

This Graphic Standards Guide governs all materials bearing the Graphic Standards Inc. name, including publications, promotional items, web pages, video presentations and social media. Correct usage of the Graphic Standards Inc. logo serves to protect and enhance the overall brand identity and professional visual presentation of Graphic Standards Inc.

The Graphic Standards Inc. logo consists of an adjacent white rectangle and gray square outlined in black. The words "Graphic Standards" appear in the white rectangle while "inc." is placed within the gray square.

At all times, the logo must be legible and large enough so that all elements are easily read and identified.

In online environments, a slight drop shadow can be added to the logo if all elements remain legible.

Graphic headers and other prominent online elements that incorporate the logo should utilize Arial Black as the primary font, as in the example below.

Incorrect Use of the Logo

-Never distort the horizontal or vertical dimensions of the logo.

-Do not rearrange the logo elements.

-Do not omit any logo elements.

-Do not recreate the logo with incorrect elements.
