 kinky sexy man of the house erotica erotic stories bundle collection anthology Feminist Art and the Maternal Andrea Liss,2009 Feminist motherhood is a surprisingly unexplored subject In fact feminism and motherhood have been often thought of as incompatible Profound provocative and innovative Feminist Art and the Maternal is the first work to critically examine the dilemmas and promises of representing feminist motherhood in contemporary art and visual culture Andrea Liss skillfully incorporates theory with passionate personal reflections on the maternal and in doing so she advances a fresh and necessary perspective on both feminism and art Abortion in International Popular Culture Kelli Maloy,Brenda Boudreau,2025-01-15 In the wake of the reversal of Roe v Wade in 2022 Abortion in International Popular Culture The Decision Heard Round the World examines representations of abortion and reproductive justice across a wide range of popular culture artifacts literary texts and activist movements across the world Contributors analyze examples from Chile Italy Malta Sweden Canada France the U K Argentina Ireland and Poland to consider the relationships between art and public policy the impact of American policy on global policy and pro choice movements and the transnational influence of cultural representations of abortion Reconciling Art and Mothering RachelEpp Buller,2017-07-05 Reconciling Art and Mothering contributes a chorus of new voices to the burgeoning body of scholarship on art and the maternal and for the first time focuses exclusively on maternal representations and experiences within visual art throughout the world This innovative essay collection joins the voices of practicing artists with those of art historians acknowledging the fluidity of those categories The twenty five essays of Reconciling Art and Mothering are grouped into two sections the first written by art historians and the second by artists Art historians reflect on the work of artists addressing motherhood including Marguerite G rd Chana Orloff and Ren Cox from the early nineteenth century to the present day Contributions by contemporary artist mothers such as Gail Rebhan Denise Ferris and Myrel Chernick point to the influence of past generations of artist mothers to the inspiration found in the work of maternally minded literary and cultural theorists and to attempts to broaden definitions of maternity Working against a hegemonic construction of motherhood the contributors discuss complex and diverse feminist mothering experiences from maternal ambivalence to queer mothering to quests for self fulfillment The essays address mothering experiences around the globe with contributors hailing from North and South America Europe Asia Africa and Australia Back To Hope Deirdre Santesso,2015-06-26 Seventeen year old Larry Kinsella knows nothing of life beyond the city of Vancouver and when he first meets Benita Pigeon a member of the Carrier Nation he is drawn to her by their differences Their brief often tumultuous relationship is brought to a calamitous end by an unwanted pregnancy and by Larry s response to it Consumed by anger and bitterness Benita flees to her ancestral home where she struggles to adjust to a traditional way of life while Larry driven by guilt and remorse enters the seminary and becomes a Catholic priest But the past lays claim to both of them and when they meet again it is under circumstances where they must struggle to redeem themselves and to find their true identity Set in the middle of the last century against a backdrop of northern British Columbia and the Downtown Eastside of Vancouver Back To Hope is a story that often touches on violence conflict poverty and despair But it is also a meditation on family and belonging on faith and above all on hope

Massive Pissed Love Richard Hell, 2015-10-01 A seminal collection of ruminations on art books and music by one of the sharpest minds and sensibilities in both punk rock and literature Richard Hell may best be known as a punk icon a founding member of seminal bands Television the Heartbreakers and The Voidoids but for decades he s been a prominent voice in American letters Through his novels Go Now and Godlike and his critically acclaimed autobiography I Dreamed I Was a Very Clean Tramp Hell has proven himself as a talented and insightful writer across many genres in many forms But one might argue that Richard s true genius lies in shorter form as a writer on culture Love comes in spurts Hell once sang and that could well describe the intensity of his penetrating and wickedly droll criticism Massive Pissed Love is a collection of Hell s ruminations on art literature and music among other things that s like a candy box of reading treats a bag of shiny marbles a cabinet of mementos and uncanny fetishes However one thinks of it it s a joy to read from start to finish and a deeply necessary addition to the oeuvre of one of the sharpest minds and sensibilities at work today

