantal Akerman or Claire Denis The collection is also tuned to the continued provocation of feminist cinema landmarks such as Chick Strand's Soft Fiction Barbara Loden's Wanda Valie Export's Invisible Adversaries Cecilia Mangini's Essere donna Attentive to minor moments to the pauses and the charge and forms bodies adopt through cinema the contributors suggest the capacity of women's films to embrace shape and question the world

Annihilating Noise Paul Hegarty, 2020-12-10 Noise has become a model of cultural and theoretical thinking over the last two decades Following Hegarty's influential 2007 book Noise Music

Annihilating Noise discusses in sixteen essays how noise offers a way of thinking about critical resistance disruptive creativity and a complex yet enticing way of understanding the unexpected the dissonant the unfamiliar It presents noise as a negativity with no fixed identity that can only be defined in connection and opposition to meaning and order This book reaches beyond experimental music and considers noise as an idea and practice within a wide range of frameworks including social ecological and philosophical perspectives It introduces the ways in which the disruptive implications of noise impact our ways of thinking acting and organizing in the world and applies it to 21st century concerns and today's technological ecology

The Webcam as an Emerging Cinematic Medium Paula Albuquerque, 2025-10-01 All the world's a stage literally so given the ubiquitous presence of webcams recording daily life in cities This footage allegedly documentary recreates cities as cinematic environments as people interact with the multitudes of cameras and screens around them Paula Albuquerque's original research and experimental films presented in this groundbreaking book expose fictionalising elements in archival webcams and explore video surveillance as an urban condition that influences both perceptions of the past and visions of the future

Surpassing Modernity Andrew McNamara, 2018-11-29 For the past thirty to forty years cultural analysis has focused on developing terms to explain the surpassing of modernity Discussion is stranded in an impasse between those who view the term modernity with automatic disdain as deterministic Eurocentric or imperialistic and a booming interest that is renewing the study of modernism Another dilemma is that the urge to move away from or beyond modernity arises because it is viewed as difficult even unsavoury Yet there has always been a view of modernity as somehow difficult to live with and that has been said by figures we regard today as typical modernists McNamara argues in this book that it is time to forget the quest to surpass modernity Instead we should re-examine a legacy that continues to inform our artistic conceptions our political debates our critical justifications even if that legacy is baffling and contradictory We may find it difficult to live with but without recourse to this legacy our critical cultural ambitions would remain seriously diminished How do we explain the culture we live in today And how do we as citizens make sense of it This book suggests these questions have become increasingly difficult to answer

Mass Effect Lauren Cornell, Ed Halter, 2015-10-23 Essays discussions and image portfolios map the evolution of art forms engaged with the Internet Since the turn of the millennium the Internet has evolved from what was merely a new medium to a true mass medium with a deeper and wider cultural reach greater opportunities for distribution and collaboration and more complex corporate and political realities Mapping a loosely chronological series of formative arguments developments and happenings Mass Effect provides an essential guide to understanding the dynamic and ongoing relationship between art and new technologies Mass Effect brings together nearly forty contributions including newly commissioned essays and reprints image portfolios and transcribed discussion panels and lectures that offer insights and reflections from a wide range of artists curators art historians and bloggers Among the topics examined are the use of commercial platforms for art practice what art means in an age of increasing surveillance and Research in the Creative and Media Arts Desmond Bell, 2019-04-01 In Research in the Creative and Media Arts Desmond Bell looks at contemporary art and design practice arguing that research activity is now a vital part of the creative dynamic Today creative arts and media students are expected to develop a range of research competencies and critical capacities in their creative project work This book plots the basis for a research culture in the creative and media arts It provides an illuminating genealogy of artistic research revealing the intimate connections between art and science over the centuries and identifying some of the founding figures of practice based artistic research Bell explores the research that artists undertake through a number of case studies talking to a range of contemporary artists and media makers about their work and the role research plays in this He also traces the dialogues between art practice and a range of other humanity disciplines such as history anthropology and critical theory His analysis reveals how contemporary art practice is now so locked into a set of interlocutions about process and purpose that it increasingly resembles a research practice in and of itself Research in the Creative and Media Arts is a comprehensive overview of the relationship between research and practice that is ideal for undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as researchers in the fields of art and design art history and visual culture

