

Be an informed buyer. Make sure that the property you want to purchase meets your needs. The following information may assist you during your purchase.

APPRAISAL. An appraisal is a valuation of the property. An appraiser renders an estimate of value as of a certain date under assumptions and conditions stated in the appraisal report. Typically, a buyer's lender requires an appraisal to verify that the loan is secured by property that is worth at least the amount. An appraisal is not the same as an inspection.

Keywords: child sexual abuse; disclosure; social support

Environmental Representations: If you are concerned that environmental factors, conditions, or unaltered species may be present on the property you wish to buy, you should hire a qualified expert to inspect the property for such items. You may include a promulgated addendum (TAR 1019) in your contract that may address such matters.
