Awesome! Dick Eastman, 2021-08-17 Prompted by a friend to describe Jesus as he is not as he was or will be in the coming days Dick Eastman found himself stammering What followed over many months was a desire to get to know the Jesus who had changed his life but in a much fuller and richer way now From then on on scraps of folded paper in his pockets Eastman found himself recording adjectives describing the nature and character of Jesus Christ expanding them later into a personal devotional journal Reflecting Eastman's spiritual journey this book of insights will challenge you to see Jesus as you may never have seen him before Eastman's approach to studying the nature and names of Jesus will bring you closer to your Savior Each day of this enriching 31 day resource consists of Scripture a short exposition insights from Christian leaders a prayer and a practical application to help deepen your faith You too will find Jesus awesome

Lessons and Legacies XII Wendy Lower, Lauren Faulkner Rossi, 2017-02-15 Lessons and Legacies XII explores new directions in research and teaching in the field of Holocaust studies The essays in this volume present the most cutting edge methods and topics shaping Holocaust studies today from a variety of disciplines forensics environmental history cultural studies religious studies labor history film studies history of medicine sociology pedagogy and public history This rich compendium reveals how far Holocaust studies have reached into cultural studies perpetrator history and comparative genocide history Scholars laypersons teachers and the myriad organizations devoted to Holocaust memorialization and education will find these essays useful and illuminating

Race and Restoration Barclay Key, 2020-05-06 From the late nineteenth century to the dawn of the civil rights era the Churches of Christ operated outside of conventional racial customs Many of their congregations even deep in the South counted whites and blacks among their numbers As the civil rights movement began to challenge pervasive social views about race Church of Christ leaders and congregants found themselves in the midst of turmoil In Race and Restoration Churches of Christ and the Black Freedom Struggle Barclay Key focuses on how these churches managed race relations during the Jim Crow era and how they adapted to the dramatic changes of the 1960s Although most religious organizations grappled with changing attitudes toward race the Churches of Christ had singular struggles Fundamentally restorationist these exclusionary churches perceived themselves as the only authentic expression of Christianity compelling them to embrace peoples of different races even as they succumbed to prevailing racial attitudes The Churches of Christ thus offer a unique perspective for observing how Christian fellowship and human equality intersected during the civil rights era Key reveals how racial attitudes and practices within individual congregations elude the simple categorizations often employed by historians Public forums designed by churches to bridge racial divides offered insight into the minds of members while revealing the limited progress made by individual churches Although the Churches of Christ did have a more racially diverse composition than many other denominations in the Jim Crow era Key shows that their members were subject to many of the same aversions prejudices and fears of other churches of the time Ironically the tentative biracial relationships that had formed within and between congregations prior to World War II began to dissolve as leading voices of the civil rights movement prioritized desegregation

Interpersonal Reconciliation between Christians in a Shame-Oriented Culture Mano Emmanuel, 2020-11-30 Interpersonal conflict is one of the greatest threats to the health and growth of the church worldwide Yet despite their best intentions Christian leaders often discover that the cause of recurring conflict remains unclear and prescribed techniques for conflict resolution are ineffective in their communities In this Sri Lankan case study Dr Mano Emmanuel examines the specifics of interpersonal conflict within a shame oriented culture Taking an interdisciplinary approach she incorporates cultural anthropology missiology and communication studies into her analysis identifying seven aspects of culture that must be addressed if reconciliation is to be fully experienced in the Sri Lankan church Highlighting the parallels between contemporary honor shame cultures and the honor shame context of the New Testament the author provides specific suggestions for experiencing biblical reconciliation while maintaining cultural sensitivity and protecting the honor of those involved

Reading Scripture as the Church Derek W. Taylor, 2020-09-22 The Bible is meant to be read in the church by the church as the church Following the example of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Derek

Taylor argues that we should regard the reading of Scripture as an inherently communal exercise of discipleship In conversation with other theologians Taylor shares how this approach to Scripture can engender a faithful hermeneutical community

