The specially formulated Theory of Johannine Symbolism explains the theoretical and theological underpinnings of the Gospel's symbolic network called John's Christological Symbolology. Through the symbolic network the author of the Gospel fulfills the theological purpose stated in Jn 20:31 that hearer/readers believe in Jesus the Christ as the Son of God and thereby experience eternal life. Papers presented at the Eleventh International Conference on Patristic Studies held in Oxford 1991 see also Studia Patristica 24, 26, 27 and 28. The successive sets of Studia Patristica contain papers delivered at the International Conferences on Patristic Studies which meet for a week once every four years in Oxford; they are held under the aegis of the Theology Faculty of the University. Members of these conferences come from all over the world and most offer papers. These range over the whole field, both East and West, from the second century to a section on the Nachleben of the Fathers. The majority are short papers dealing with some small and manageable point they raise and sometimes resolve questions about the authenticity of documents, dates of events and such like, and some unveil new texts. The smaller number of longer papers put such matters into context and indicate wider trends. The whole reflects the state of Patristic scholarship and demonstrates the vigour and popularity of the subject.