Anthill (Puttu, winner of Kerala Sahitya Akademi Award) Vinoy Thomas, 2023-01-23 The remote village of Perumpadi at the border between Kerala and Karnataka is a unique settlement Bounded by dense Kodagu forests on the south and west and raging rivers on the north and east its very isolation was what drew the first settlers to this unharnessed land The first to make his way across this rough terrain was Kunjuvarkey along with a young woman bearing his child Kunjuvarkey was fleeing the opprobrium of getting his own daughter pregnant Those who followed had similar shameful secrets In a land of sinners where no one pried into the other s past they were able to live and build a community without being tied down by society s interdictions Fifty years later as the community moves into modernity they start showing signs of reforming from their beginnings of a hillbilly and promiscuous existence With no panchayats to resolve local disputes following in his father s footsteps Jeremias Paul of Reformation House known by the moniker President becomes the unchallenged adjudicator of Perumpadi thanks to his equanimity and sense of fairness But Jeremias has his own secrets and ultimately may have to answer for his own moral lapse Anthill a robust translation of the award winning novel Puttu and with a cast of over 200 characters tells the story of a people who have tried to shed the shackles of family religion and other restraining institutions but eventually also struggle to conform to the needs of a cultured society Written with disarming honesty and biting humour Anthill is ultimately a story that questions the veneer of respectability people try to put up in their lives

Mothers and Other Clowns (Routledge Revivals) Magdalene Redekop, 2014-03-14 First published in 1992 this is the first study of the work of Alice Munro to focus on her obsession with mothering and to relate it to the hallucinatory quality of her magic realism A bizarre collection of clowning mothers parade across the pages of Munro's fiction playing practical jokes performing stunts and dressing in disguises that recycle vintage literary images Magdalene Redekop studies this with the aim of gaining increased understanding of Munro's evolving comic vision

Infanticide Mark Jackson, 2018-10-24 The history of infanticide from the 16th through to the late 20th century is the subject of this volume Collectively the contributions explore how the concealment of pregnancy birth and death particularly by unmarried women became a central preoccupation of witnesses doctors courts and legislatures concerned with suspicious infant deaths While the emphasis is upon Britain original and stimulating accounts of infanticide accusations and trials in France Germany and South Africa provide compelling comparative analyses Presenting a series of case studies successive chapters expose striking continuities across both time and space in the social history of infanticide Clearly written focusing on a range of original cases and documents and addressing critical historiographical questions Infanticide will be invaluable to historians and students researching the social history of medicine law crime and gender In addition it will appeal to lawyers doctors and others interested in understanding the historical roots of modern debates about infanticide

Women Coauthors Holly A. Laird, 2000 Until recently collaborative authorship has barely been considered by scholars when it has the focus has been on discovering who contributed what and who dominated whom in the relationship and in the writing In Women Coauthors Holly Laird reads coauthored texts as the realization of new kinds of relationship Through close scrutiny of literary collaborations in which women writers have played central roles Women Coauthors shows how partnerships in writing between two women or between a woman and a man provide a paradigm of literary creativity that complicates traditional views of both author and text and makes us revise old habits of thinking about writing Focusing on the social dynamics of literary production including the conversations that precede and surround collaborative writing Women Coauthors treats its coauthored texts as representations as well as acts of collaboration Holly A Laird discusses a wide array of partial and full coauthorships to reveal how these texts blur or remap often uncanny boundaries of self status race reason and culture that of the Delany sisters and Amy Hill Hearth on Having Our Say lesbian couples whose lives and writings were intertwined including Katherine Bradley and Edith Cooper Michael Field and Gertrude Stein and Alice B Toklas and the Native American wife and husband authors Louise Erdrich and Michael Dorris Framed in time by the feminist and abolitionist movements of the mid nineteenth century and the ongoing social struggles surrounding gender race and sexuality in the late twentieth century the partnerships and texts observed in Women Coauthors explore collaboration as a path toward equity both socioliterary and erotic For the authors here who collaborate most fully with each other two are much better than one Mary Turner and the Memory of Lynching Julie Buckner Armstrong, 2011 Mary Turner and the Memory of Lynching traces the reaction of activists artists writers and local residents to the brutal lynching of a pregnant woman near Valdosta Georgia In 1918 the murder of a white farmer led to a week of mob violence that claimed the lives of at least eleven African Americans including Hayes Turner When his wife Mary vowed to press charges against the killers she too fell victim to the mob Mary's lynching was particularly brutal and involved the grisly death of her eight month old fetus It led to both an entrenched local silence and a widespread national response in newspaper and magazine accounts visual art film literature and public memorials Turner's story became a centerpiece of the Anti Lynching Crusaders campaign for the 1922 Dyer Bill which sought to make lynching a federal crime Julie Buckner Armstrong explores the complex and contradictory ways this horrific event was remembered in works such as Walter White's report in the NAACP's newspaper the Crisis the Kabnis section of Jean Toomer's Cane Angelina Weld Grimké's short story Goldie and Meta Fuller's sculpture Mary Turner A Silent Protest against Mob Violence Like those of Emmett Till and Leo Frank Turner's story continues to resonate on multiple levels Armstrong's work provides insight into the different roles black women played in the history of lynching as victims as loved ones left behind and as those who fought back The crime continues to defy conventional forms of representation illustrating what can and cannot be said about lynching and revealing the difficulty and necessity of confronting this nation's legacy of racial violence

