Time in Early Twentieth-Century Philosophy Flavia Santoian, 2015-11-26 This book presents a collection of authoritative contributions on the concept of time in early twentieth century philosophy It is structured in the form of a thematic atlas each section is accompanied by relevant elementary logic maps that reproduce in a spatial form the directionalities arguments and or discourses reported on in the text The book is divided into three main sections the first of which covers phenomenology and the perception of time by analyzing the works of Bergson Husserl Sartre Merleau Ponty Deleuze Guattari and Derrida The second section focuses on the language and conceptualization of time examining the works of Cassirer Wittgenstein Heidegger Lacan Ricoeur and Foucault while the last section addresses the science and logic of time as they appear in the works of Guillaume Einstein Reichenbach Prigogine and Barbour The purpose of the book is threefold to provide readers with a comprehensive overview of the concept of time in early twentieth century philosophy to show how conceptual reasoning can be supported by accompanying linguistic and spatial representations and to stimulate novel research in the humanistic field concerning the complex role of graphic representations in the comprehension of concepts

Phenomenology of Anxiety Stefano Micali, 2022-03-30 This volume offers a thorough description of anxiety from a phenomenological perspective Building on Bakhtin's insights the author develops the method of phenomenological polyphony which can do justice to the essential ambiguity of anxiety In this polyphony the voices of Kierkegaard Husserl Freud Blumenberg Heidegger Sartre Adorno Derrida and Levinas are particularly recognizable The book explores new perspectives on the complex relation between anxiety fear and trauma with reference to different disciplines from art history to cultural anthropology from psychopathology to theology from literature to political philosophy When is anxiety justified When does anxiety cease to function as an effective and reasonable signal preventing imminent threats and when does it become an invasive projection of our own ghosts This volume presents a deep philosophical inquiry into the affective phenomenon that can both protect us from danger and be a danger in itself Moreover the author explores the relevance of anxiety in the context of philosophical anthropology In various theoretical frameworks the difference between anxiety and fear serves as a criterion for distinguishing human beings from animals in particular Accordingly research on anxiety is crucial for defining human nature as such The analysis presented in this volume shows how an alteration of the dimensions of embodiment time consciousness and phantasy takes place in anxiety Furthermore the author elaborates on new categories for understanding of anxiety such as quasi intentional imaginative anticipation which eludes the traditional differentiation between perception and imagination The work culminates in a phenomenological analysis of five essential traits of anxiety 1 its quasi intentional imaginative anticipation 2 its negative inspiration 3 the recurrence of bodily manifestations 4 the interlocution with an alien power 5 its negative teleology Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Play from Birth and Beyond Sandra Lynch, Deborah Pike, Cynthia à Beckett, 2017-01-27 While firmly acknowledging the importance of play in early childhood this book interrogates the assumption that play is a birthright It pushes beyond traditional understandings of play to ask questions such as what is the relationship between play and the arts theatre music and philosophy and between play and wellbeing How is play relevant to educational practice in the rapidly changing circumstances of today s world What do Australian Aboriginal conceptions of play have to offer understandings of play The book examines how ideas of play evolve as children increasingly interact with popular culture and technology and how developing notions of play have changed our work spaces teaching practices curricula and learning environments as well as our understanding of relationships between children and adults This multidisciplinary volume on the subject of play combines the work of some of the world s leading researchers in the field of early childhood education with contributions from distinguished and emerging scholars in areas as diverse as education theatre studies architecture literature philosophy cultural studies theology and the creative arts Reconsidering the common focus on play in early education to investigate its broader impact this collection offers a refreshing and valuable addition to studies on play reconceptualizing it for the 21st century has been a dramatic increase in the amount of narrative work published by Chicana and Latina authors in the past 5 to 10 years. Nonetheless, there has been little attempt to catalog this material. This reference provides convenient access to all forms of narrative written by Chicana and Latina authors from the early 1940s through 2002. In doing so, it helps users locate these works and surveys the growth of this vast body of literature. The volume cites more than 2,750 short stories, novels, novel excerpts, and autobiographies written by some 600 Mexican American, Puerto Rican, Cuban American, Dominican American, and Nuyorican women authors. These citations are grouped in five indexes: an author title index, title author index, anthology index, novel index, and autobiography index. Short annotations are provided for the anthologies, novels, and autobiographies. Thus, the user who knows the title of a work can discover the author, the other works the author has written, and the anthologies in which the author's shorter pieces have been reprinted, along with information about particular works.

Tan Lark Sye: Advocate And Founder Of Nanyang University Chu Meng Ong, Hoon Yong Lim, Lai Yang Ng, 2015-06-16 This book is a record of Mr Tan Lark Sye's remarkable contribution to the founding of Nanyang University. Hailing from Jimei, Fujian Province of China, Mr Tan Lark Sye (1897-1972) was a leading rubber industrialist in Southeast Asia. Being a social activist, he believed in the value of education. As Chairman of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce in the 1950s, he fought for citizenship for the Chinese in Singapore and for the Chinese language to be one of Singapore's official languages. Mr Tan's most outstanding contribution, however, was the initiating of the founding of Nanyang University in 1953. He donated SGD5 million, which was a colossal amount at the time, to its building fund, as well as 523 acres of land for its campus on behalf of the Hokkien Huay Kuan. This collection of essays is based on a Chinese publication in 1997 on the occasion of Mr Tan Lark Sye's centenary birthday by Nanyang University Alumni Association of Hong Kong. It contains essays by outstanding Nanyang graduates and speeches by Mr Tan. It elaborates on how Mr Tan advocated to establish the Nanyang University while facing various difficulties. It tells of the life stories of Mr Tan. It is a must-read for those interested in the history of Nanyang University and the legendary life of Mr Tan.
