Louisiana Coffee ... with Lots of Cream Betty J. Reynolds, 2007-09-04 Louisiana Coffee with lots of cream is Dr Betty Reynolds fifth book to be published Not surprisingly this book is not about coffee nor is it about cream Instead it is a delightful medley of intriguing tales covering four generations of a New Orleans Creole family Since Creole usually denotes a mixing of bloods the color of their skin can be as varied as the color of one's coffee ranging from dark dark chocolate to the lightest of rich cream This fictional memoir appropriately starts a hundred years ago in New Orleans the home of the family matriarch Bertha Mayberry Bertha's story is a mysterious one that she preferred to be kept locked among other family secrets She was particularly sensitive about having to reveal her misfortune of being trapped in a bordello when she first arrived in New Orleans as a young girl Her romantic rescue ended in tragedy but she did transcend in the end and married a popular Black jazz musician named William Sweetwater Lewis Together they gained respectability by working hard and providing their five daughters with a good education a passion for music and a young life filled with parties and gala events in a city that was known for them Bertha's children as well as her children's children follow their own paths in choosing where and how they will live out their lives Their accounts of triumphs and mishaps take you on a fascinating journey to experience the mysteries of black magic in the Louisiana swamps a numbers racket in Detroit and the casinos in Las Vegas when the mob was in control Some leave the safety of their ancestral home on Bourbon Street to carve out new lives in other far away places such as the Jersey Shores Philadelphia or New York Whatever their destination each member of the Lewis clan brings to the saga an interesting storyline that shares his her unique motivations desires and actions that sometimes lead to less than favorable consequences Louisiana Coffeeis meant to inform rather than to alarm It is a tell all fiction that might open some eyes as what goes on in a different world on the other side of the cultural divide I Like Ice Cream in My Coffee Part Three Diney Deruy,2003-08 The year was 1945 World War II was over and humanity was trying to get back to the normal way of living Replacements for the men who were going back to the States were just getting off the troop ship that had brought them here to this faraway land from home Little did Rick know that within a few days his whole life was going to change The hawkers were on every block selling their wares Every ten feet a prostitute would stop you and ask you if you wanted to make love there wasn t anything you could not buy for the right price Tsingtao had the most European looking railroad station in China It was built by the Germans to remind them of their homeland The city itself was like any other city with its open storefronts and the smell of food cooking But it was also known as the Sin City of the orient with its opium dens and smugglers This story takes Rick down through the city s underground highway which was used by the smugglers in the old days What he did to help the children the old and the weak led Rick to being the most powerful ringleader in the black market in China He became the most hunted by all of the authorities known by the code name Qua Ming By Any Means Marvlous,2006 Ice Cream Review ,1918 The Dead Travel Fast Deanna Raybourn,2017-09-01 A husband a family a comfortable life Theodora Lestrage wants nothing to do with it all With a modest inheritance and the three gowns that comprise her entire wardrobe Theodora leaves Edinburgh and a disappointed suitor far behind She is bound for Rumania where tales of vampires are still whispered to visit an old friend and write the book that will bring her true independence She arrives at a magnificent decaying castle in the Carpathians replete with eccentric inhabitants the ailing dowager the troubled steward and her own fearful friend Cosmina But all are outstripped in dark glamour by the castle s master Count Andrei Dragulescu Bewildering and bewitching in equal measure the brooding nobleman ignites Theodora s imagination and awakens passions in her that she can neither deny nor conceal His allure is superlative his dominion over the superstitious town absolute and he is determined to bring Theodora under his sway Before her sojourn ends or her novel is complete Theodora will be forever changed For obsession can prove fatal and she is in danger of falling prey to more than just desire Previously Published Experiment Station Record United States.