Underserved and Socially Disadvantaged Groups and Linkages with Health and Health Care Differentials Jennie Jacobs Kronenfeld, 2019-08-30 Looking specifically at the factors impacting on health and health care differentials this book examines the health and health care issues of both patients and providers of care in the United States and around the globe Chapters focus on linkages to policy population concerns and patients and providers of care as ways to meet health care needs Feminist Policymaking in Turbulent Times Hannah Partis-Jennings, Clara Eroukhmanoff, 2024-05-31 Feminist Policymaking in Turbulent Times offers a unique and timely reflection of the critical debates around the institutionalisation of feminist and gender focused ideas and norms into policy Many states and non governmental organisations are increasingly invested in feminist policymaking at the domestic and international levels Yet this liberal feminist agenda is also vastly disputed by critical intersectional and decolonial voices on the one hand and by anti gender movements around the world on the other hand Indeed while opposition to gender ideology is mounting from reactionary religious and secular forces feminist policymaking is also being challenged in important ways from within Thus this book situates feminist policymaking in a challenging and turbulent global context This book explores feminist policymaking in multiple areas of policy examining various gender focused programmes that states and international organisations have undertaken in the last decade offering critical interventions and rethinking the relationship between feminism and policy This book not only reflects on the advances of feminist policymaking globally but also critically assesses the intersectional challenges embedded within it and lying ahead It moves the field forward by creating opportunities based on lived experiences for re imagining the transformative potential of the nexus between feminism and policymaking Interdisciplinary in scope and bringing to the fore the voices of both academics and practitioners this book is the product of an international collaboration forging links and dialogue that are increasingly necessary to question some of the exclusionary militaristic and hierarchical assumptions of policymaking which is labelled as feminist Feminist Policymaking in Turbulent Times will be of interest to all scholars students and practitioners interested in the role of gender in policymaking and concerned with contestations around gender focused projects

A Christian and African Ethic of Women's Political Participation Léocadie W. Lushombo, 2022-11-30 This book surveys a broad panorama of Christian and African traditions to discover and assess the components that will illuminate and motivate a Christian and African ethic of women's political participation The author's primary lens for diagnosing the problems faced by women in Africa is Engelbert Mveng's concept of anthropological poverty that results from slavery and colonialism It affects women in unique ways and is exacerbated by the religious and cultural histories of women's oppression The author advocates an interplay between the sacredness of every individual's life a salient principle of Christian ethics and the collective consciousness of solidarity distinctive to African cultures This interplay can in turn foster a more enlightened approach to African masculinity Using a sophiological hermeneutic this in depth study undertakes a moral imagination through narrative criticism It argues that the existential reality of African women must be addressed as an essential element in the development of Christian socio political ethic The righteous solidaristic and resistant anger of women can transform patriarchy and inform Catholic social teaching The author draws on The Circle of concerned African women theologians postcolonial theorists inculturation theology African males and Jon Sobrino's liberation theology to present an innovative Christian ethic that will radically affect the lives of African women and inform feminist theology
