INTRODUCTION

Who is Ben Larcombe?

Hello and welcome to The Table Tennis Playbook! My name is Ben Larcombe and I'm a table tennis coach from London, I'm 23 years old and this is my second year as a full-time coach.

I began playing table tennis at the age of 10, back in 1999, and I've loved the sport from then on. As a player I was a bit of a late developer. It wasn't until I was 16 that I started to practice more than once a week and I entered my first national competition aged 17. Before then I had been practicing once a week, playing in local tournaments and leagues, and representing my county of Surrey. I finished the juniors ranked about 70th in England (I said I was a late developer!).

Playing senior counties last season (2011/12) for Surrey.

cultural exchange and political breakthrough The narrative draws from an impressive array of primary sources including previously untranslated interviews and training diaries providing unprecedented insights into the sport s development What sets this book apart is its unique blend of historical documentation technical instruction and cultural analysis While examining the sport s evolution through its champions it offers practical applications for current players and coaches breaking down complex techniques and training methodologies The book s balanced approach makes it equally valuable for sports historians table tennis enthusiasts and readers interested in the intersection of sports and international relations
