the Great Commission mandate to evangelize the nations Influential leaders fervently promote a new orphan theology urging followers to adopt en masse with little thought for the families these orphans may already have Conservative evangelicals control much of that industry through an infrastructure of adoption agencies ministries political lobbying groups and publicly supported crisis pregnancy centers which convince women not just to choose life but to choose adoption Overseas conservative Christians preside over a spiraling boom bust adoption market in countries where people are poor and regulations weak and where hefty adoption fees provide lots of incentive to increase the supply of adoptable children recruiting orphans from intact but vulnerable families The Child Catchers is a shocking exposé of what the adoption industry has become and how it got there told through deep investigative reporting and the heartbreaking stories of individuals who became collateral damage in a market driven by profit and now pulpit command Anyone who seeks to adopt of whatever faith or no faith and however well meaning is affected by the evangelical adoption movement whether they know it or not The movement has shaped the way we think about adoption the language we use to discuss it the places we seek to adopt from and the policies and laws that govern the process In The Child Catchers Kathryn Joyce reveals with great sensitivity and empathy why if we truly care for children we need to see more clearly Cincinnati Magazine ,2004-02 Cincinnati Magazine taps into the DNA of the city exploring shopping dining living and culture and giving readers a ringside seat on the issues shaping the region The Timeless Service of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.