Along the Way Ron Bruner, Dana Kennamer Pemberton, 2015-09-08 A call for the church the whole church to enter into a serious conversation about the spiritual nourishment of our children Conversations about children and faith draw us close to the heart of God among the people of God these talks are justifiably nuanced and passionate The authors of Along the Way lead everyone in the church parents grandparents teachers friends ministers and leaders in a careful yet understandable dialogue about nurturing children spiritually Along the way we discover that the individuality of each child and the distinctiveness of their context call us to see each child's walk with God as a unique journey of discovery We also learn that sharing these paths with children changes and bless us at least as much as it does them

Rethinking the Prophetic Critique of Worship in Amos 5 for Contemporary Nigeria and the USA Michael Ufok Udoekpo, 2016-12-14 Father Udoekpo's work offers a thorough review of the theology of worship in the work of Amos of Tekoa one of Israel's foundational prophets It critically examines Amos 5 in its socio historical and literary context and theologically reevaluates the application of Amos's message of ethical worship judgment and hope to two contemporary cultures Nigeria and the United States of America While intentionally down to earth and engaging in society and religion this work discusses in a thoughtful and detailed exegetical manner the various sub units of lamentation vv 1-3 the motifs of the remnant the exhortation to seek the Lord justice and righteousness vv 4-6 14-15 24 judgment and the notion of the Day of the Lord vv 18-20 as they relate to the theology of worship vv 21-27 in Amos 5 The author pastorally draws the reader's attention to Amos' view that worship must not be restricted to hypocritical offerings empty rituals and songs at sanctuaries but needs to incorporate ethics of justice peace and righteousness practiced in marketplaces and plazas

Reading In-Between Néstor Medina, Alison Hari-Singh, HyeRan Kim-Cragg, 2019-02-18 This volume presents a tapestry of narratives in which the lived experiences of eight racially minoritized theologians and biblical scholars are woven together to present an interdisciplinary exploration of the direct impact that ethnocultural traditions have in shaping the way people read and interpret the biblical text Moving beyond traditional approaches to biblical hermeneutics steeped in Euro normativity Canadian scholars from Latino a Chinese Korean Indian Cree and AfriCaribbean backgrounds draw on their respective locations to articulate how their communities engage the Bible Together they show that ethnicity and cultural tradition enrich how different communities weave their life stories with the biblical text in hope of finding wisdom within it By focusing on questions rooted in their particular traditions these diverse hermeneutical engagements show narrative to be central to the interpretive task within diverse ethnocultural communities

Annual Interpretative Expository 2020-2021 Church Of God In Christ Publishing House, 2020-12-04 Sunday School across America is on a decline Biblical literacy is at an unprecedented low amongst believers and it seems as if there is no end to where this could lead to in our churches The COGIC Sunday School department desires to help aid literacy by providing quality supplemental lesson material Enlisting help from scholars across the country the department wrote the Interpretative Expository an exposition for each lesson of the Sunday School curriculum Also to assist pastors preachers missionaries and laity with sermon subjects and preparation our team has included a sample sermon outline from one of the lessons Reemphasize the message of Sunday School by preaching a message from the text of the lesson Touching the Bones of Elisha Albert Haase, Phil Vestal, 2023-04-28 In this book Franciscan priest Fr Albert Haase OFM and Protestant pastor Phil Vestal bring to life nine spiritual practices from the life and ministry of the ancient Hebrew prophet Elisha practices later promoted by Jesus Paul and subsequent figures in the history of Christian spirituality These spiritual practices point directly to important themes in spiritual formation The call of God Healing Perseverance in the face of opposition Gratitude and charity Prayer petition and intercession The tension between obedience to the law and Jesus command to love Living with the awareness of God s investment in every human endeavor God s ever present grace and protection in the face of trials and tribulations Mercy Based upon incidents in the life of an ancient prophet these nine practices are life giving bones that God uses to instill new spirit and creativity in the contemporary believer The World and the Word: Making Sense of Social Science in an Age of Conflict,

