Developing Intercultural Perspectives on Language Use Troy McConachy, 2017-11-20 Many language teachers recognise the importance of integrating intercultural learning into language learning but how this can be best achieved is not always apparent This is particularly the case in foreign language learning contexts where teachers are working with a prescribed textbook and opportunities to use the language outside the classroom are limited This book argues that teachers can work creatively with conventional resources and utilise classroom experiences in order to help learners interpret aspects of communication in insightful ways and develop awareness of the influence of cultural assumptions and values on language use The book provides extensive analysis of a range of classroom interactions to demonstrate how teachers and learners can work together to construct opportunities for intercultural learning through reflection on pragmatics Advances in Cultural Linguistics Farzad Sharifian, 2017-05-02 This groundbreaking collection represents the broad scope of cutting edge research in Cultural Linguistics a burgeoning field of interdisciplinary inquiry into the relationships between language and cultural cognition The materials surveyed in its chapters demonstrate how cultural conceptualisations encoded in language relate to all aspects of human life from emotion and embodiment to kinship religion marriage and politics even the understanding of life and death Cultural Linguistics draws on cognitive science complexity science and distributed cognition among other disciplines to strengthen its theoretical and analytical base The tools it has developed have worked toward insightful investigations into the cultural grounding of language in numerous applied domains including World Englishes cross cultural intercultural pragmatics intercultural communication Teaching English as an International Language TEIL and political discourse analysis English Language Learning Materials Brian Tomlinson, 2008-03-17 This research collection presents a critical review of the materials used for learning English around the world The first section includes a discussion of materials for specific learners and purposes such as young learners self study academic writing and general proficiency The second section presents a detailed study of the materials used in Europe Asia North America South America Africa and Australia and critically evaluates their effectiveness in the teaching of English to speakers of other languages Taking both the teacher s and the learner s needs into consideration the book makes a positive contribution to the future of research in materials development and has practical applications This comprehensive critical analysis of materials in use around the world will be useful for academics researching materials development and applied linguistics and for students on post graduate applied linguistics and ELT courses Metodika angličtiny v praxi - Jaro II , Translation and Own-Language Use in Language Teaching Eva Skopečková, 2024-04-06 This book reconsiders the role of translation and own language use in the EFL English as a Foreign Language classroom It shows prospective teachers how to use the learners own language and translation optimally The author surveys current research about the EFL classroom and presents both a theoretical framework and a didactic model for using translation and learners mother tongues This is done through an action research project assessing the proposed didactic model for optimal translation practice in English Language teaching OTP in ELT through its integration into teacher education The book will be of interest to students and researchers in the areas of Translation Studies and Applied Linguistics particularly EFL ESL TEFL and TESOL as well as educators and designers of pre service training programmes for language teachers Multifunctionality in English Zihan Yin, Elaine Vine, 2022-02-27 This edited volume provides detailed analyses of multifunctional forms in English and offers hands on approaches exemplifying relevant implications and useful applications to language and literacy educators in TESOL ESL EFL EAL and research students in applied linguistics and education The chapters cover The multifunctionality of utterances in spoken and multimodal corpora the multifunctionality of linguistic creativity in different genres multifunctional pronouns in hard and soft sciences and professional discourse in the university and secondary school contexts The volume also offers a comparison of the multifunctionality of verbs between ESL textbooks native written and spoken English corpora and between ESL and L1 university students in writing a particular genre comparisons of the multifunctionality of discourse markers between different registers and between L1 and L2 English speakers as well as multifunctional metadiscourse markers in different disciplines and paradigms With detailed analysis of authentic corpus data representing different varieties of English specialized use in different contexts and disciplines and practical teaching and learning applications the volume bridges theory and practice providing a creatively designed resource for students educators and researchers looking to understand multifunctional forms in English

Neoliberalism and Applied Linguistics David Block, John Gray, Marnie Holborow, 2013-03-01 This book explores neoliberalism a view of the world that puts the market at its centre from the perspective of applied linguistics Neoliberalism and Applied Linguistics argues that while applied linguistics has become more interdisciplinary in orientation it has ignored or downplayed the role of political economy namely the way in which social political and economic factors relate to one another within the context of a capitalist economy The authors take the view that engagement with political economy is central to any fully rounded analysis of language and language related issues in the world today and their collaboration in this volume represents an initial attempt to redress what they perceive to be an imbalance in the field The book begins with a discussion of neoliberalism and an analysis of the ways in which neoliberal ideology impacts on language This is followed by a discussion of how globalization and identity have been conceptualised in applied linguistics in ways which have ignored the political centrality of class a concept which the authors see as integral to their perspective The book concludes with an analysis of the ways in which neoliberal ideology plays out in two key areas of applied linguistics language teaching and language teacher education Neoliberalism and Applied Linguistics is essential reading for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in applied linguistics

