Tattered Love Needle S Kiss:

The Windsor Magazine, 1913 Away to Me, My Love Naomi McDonald, 2019-09-11 Horse trainer Naomi McDonald impulsively buys a shy Border collie pup named Luke and she believes it's fate. However, puppy Luke shows no signs of herding instinct and a trainer tells her to put him down. At every juncture Naomi must decide whether or not to abandon her dream of entering herding competitions with her beloved dog. Despite her earnest desire to enter this new exciting world with respect and belonging, she inadvertently makes an enemy who can change everything for her and for her beloved Luke. When Naomi has a vision of a past life, she realizes her journey with Luke involves more than meets the eye, more than she ever imagined. With the help of a medicine woman, Naomi learns that Luke is her teacher, not only for herding competitions but also for a spiritual journey that would take her into the world of shamanic healing, animal communication, and spiritual beings most people cannot see. Author Naomi McDonald tells her true story with love and joy, disappointment and sorrow to show that ordinary people who have past life pain and childhood trauma can find guidance and peace in unexpected places. Now a certified shamanic practitioner, Naomi has studied with spiritual wisdom teachers around the world. She is a spiritual guide, teacher, and author. It all started with a dog named Luke.
