

Guided Reading & Analysis: The Civil War, 1861-1865Chapter 14- Civil War pp 268-283*Reading Assignment:

Ch. 14 AMSCO; If you do not have the AMSCO text, use chapters 20 & 21 of American Pageant and/or online resources such as the website, podcast, crash course video, chapter outlines, Hippocampus, etc.

Purpose:

This guide is not only a place to record notes as you read, but also to provide a place and structure for reflection and analysis using your noggin (thinking skills) with new knowledge gained from the reading. This guide, if THOUGHTFULLY completed in its entirety SOON (beginning of Period) by the due date, can be used on the corresponding quiz as well as earn up to 10 bonus points. In addition, completed guides provide the student with the ability to correct a quiz for 16 points back! The benefits of such activities, however, go far beyond quiz help and bonus points. ☺

Mastery of the course and AP exam await all who choose to process the information as they read/receive.

This is an optional assignment. So... going fast... what is your choice? Slow? Or do not? There is no day.

(Collage created by Rebecca Richardson using playlist from The Civil War, map from the 1860s, and image from the unit)

Directions:

- Pre-Read: Read the prompts/questions within this guide before you read the chapter.
- Skim: Flip through the chapter and note titles and subtitles. Look at images and read captions. Get a feel for the content you are about to read.
- Read/Analyze: Read the chapter. If you have your own copy of AMSCO, Highlight key events and people as you read. Remember, the goal is not to "fish" for a specific answer(s) to reading guide questions, but to consider questions in order to critically understand what you read.
- Write: Write (do not type) your notes and analysis in the spaces provided. Complete it in ink!

Key Concepts FOR PERIOD 5:

Main Idea: As the nation expanded and its population grew, regional tensions, especially over slavery, led to a civil war — the course and aftermath of which transformed American society.

Key Concept 5.1: The United States became more connected with the world as it pursued an expansionist foreign policy in the Western Hemisphere and emerged as the destination for many migrants from other countries.

Key Concept 5.2: Intensified by expansion and deepening regional divisions, debates over slavery and other economic, cultural, and political issues led the nation into civil war.

Key Concept 5.3: The Union victory in the Civil War and the contested Reconstruction of the South settled the issues of slavery and secession, but left unresolved many questions about the power of the federal government and citizenship rights.

Section 1 Guided Reading, pp 268-2821. Intro: The Civil War, 1861-1865 page 268

Key Concepts & Main Ideas	Notes
The North's greater manpower and industrial resources, its leadership, and the decision for emancipation eventually led to the Union military victory over the Confederacy in the devastating Civil War. The Union victory in the Civil War and the contested Reconstruction of the South settled the issues of slavery and secession....	Read the William Tecumseh Sherman quote and first paragraph of the chapter on page 268. List and explain the four main ways the civil war impacted the nation. 1) About 750,000 people died. This was a lot of death. It was a tragedy. 2) The war freed about 4 million slaves. This changed the south's way of life. 3) The war industrialized the country, and modernization took over. The northern influence spread. This made the economy change. 4) It was the most destructive war fought in the Western Hemisphere ever. Not only did people die, but land and resources were destroyed/used. Which effect of war do you view as the most significant? Explain your reasoning. The industrialization was most significant effect in my opinion. It changed how the economy worked, and it spread the northern ideals. Also, the south had to change their way of life and economy.

Facing Trauma in Contemporary American Literary Discourse Laura Virginia Castor, 2019-10-08 Trauma has always been part of the American collective experience but only since September 11 2001 has it been acknowledged on a widespread scale Most people will experience some form of trauma during their lifetime but in contemporary American culture it is often understood as a problem to be blamed on someone fought or repressed entirely Despite burgeoning trauma studies popular responses to trauma from the media to politics produce ever more aggression and fear This book responds to this growing awareness through literary analyses of texts by Louise Erdrich Siri Hustvedt Melanie Thernstrom Nicole Krauss Joy Harjo Linda Hogan Jhumpa Lahiri and Toni Morrison Considered separately each chapter provides a lens into a historically situated trauma and the process of renegotiating it Read together they function as voices in an ongoing conversation that affirms the power of narrative A good story can become a space for curiosity in the face of trauma and uncertainty A story opens imaginative possibilities for asking in what ways can readers bring more awareness to the benefits of seeing our planetary interdependence in the midst of global polarization The readings of novels autobiographical texts and poems here suggest how this question is among the most valuable we can ask in the early 21st century Catalogue of the Ann Arbor High
