Sri Lanka Past Papers 1994 Sinec:

Sri Lanka's Development Since Independence W. D. Lakshman, Clement Allan Tisdell, 2000 Social political economic and constitutional developments are considered as well as the evolution of science and arts in the development process This is in accordance with the Sri Lankan tradition of seeing the world as a connected whole BOOK JACKET Sri Lanka

International Monetary Fund, 1995-07-20 This Background Paper on Sri Lanka provides information on the economic developments during 1992-95 Developments in the domestic and external sectors are discussed The deficiencies of the official consumer price index that resulted in a substantial understatement of inflation performance in 1994 and alternative estimates of underlying inflation are described The structural rigidities in the labor market that perpetuate high unemployment and limit job growth are also described The paper also examines fiscal sustainability which emerged as the key medium term policy objective Buddhist Fundamentalism and Minority Identities in Sri Lanka Tessa J.

Bartholomeusz, Chandra R. de Silva, 1998-07-10 Buddhist Fundamentalism and Minority Identities in Sri Lanka explores Sinhala Buddhist fundamentalist ideology and its power to shape the identities of Sri Lanka's ethnic and religious minorities Sinhala Buddhist fundamentalists in contemporary Sri Lanka share an ideology that asserts a vital link between the island of Sri Lanka and the Sinhala people especially in their role as curators of Buddhism and often at the exclusion of the minorities Minority responses to Sinhala Buddhist fundamentalism are manifold ranging from assimilation to the formation of rival fundamentalisms The authors provide views of history markedly different from most scholarly reflections on Sri Lanka thus the history of shifting perceptions of Sinhala Buddhist fundamentalism offered here constitutes an important contribution to the subaltern history of Sri Lanka By treating both the development of Sinhala Buddhist fundamentalism in the late nineteenth century and its hegemony in the late twentieth this study links the present to the past Sri Lanka News, 1995

Sri Lanka, Past and Present Manfred Domrös, Helmut Roth, 1998 Comptes rendus du quatorzième conférence internationale de Mécanique des sols et des travaux de fondation, Hambourg, 6-12 septembre 1997, 1997

Papers Presented at the Expert Consultation on Interactions Between Sea Turtles and Fisheries Within an Ecosystem Context, 2004 The original report published in 2004 ISBN 925105542 Confronting Past Human Rights Violations Chandra Lekha Sriram, 2004-08-12 This book examines what makes accountability for previous violations more or less possible for transitional regimes to achieve It closely examines the other vital goals of such regimes against which accountability is often balanced The options available are not simply prosecution or pardon as the most heated polemics of the debate over transitional justice suggest but a range of options from complete amnesty through truth commissions and lustration or purification to prosecutions The question then is not whether or not accountability can be achieved but what degree of accountability can be achieved by a given country The focus of the book is on the politics of transition what makes accountability more or less feasible and what strategies are deployed by regimes to achieve greater accountability or alternatively greater reform The result is a more nuanced understanding of the different conditions and possibilities that countries face and the lesson that there is no one size fits all prescription that can be handed to transitional regimes

One for All Russell Hardin,1997-08-29 In a book that challenges the most widely held ideas of why individuals engage in collective conflict Russell Hardin offers a timely crucial explanation of group action in its most destructive forms Contrary to those observers who attribute group violence to irrationality primordial instinct or complex psychology Hardin uncovers a systematic exploitation of self interest in the underpinnings of group identification and collective violence Using examples from Mafia vendettas to ethnic violence in places such as Bosnia and Rwanda he describes the social and economic circumstances that set this violence into motion Hardin explains why hatred alone does not necessarily start wars but how leaders cultivate it to mobilize their people He also reveals the thinking behind the preemptive strikes that contribute to much of the violence between groups identifies the dangers of particularist communitarianism and argues for government structures to prevent any ethnic or other group from having too much sway Exploring conflict between groups such as Serbs and Croats Hutu and Tutsi Northern Irish Catholics and Protestants Hardin vividly illustrates the danger that arises when individual and group interests merge In these examples groups of people have been governed by movements that managed to reflect their members personal interests mainly by striving for political and economic advances at the expense of other groups and by closing themselves off from society at large The author concludes that we make a better and safer world if we design our social institutions to facilitate individual efforts to achieve personal goals than if we concentrate on the ethnic political makeup of our respective societies
