Argument-driven Inquiry in Biology Victor Sampson, 2014-04-01 Are you interested in using argument driven inquiry for high school lab instruction but just aren't sure how to do it You aren't alone This book will provide you with both the information and instructional materials you need to start using this method right away Argument Driven Inquiry in Biology is a one stop source of expertise advice and investigations The book is broken into two basic parts 1 An introduction to the stages of argument driven inquiry from question identification data analysis and argument development and evaluation to double blind peer review and report revision 2 A well organized series of 27 field tested labs that cover molecules and organisms ecosystems heredity and biological evolution The investigations are designed to be more authentic scientific experiences than traditional laboratory activities They give your students an opportunity to design their own methods develop models collect and analyze data generate arguments and critique claims and evidence Because the authors are veteran teachers they designed Argument Driven Inquiry in Biology to be easy to use and aligned with today's standards The labs include reproducible student pages and teacher notes The investigations will help your students learn the core ideas crosscutting concepts and scientific practices found in the Next Generation Science Standards In addition they offer ways for students to develop the disciplinary skills outlined in the Common Core State Standards Many of today's teachers like you want to find new ways to engage students in scientific practices and help students learn more from lab activities Argument Driven Inquiry in Biology does all of this even as it gives students the chance to practice reading writing speaking and using math in the context of science

Carrion Ecology, Evolution, and Their Applications M. Eric Benbow, Jeffery K. Tomberlin, Aaron M. Tarone, 2025-07-17 The first edition of Carrion Ecology Evolution and Their Applications brought together multiple scientific disciplines to shed light on the importance of carrion within the context of ecology and evolutionary biology and through applications ranging from human mass disasters to habitat ecosystem conservation This second edition builds upon this foundation to include a huge amount of new research consisting of 33 chapters 9 brand new and the remaining 24 substantially updated and expanded One of the most significant changes for this edition is the coverage of aquatic ecosystems both freshwater and marine The book is now represented by 73 authors from eight countries incorporating more diverse perspectives and engagement into this multidisciplinary and expanding science The resulting new edition showcases a broader scope of topics geographic areas ecosystems and history of carrion ecology evolution and their applications for humanity It provides the most comprehensive resource on carbon from all ecosystems of the world The student academic and professional will find this book insightful providing new insights for the fields of molecular ecology microbiology entomology population biology community and ecosystem ecology as well as applications in forensics and human and environmental health

The Carbon Fix Stephanie Paladino, Shirley J Fiske, 2016-11-18 Given the growing urgency to develop global responses to a changing climate The Carbon Fix examines the social and equity dimensions of putting the world's forests and necessarily the rural people who manage and depend on them at the center of climate policy efforts such as REDD intended to slow global warming The book assesses the implications of international policy approaches that focus on forests as carbon and especially forest carbon offsets for rights justice and climate governance Contributions from leading anthropologists and geographers analyze a growing trend towards market principles and financialization of nature in environmental governance placing it into conceptual critical and historical context The book then challenges perceptions of forest carbon initiatives through in depth field based case studies assessing projects policies and procedures at various scales from informed consent to international carbon auditing While providing a mixed assessment of the potential for forest carbon initiatives to balance carbon with social goals the authors present compelling evidence for the complexities of the carbon offset enterprise fraught with competing interests and interpretations at multiple scales and having unanticipated and often deleterious effects on the resources and rights of the world's poorest peoples especially indigenous and rural peoples The Carbon Fix provides nuanced insights into political economic and ethical issues associated with climate change policy Its case approach and fresh perspective are critical to environmental professionals development planners and project managers and to students in upper level undergraduate and graduate courses in environmental anthropology and geography environmental and policy studies international development and indigenous studies

Science and Environment in Chile Javiera Barandiaran, 2018-07-31 The politics of scientific advice across four environmental conflicts in Chile when the state acted as a neutral broker rather than protecting the common good In Science and Environment in Chile Javiera Barandiaran examines the consequences for environmental governance when the state lacks the capacity to produce an authoritative body of knowledge Focusing on the experience of Chile after it transitioned from dictatorship to democracy she examines a series of environmental conflicts in which the state tried to act as a neutral broker rather than the protector of the common good She argues that this shift in the role of the state occurring in other countries as well is driven in part by the political ideology of neoliberalism which favors market mechanisms and private initiatives over the actions of state agencies Chile has not invested in environmental science labs state agencies with in house capacities or an ancillary network of trusted scientific advisers despite the growing complexity of environmental problems and increasing popular demand for more active environmental stewardship Unlike a high modernist empire state with the scientific and technical capacity to undertake large scale projects Chile s model has been that of an umpire state that purchases scientific advice from markets After describing the evolution of Chilean regulatory and scientific institutions during the transition Barandiar n describes four environmental crises that shook citizens trust in government the near collapse of the farmed salmon industry when an epidemic killed millions of fish pollution from a paper and pulp mill that killed off or forced out thousands of black neck swans a gold mine that threatened three glaciers and five controversial mega dams in Patagonia