English Education in Oman Rahma Al-Mahrooqi, Christopher Denman, 2018-07-02 This book explores an area that has been somewhat overlooked in the literature to date the current status and future trends of English education in Oman It offers a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches to the subject and explores areas of English education in Oman that have until now been little investigated It explores these issues from a variety of perspectives the professionalization of English teachers in the country the implementation of novel teaching methodologies curricula and assessment approaches into what are in many ways still very traditional education settings the integration of learner identity into English language instruction country and culture specific concerns with conducting research with Omani participants the strategic demands of building stronger links between education and workforce needs and developing learner autonomy and motivation

Cognitive Approaches to English Mario Brdar, Marija Omazić, Višnja

Pavičić Takač, 2009-12-14 The present volume contains a selection of papers presented at the conference Cognitive Approaches to English an international event organized to mark the 30th anniversary of English studies at the Faculty of Philosophy Josip Juraj Strossmayer University Osijek which was held in Osijek on October 18 19 2007 The participants were invited to discuss issues in cognitive accounts of English ranging from fundamental to methodological to interdisciplinary and applied The volume is accordingly divided into four parts Part I Motivation in grammar deals with various phenomena in the grammar of English in the broadest sense of the term all of which are shown to be motivated by metaphorical and or metonymic operations Part II Constructing meaning between grammar and lexicon contains five chapters dealing with phenomena ranging from various peculiarities of form meaning pairings such as synonymy polysemy and figurative meanings to concept formation The four chapters that make up Part III are concerned with the phenomenon of interlinguistic and intercultural variation in the use of metaphorical and metonymic processes The volume is concluded by Part IV the three papers of which attempt to reconsider some TEFL issues from a cognitive linguistic point of view Twenty Years of Learner Corpus Research. Looking Back, Moving Ahead Sylviane Granger, Gaëtanelle Gilquin, Fanny Meunier, 2013-06-21 This proceedings volume covers issues of learner corpus design collection and annotation and contains reports on various aspects of written and spoken learner interlanguage as well as design of learner corpus informed tools Conceptual Shifts and Contextualized Practices in Education for Glocal Interaction Ali Fuad Selvi, Nathanael Rudolph, 2017-11-03 This book employs the realm of English Language Teaching ELT as a discursive point of departure to explore how individuals groups entities and institutions apprehend embrace deal with manipulate problematize and resist glocal flows of people ideas information goods and technology It apprehends and attends to tensions arising from the fluidly local global construction and negotiation of borders of identity and interaction within a diverse array of contexts and English education therein These tensions whether conceptual or pedagogical may arise in and through governmental and institutional policymaking teacher training or curriculum and materials development and in the learning experience both within and beyond the classroom as teachers and students engage with course content and each other About Language Scott Thornbury, 1997-03-13 This book raises the issue of what a teacher needs to know about English in order to teach it effectively It leads teachers to awareness of the language through a wide range of tasks which involve them in analysing English to discover its underlying system Challenges in Language Testing Around the World Betty Lantaigne, Christine Coombe, James Dean Brown, 2021-02-17 This book combines insights from language assessment literacy and critical language testing through critical analyses and research about challenges in language assessment around the world It investigates problematic practices in language testing which are relevant to language test users such as language program directors testing centers and language teachers as well as teachers in training in Graduate Diploma and Master of Arts in Applied Linguistics programs These issues involve aspects of language testing such as test development test administration scoring and interpretation use of test results Chapters in this volume discuss insights about language testing policy testing world languages developing program level language tests and tests of specific language skills and language assessment literacy In addition this book identifies two needs in language testing for further examination the need for collaboration between language test developers language test users and language users and the need to base language tests on real world language use

English Language Teaching Textbooks N. Harwood, 2013-11-29 English language teaching textbooks or coursebooks play a central role in the life of a classroom This edited volume contains research informed chapters focusing on analysis of textbook content how textbooks are used in the classroom and textbook writers accounts of the materials writing design and publishing process

The Construction of English J. Gray, 2010-09-29 This book takes the view that ELT global coursebooks in addition to being curriculum artefacts are also highly wrought cultural artefacts which seek to make English mean in highly selective ways and it argues that the textual construction and imaging of English parallels the processes of commodity promotion more generally

Challenges for Language Education and Policy Bernard Spolsky, Ofra Inbar-Lourie, Michal Tannenbaum, 2014-09-15 Addressing a wide range of issues in applied linguistics sociolinguistics and multilingualism this volume focuses on language users the people Making creative connections between existing scholarship in language policy and contemporary theory and research in other social sciences authors from around the world offer new critical perspectives for analyzing language phenomena and language theories suggesting new meeting points among language users and language policy makers norms and traditions in diverse cultural geographical and historical contexts Identifying and expanding on previously neglected aspects of language studies the book is inspired by the work of Elana Shohamy whose critical view and innovative work on a broad spectrum of key topics in applied linguistics has influenced many scholars in the field to think out of the box and to reconsider some basic commonly held understandings specifically with regard to the impact of language and languaging on individual language users rather than on the masses
