that African Pentecostals particularly are an integral part of the global expansion of Christianity in this century Specifically this book engages the history and growth of the Church of Pentecost an African Pentecostal denomination from Ghana to demonstrate how African Pentecostals have taken their spirituality into their own hands and planted churches in their home country as well as other parts of the globe The focus of this book is that African Pentecostals have achieved this feat through the experiential power and reliance of the Holy Spirit and the indigenous factor The specific highlight is that this book is an updated analysis of the history growth and missions of the Church of Pentecost Although this work is transformed from a PhD thesis the content is presented accessibly to both the academia and general church populace both pastors and the laity

Searching for the Holy Spirit Anne Claar Thomasson-Rosingh, 2015-05-08 Is the doctrine of the Holy Spirit in Christian theology good news or bad news for women Is the Holy Spirit in traditional Christian doctrine the guardian of the status quo or does it offer the dynamic possibility for change How do the gifts of the Spirit ecstatic and relational inform feminist thinking of the Christian God Opinions on these key questions vary wildly but are often formulated without coherent theological argument Feminist theology has a history of questioning God the Father and God the Son this study begins the theological questioning of God the Holy Spirit Searching for the Holy Spirit brings feminist pneumatology into discussion with more traditional doctrine of the Spirit notably the very significant early Christian treatise by Basil of Caesarea De Spiritu Sancto The results offer exciting new possibilities for both theology and the place of women in the church
