Na'im Akbar

*Given all of these odds;
given the almost impossible circumstances which we have faced;
given those barriers which would have devastated any other human breed a long time ago—
the simple question is:
Why are we still here anyway?*

Visions for Black Men raises issues which are not only important to black men but to all of us. How do we restore African manhood to those whom our society has not viewed as the chosen people? Discover the startling prediction of the mystical tradition of Ancient Africa—that the descendants of a once-great nation will rise again.

Na'im Akbar has been described by Essence magazine as "one of the world's preeminent African American psychologists and a pioneer in the development of an African-centered approach to modern psychology." His books and articles exploring the personal development of African Americans have led to numerous network television appearances, including "Phil Donahue," "Oprah Winfrey," "Gunsels," and "Tony Brown's Journal." Black Men on Race, Gender, and Sexuality Devon Carbado, 1999-07 A groundbreaking anthology of essays providing commentary on gender and sexuality inclusion in the antiracist movement In late 1995 the Million Man March drew hundreds of thousands of black men to Washington DC and seemed even to skeptics a powerful sign not only of black male solidarity but also of black racial solidarity Yet while generating a sense of community and common purpose the Million Man March with its deliberate exclusion of women and implicit rejection of black gay men also highlighted one of the central faultlines in African American politics the role of gender and sexuality in antiracist agenda In this groundbreaking anthology a companion to the highly successful Critical Race Feminism Devon Carbado changes the terms of the debate over racism gender and sexuality in black America The essays cover such topics as the legal construction of black male identity domestic abuse in the black community the enduring power of black machismo the politics of black male white female relationships racial essentialism the role of black men in black women's quest for racial equality and the heterosexist nature of black political engagement Featuring work by Cornel West Huey Newton Henry Louis Gates Jr A Leon Higginbotham Jr Houston Baker Marlon T Riggs Dwight McBride Michael Awkward Ishmael Reed Derrick Bell and many others Devon Carbado's anthology stakes out new territory in the American racial landscape Critical America A series edited by Richard Delgado and Jean Stephancic

Vaughans, Warren Spielberg, 2014-06-30 Drawing on personal insights and research based knowledge this important work facilitates understanding of the psychological struggles of young African American males and offers ameliorative strategies Despite examples set by successful black men in all walks of life the truth remains that a disproportionate number of black boys and young men underperform at school suffer from PTSD and too often find themselves on a pathway to jail The two volume The Psychology of Black Boys and Adolescents marks the first attempt to catalog the many psychological influences that can stack the deck against black male children and to suggest interventions Bringing together an expansive collection of new and classic research from a wide variety of disciplines this set sheds light on the complex circumstances faced by young black men in the United States Contributions by authors Kirkland Vaughans

Militant Visions Elizabeth Reich, 2016-08-01 Militant Visions examines how from the 1940s to the 1970s the cinematic figure of the black soldier helped change the ways American moviegoers saw black men for the first time presenting African Americans as vital and integrated members of the nation In the process Elizabeth Reich reveals how the image of the proud and powerful African American serviceman was crafted by an unexpected alliance of government propagandists civil rights activists and black filmmakers Contextualizing the figure in a genealogy of black radicalism and internationalism Reich shows the evolving images of black soldiers to be inherently transnational ones shaped by the displacements of diaspora Third World revolutionary philosophy and a legacy of black artistry and performance Offering a nuanced reading of a figure that was simultaneously conservative and radical Reich considers how the cinematic black soldier lent a human face to ongoing debates about racial integration black internationalism and American militarism Militant Visions thus not only presents a new history of how American cinema represented race but also demonstrates how film images helped to make history shaping the progress of the civil rights movement itself

