

The Civil War

COMPLETE UNIT GUIDE PACKET

OVERVIEW

The Civil War was fought from 1861-1865 between the North and the South because of the long-standing controversy over the enslavement of African Americans. War broke out in April 1861 when secessionist forces from the South attacked Fort Sumter in South Carolina after Abraham Lincoln had been inaugurated as President.

In 1861, there were 34 states in the US. Eleven slaveholding states seceded from the Union and called themselves the Confederate States of America. The states that remained loyal to the US were known as the Union. The slaveholding border states of Delaware and Maryland remained in the Union, as did West Virginia, which seceded from secession in Virginia. The border states of Kentucky and Missouri had both pro-Confederate and pro-Union governments.

The Confederacy was never diplomatically recognized by the United States or by of any foreign country. The Union and the Confederacy quickly raised armies that fought mostly in the South over the next four years. Intense combat left between 620,000 to 750,000 people dead.

The war ended when General Robert E. Lee surrendered to General Ulysses S. Grant at the Battle of Appomattox Court House. Confederate generals throughout the southern states followed suit. Much of the South's infrastructure was destroyed. The Confederacy collapsed, slavery was abolished, and four million black slaves were freed. During the Reconstruction Era that followed the war, national unity was slowly restored, the national government expanded its power, and civil rights were secured to freed black slaves through amendments to the Constitution and federal legislation.
