

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space programs and rockets?	That U.S. support them economically (training, fuel, etc.)	None
2. Would anyone benefit from the rockets and satellites they could build?	They would surely produce satellites that were better. They could improve delivery of aid.	They were worried about the loss of technological know-how to the Soviets when John F. Kennedy became President. They also feared the spread of Communist China to the Middle East.
3. Would anyone challenge either side?	Not the Americans.	Others might be tempted to join the competition and also challenge.
4. Would what the Americans asked could change American society?	Yes. The government could no longer ignore the communist satellite.	Yes. American public was concerned we would not lose a technological edge.

2. Suppose the agreement simply set up the program, without these other provisions. Would it still bring about the technological benefits?

Discuss. Explain. What provisions did the Soviets want instead?

What would it have meant for the U.S. to refuse such provisions?