Opposition, and Grace Dr. Herbert L. Green Jr., 2017-08-24 Jesus very presence as the New Testament age unfolded 1st century A D engendered opposition created conflict while ushering in grace His ideas were considered radical Why is this so The NIV Archeological Study Bible 2005 NIV Student Bible et al and corroborating Extra Biblical evidence provide a context for the Word view about Jesus in Biblical history and supports aspects of the social and physical sciences in terms of cultural socio economic political historical archeological and philosophical apologetics evidence As the pages of this book unfold there is an internal consistency with social science and The Bible However where such consistency appeared to diverge this author attempts to filter out the noise by applying critical thinking criteria to a Worldview that may not be consistent with the Word view The goal of this book therefore is to provide some exposition Greek apologia of the Word and see how the World fits Born again Christians can be credible scientists and not compromise Gods Word After thoughtful reading please send reflective comments to Dr Herb Green Jr at docgreen48 outlook com Captivators for Christ R.C. Milco, 2019-04-02 The impossibility of forgiving another as we have been forgiven was intended to drive us to our knees When our lives are shredded in the proclamation of Him who pardoned the undeserving we are propelled into the only Refuge we have the Redeemer who bought us back from the dead and now enables us to serve in His style of ministry From where do our reserves come when expenditures are daunting Where do we find strength to persevere And how are we to not lose heart when longing to see others captivated by the Lord s love we fail to witness any fruitfulness in the long suffering Through the Biblical meditations offered in Captivators for Christ the reader is invited to contemplate the cross where all of the forfeitures and losses of extending forgiveness are eclipsed by the lavish and matchless love of God our Rescuer God's

Super-Apostles R. Douglass Geivett, Holly Pivec, 2018-07-27 God's Super Apostles provides a concise entry level overview of the key teachings and practices of the New Apostolic Reformation NAR movement This is a key resource in grasping the significance of this global confusing and controversial movement

Are We Neglecting a Great Salvation? Mike O'Dowd, 2024-10-16 How do you know if you're neglecting the great salvation you have in Jesus Christ This great salvation is the salvation believers have now and eternally by grace through faith in Christ and it is great both now and eternally and can be neglected Moreover such neglect can lead to dire consequences In fact the Book of Hebrews highlights how neglecting your salvation can impact you in the here and now as well as in the hereafter Pastor Mike O'Dowd examines the chapters of Hebrews in this book so you can discover the pitfalls of neglect and take steps to ensure the fullness of your salvation The author also answers questions such as How can you be saved to the uttermost What does it mean to have genuine faith How should you live your daily life Why is neglect so dangerous especially in your life in Christ Ignite your faith and safeguard the most precious treasure in your Christian life with the wisdom in Are We Neglecting a Great Salvation

Help for Holiness Paul F. Evans, 2018-10-30 At one time there was a great deal of interest in the topic of holiness but not so much anymore Theological wrangling and impossible legalism has left many in the church frustrated and confused with part of that confusion arising from idealism in the pulpit that rang hollow in the lives and experiences of ordinary believers But what if there was significant help from God in the enterprise of living a morally triumphant life where habitual sinning was not inevitable and where the development of godly character was possible and found through a maturing relationship with God and growth in the Christian life The apostle Paul certainly thought so In Help for Holiness author and senior pastor Paul F. Evans revisits the topic of holiness and explores Paul's admonition that believers shouldn't seek more rules legalism nor give in to moral pessimism that says we cannot help but sin every day in word thought and deed Instead through morally transformative justification and regeneration followed by a commitment to the crucifixion of the old life in the death of Christ we can be raised to new life which through ongoing surrender to the Spirit can in fact produce the conduct and character God is looking for In this postmodern world we do not need to abandon an emphasis on righteous and holy living God really has made a provision for us to succeed morally Holiness was started by grace and God will complete it in us by grace through the Spirit