African American Women and Sexuality in the Cinema Norma Manatu, 2014-01-10 The representation of African American women is an important issue in the overall study of how women are portrayed in film and has received serious attention in recent years Traditionally women of color particularly African American women have been at the margins of studies of women s on screen depictions or excluded altogether This work focuses exclusively on the sexual objectification of African American women in film from the 1980s to the early 2000s Critics of the negative sexual imagery have long speculated that control by African American filmmakers would change how African American women are depicted This work examines sixteen films made by males both white and black to see how the imagery might change with the race of the filmmaker Four dimensions are given special attention the diversity of the women s roles and relationships with men the sexual attitudes of the African American female characters their attitudes towards men and their nonverbal and verbal sexual behaviors This work also examines the role culture has played in perpetuating the images how film influences viewers perception of African American women and their sexuality and how the imagery polarizes women by functioning as a regulator of their sexual behaviors based on cultural definitions of the feminine      Veiled Visions David Fort Godshalk, 2006-05-18 In 1906 Atlanta after a summer of inflammatory headlines and accusations of black on white sexual assaults armed white mobs attacked African Americans resulting in at least twenty five black fatalities Atlanta's black residents fought back and repeatedly defended their neighborhoods from white raids Placing this four day riot in a broader narrative of twentieth century race relations in Atlanta in the South and in the United States David Fort Godshalk examines the riot's origins and how memories of this cataclysmic event shaped black and white social and political life for decades to come Nationally the riot radicalized many civil rights leaders encouraging W E B Du Bois's confrontationist stance and diminishing the accommodationist voice of Booker T Washington In Atlanta fears of continued disorder prompted white civic leaders to seek dialogue with black elites establishing a rare biracial tradition that convinced mainstream northern whites that racial reconciliation was possible in the South without national intervention Paired with black fears of renewed violence however this interracial cooperation exacerbated black social divisions and repeatedly undermined black social justice movements leaving the city among the most segregated and socially stratified in the nation Analyzing the interwoven struggles of men and women blacks and whites social outcasts and national powerbrokers Godshalk illuminates the possibilities and limits of racial understanding and social change in twentieth century America      Black Men Built the Capitol Jesse Holland, 2007-09-01 The first book of its kind with comprehensive up to date details Historic sites along the Mall such as the U S Capitol building the White House and the Lincoln Memorial are explored from an entirely new perspective in this book with never before told stories and statistics about the role of blacks in their creation This is an iconoclastic guide to Washington D C in that it shines a light on the African Americans who have not traditionally been properly credited for actually building important landmarks in the city New research by a top Washington journalist brings this information together in a powerful retelling of an important part of our country's history In addition the book includes sections devoted to specific monuments such as the African American Civil War Memorial the real Uncle Tom's cabin the Benjamin Banneker Overlook and Frederick Douglass Museum the Hall of Fame for Caring Americans and other existing statues memorials and monuments It also details the many other places being planned right now to house for the first time rich collections of black American history that have not previously been accessible to the public such as the soon to open Smithsonian Institution National Museum of African American History and Culture and the Martin Luther King Jr National Monument as well as others opening over the next decade This book will be a source of pride for African Americans who live in or come from the D C Maryland and Virginia area as well as for the 18 million annual African American visitors to our nation's capital Jesse J

Historical Encyclopedia is a first of its kind reference detailing developments in the growing field of men's studies. This up to date analytical review serves as a marker of how the field has evolved over the last decade especially since the 1993 publication of Anthony Rotundo's American Manhood. This seminal book opened new vistas for exploration and research into American History, society and culture. Weaving the fabric of American history, American Masculinities illustrates how American political leaders have often used the rhetoric of manliness to underscore the presumed moral righteousness and ostensibly protective purposes of their policies. Seeing U.S. history in terms of gender archetypes, readers will gain a richer and deeper understanding of America's democratic political system, domestic and foreign policies, and capitalist economic system as well as the private sphere of the home and domestic life. The contributors to American Masculinities share the assumption that men's lives have been grounded fundamentally in gender, that is, in their awareness of themselves as males. Their approach goes beyond scholarship which traditionally looks at men and women in terms of what they do and how they have influenced a given field or era. Rather, this important work delves into the psychological core of manhood which is shaped not only by biology but also by history, society and culture. Encapsulating the current state of scholarly interpretation within the field of Men's Studies, American Masculinities: A Historical Encyclopedia is designed to help students and scholars advance their studies, develop new questions for research, and stimulate new ways of exploring the history of American life.

A Gift Grows in the Ghetto Jay-Paul Michael Hinds, 2022-10-25. In his classic essay Of Our Spiritual Strivings, W. E. B. Du Bois asks how does it feel to be a problem? This question has become a means of diagnosing the lived experience of Black men, particularly in America's most neglected and feared environment, the ghetto. What is often overlooked, however, is the vital role that spirituality has in remedying the problem. A Gift Grows in the Ghetto examines how not being in relationship with one's gift can lead to feelings of despair, entrapment, and abandonment, all of which contribute to Black men feeling as though they are nothing more than a problem. By utilizing the biblical story of Ishmael's miraculous survival, growth, and giftedness in the wilderness, the book encourages Black men to embrace a life of faith that is dependent on the God who always sees, nurtures, and is in relationship with us and our gifts in the wilderness and the ghetto. From Panthers to Promise Keepers Judith Lowder Newton, 2005 From Panthers to Promise Keepers draws on intimate observations of the men and networks who were involved in what some have called Othe menOs movementO and tells us why these networks mattered Focusing on the decades between 1950 and 2000 it argues that while public structural change is necessary for gender equality getting men involved in efforts at social justice may well depend on their making changes with respect to feelings and with respect to their unconscious fears and anxieties as well
