We Are Data John Cheney-Lippold, 2018-11-06 Algorithms are everywhere organizing the near limitless data that exists in our world Drawing on our every search like click and purchase algorithms determine the news we get the ads we see the information accessible to us and even who our friends are These complex configurations not only form knowledge and social relationships in the digital and physical world but also determine who we are and who we can be Algorithms use our data to assign our gender race sexuality and citizenship status In this era of ubiquitous surveillance contemporary data collection entails more than gathering information about us Entities like Google Facebook and the NSA also decide what that information means constructing our worlds and the identities we inhabit in the process We have little control over who we algorithmically are Through a series of entertaining and engaging examples John Cheney Lippold draws on the social constructions of identity to advance a new understanding of our algorithmic identities We Are Data will educate and inspire readers who want to wrest back some freedom in our increasingly surveilled and algorithmically constructed world Page 4 of cover
