hospitalisation His perspective raises interesting questions about YA fiction how much darkness is allowed before you are considered a bad influence An original and moving look by award winning writer Alice Pung at one of her biggest influences the much loved and hugely successful writer John Marsden In the Writers on Writers series leading authors reflect on an Australian writer who has inspired and fascinated them Provocative and crisp these books start a fresh conversation between past and present shed new light on the craft of writing and introduce some intriguing and talented authors and their work Published by Black Inc in association with the University of Melbourne and State Library Victoria Alice Pung is an award winning writer editor teacher and lawyer based in Melbourne She is the bestselling author of Unpolished Gem and Her Father's Daughter and the editor of the anthologies Growing Up Asian in Australia and My First Lesson Her first novel Laurinda won the Ethel Turner Prize at the 2016 NSW Premier's Literary Awards

Female Rebellion in Young Adult Dystopian Fiction Sara K. Day, Miranda A. Green-Barteet, Amy L. Montz, 2016-04-15 Responding to the increasingly powerful presence of dystopian literature for young adults this volume focuses on novels featuring a female protagonist who contends with societal and governmental threats at the same time that she is navigating the treacherous waters of young adulthood The contributors relate the liminal nature of the female protagonist to liminality as a unifying feature of dystopian literature literature for and about young women and cultural expectations of adolescent womanhood Divided into three sections the collection investigates cultural assumptions and expectations of adolescent women considers the various means of resistance and rebellion made available to and explored by female protagonists and examines how the adolescent female protagonist is situated with respect to the groups and environments that surround her In a series of thought provoking essays on a wide range of writers that includes Libba Bray Scott Westerfeld Tahereh Mafi Veronica Roth Marissa Meyer Ally Condie and Suzanne Collins the collection makes a convincing case for how this rebellious figure interrogates the competing constructions of adolescent womanhood in late twentieth and early twenty first century culture

Making Sense of the Bible Helen-Ann Hartley,2011-06-17 One of a series of 6 small books dealing in a short and accessible way with the key concerns for Christians Again and again we hear that such and such an opinion is not biblical implying that the Bible speaks with a unified voice on any matter With humour and examples drawn from art and life Helen Ann Hartley argues that our reading of this varied collection of writings has to be generous not exclusive To appreciate fully the Bible s richness and diversity we have to wrestle critically and creatively with themes that attract us and repel us Not only should we draw meaning from the Bible we must let our lives contribute meaning to the stories it tells engaging in conversation with those stories and allowing them to urge us into being to think speak and act Ultimately to make sense of the Bible we need to make sense of who we are in relationship to God The Great Big Book of Tomorrow Tom