Retracing Political Dimensions Oliver Grau, Inge Hinterwaldner, 2020-11-23 At the beginning of the 21st century new forms and dynamics of interplay are constituted at the interfaces of media art and politics Current challenges in society and ecology like climate surveillance virtualization of the global financial markets are characterized by hybrid and subtle technologies They are ubiquitous turn out to be increasingly complex and act invasively New media art utilizes its broad range of expression in order to tackle the most urgent topics through multi sensorial participatory and activist approaches This volume shows how media artists address with a political lens the core of these developments critically and productively With contributions by Elisa Arca Andr s Burbano Derek Curry Yael Eylat Van Essen Mathias Fuchs Jennifer Gradecki Sabine Himmelsbach Ingrid Hoelzl Katja Kwastek Jos Carlos Mari tegui Gerald Nestler Randall Packer Viola R hse Chris Salter The Invention of the American Desert Lyle Massey,James Nisbet,2021-11-02 Introduction Lyle Massey and James Nisbet Desolate dreams Joseph Masco Air wind breath life desertification and Will Wilson s AIR Auto Immune Response Jessica L Horton Notes from bioteknika Albert Narath Troglodyte modernists Lyle Massey Explosive modernism Hiram Hudson Benedict s Bouldereign and Zabriskie Point at 50 Edward Dimendberg Point Omega Omega Point desert In three parts Stefanie Sobelle The desert in fine grain Emily Eliza Scott The desert as black mythology Bridget R Cooks On the recalcitrance of the desert island by way of Andrea Zittel s A Z West James Nisbet Four theses for the coming deserts Hans Baumann and Karen Pinkus Asians on Demand Feng-Mei Heberer,2023-08-29 Does media representation advance racial justice While the past decade has witnessed a push for increased diversity in visual media Asians on Demand grapples with the pressing question of whether representation is enough to advance racial justice Surveying a contemporary cutting edge archive of video works from the Asian diaspora in North America Europe and East Asia this book uncovers the ways that diasporic artists challenge the narrow and damaging conceptions of Asian identity pervading mainstream media Through an engagement with grassroots activist documentaries experimental video diaries by undocumented and migrant workers and works by high profile media artists such as Hito Steyerl and Ming Wong Feng Mei Heberer showcases contemporary video productions that trouble the mainstream culture industry s insistence on portraying ethnic Asians as congenial to dominant neoliberal values Undermining the demands placed on Asian subjects to exemplify institutional diversity and individual exceptionalism this book provides a critical and nuanced set of alternatives to the easily digestible forms generated by online streaming culture and multicultural lip service more broadly Employing feminist racial and queer critiques of the contemporary media landscape Asians on Demand highlights how the dynamics of Asian representation play out differently in Germany the United States Taiwan and Spain Rather than accepting the notion that inclusion requires an uncomplicated set of appearances the works explored in this volume spotlight a staunch resistance to formulating racial identity as an instantly accessible consumer product Slow Painting Helen Westgeest,2020-10-29 The abundance of images in our everyday lives and the speed at which they are consumed seems to have left us unable to critique them To rectify this situation artists such as Daniel Richter Jaune Quick to See Smith and Artur Zmijewski have demonstrated that painting is brilliantly equipped to produce slow images that enable encourage and reward reflection In this book Helen Westgeest attempts to understand how various forms of slow painting can be used as tools to interrogate the visual mediations we encounter daily Painting was expected to disappear in the digital age but through interactive painting performances and painting like manipulated photographs and videos Westgeest shows how photography video and new media art have themselves developed the visual strategies that painting had already mastered Moreover the fleeting nature of digital mass media appears to have unlocked a desire for more physically stable and enduring pictures like paintings Slow Painting charts how in a world where the constant quest for speed can leave us exhausted the appeal of this slower medium has only grown The Financial Image Alasdair King,2023-12-28 The Financial Image Finance Philosophy and Contemporary Film draws on a broad range of narrative feature films documentaries and moving image installations in the US Europe and Asia Using frameworks from contemporary philosophy and critical finance studies the book explores how contemporary cinema has registered recent financial and economic issues The book focuses on how filmmakers have found formal means to explore celebrate and critique the increasingly important role that the financial sector plays in shaping global economic political ethical and social life Postdigital Aesthetics D.
