Lal, Allison Ley, 2014-09-01 The Coombs Building at The Australian National University is a Canberra icon Named after one of Australia's greatest administrators and public intellectuals Nugget Herbert Cole Coombs for more than forty years the building has housed two of the University's four foundational Schools the Research School of Pacific and Asian Studies and the Research School of Social Sciences This volume of recollections is about the former It looks at life in the building through the prism of personal experience and happenstance Part memoir part biography and part celebration this book is about the people of Coombs past and present Through evocative and lucid reflections present and former denizens of the building share their passions and predilections quietly savour their accomplishments and recall the failings and foibles of the past with a kindly tolerance Biodiversity, Access and Benefit-Sharing Daniel F. Robinson, 2014-11-13 The Nagoya Protocol to the Convention on Biological Diversity CBD is rapidly receiving signatures and ratifications Many countries are preparing to implement the protocol through national research permit systems and or biodiversity laws Yet there is still considerable confusion about how to implement the Protocol regarding access and benefit sharing ABS procedures and minimal experience in many countries This book seeks to remedy this gap in understanding by analysing a number of ABS case studies in light of the Nagoya Protocol The case studies are wide ranging with examples of plants for medicinal cosmetic biotech and food products from or for development in Australia North Africa Madagascar Switzerland Thailand USA and Oceania These will encourage countries to develop national systems which maximise their benefits both monetary and non monetary towards conservation and support for local communities that hold traditional knowledge In addition the author analyses new expectations raised by the Nagoya Protocol such as the encouragement of the development of community protocols by indigenous and local communities As a result stakeholders and policy makers will be able to learn the steps involved in establishing ABS agreements issues that arise between stakeholders and the types of benefits that might be realistic Wicked Valuations Michael McDermott, 2018-07-16 Traditional valuation approaches are increasingly recognised as being insufficient to address the wicked valuation problems of the diverse peoples and groups that inhabit the globe from north south east to west This book demonstrates the limitations of science and in particular economics as the foundation on which valuations are traditionally based It demonstrates the importance of and provides justification for the personal cultural values and norms which underpin our assessment of value and the fact that these vary across the world In Wicked Valuations Michael McDermott develops a means of engaging with highly complex valuation problems His autoethnography provides a lens to draw on knowledge and experience from his 40 years in land valuation in Africa and the Asia Pacific while documentary analysis is used to draw in the views of other valuation practitioners and scholars who are becoming increasingly aware of the need to develop ways to adapt land valuation processes to the complexity of our contemporary

landscapes Struggle, Reform, Boom and Bust Stephen Howes, Martin Davies, Rohan Fox, Maholopa Laveil, Manoj K. Pandey, Kelly Samof, Dek Joe Sum, 2025-07-31 Since Papua New Guinea's independence in 1975 economic growth has been slow but volatile with major changes in economic structure and policies as well as in politics and governance This economic history written to commemorate the fiftieth year of independence and the first to be produced in some 15 years divides the half century since independence into four periods the relative stability but also early struggles of the seventies and eighties the crises and reforms of the nineties the boom of the 2000s and the quiet bust of the 2010s Two chapters cover each period's major economic policy institutional and political developments The final three chapters provide an overall assessment of economic performance and policies since independence and link them with its politics and institutions The book combines painstaking documentation with original analysis to reveal both the strengths and weaknesses of the PNG economy and theorises that the country's hyper politics and insecurity have combined to produce and are reinforced by a weak but stable state and low and increasingly resource dependent growth Data driven frank insightful and engaging Struggle Reform Boom and Bust is written by an expert team of economists from the University of Papua New Guinea and The Australian National University under the leadership of Professor Stephen Howes Director of the ANU Development Policy Centre It is an essential resource for anyone interested in the economy of Papua New Guinea as well as an important contribution to the literature on the challenges and institutional determinants of post colonial development The Boy from Boort Bill Gammage, Gavan Daws, Brij V. Lal, 2014-07-27 Hank Nelson was an academic film maker teacher graduate supervisor and university administrator His career at The Australian National University ANU spanned almost 40 years of notable accomplishment in expanding and deepening our understanding of the history and politics of Papua New Guinea the experience of Australian soldiers at war bush schools and much else This book is a highly readable tribute to him written by those who knew him well including his students and also contains wide ranging works by Hank himself Professor Stewart Firth ANU Schooling, Conflict and Peace in the Southwestern Pacific David Oakeshott, 2024-11-27 Bringing concepts from critical transitional justice and peacebuilding into dialogue with education this book examines the challenges youth and their teachers face in the post conflict settings of Bougainville and Solomon Islands Youth in these places must reconcile with the violent past of their parents generation while also learning how to live with people once on opposing sides This book traces how students and their teachers form connections to the past and each other that cut through the forces that might divide them The findings illustrate novel ways to think about the potential for education to assist post conflict recovery

Administrative Law and Judicial Review in Papua New Guinea Christopher Karaiye, 2019-06-18 This is a compendium of administrative law and judicial review in Papua New Guinea In this book the author precisely recounts the history of the development of administrative law and judicial review in England and some other common law jurisdictions The main theme of the book is however devoted to judicial review in Papua New Guinea The practice and procedure for appealing
